This volume, which is so rare as to have escaped the notice of Brunet and other bibliographers, seems by its title to in-sinuate the existence of an earlier edition. But this perhaps is not the case. The author has a strange addition to his name: "el Rey de Figueroa," the origin of which deserves investigation.

ANTIPHONARIUM ET BREVIARIUM, cum Vitis Sanctorum, etc. sm. folio, Anglo-French MS. with the Music noted in black upon four red lines, beautifully written on fine VELLUM, illuminated with grotesquely bordered capitals and initials, and 30 delicate Miniatures, executed in a fine style of English art, not perfect at the end, bound in brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £120. Sec. XIII. (1260-70)

The art exhibited in the ornamentation is of decidedly English character, and peculiarly elegant; while the mingled French and English interest of the scribe is shown by the Calendar and the Saints' lives which appear in the volume. The English and Irish monks who achieved canonization by their labours in Gaul in the fifth, sixth, and later centuries, are the chief names that appear in the calendar and in the biographies. One of the longest of these latter is the life of St. Fursey, an Irish missionary who evangelized amongst the Saxons (of Britain) and the Franks, and built monasteries at Lagny and Péronne in the north of France. Amongst the other lives of Saints are those of Vedastus, Vindicianus, Gaugerie, and Aubert, all abbots of Cambrai. Most of the names in the MS. are referable to the northern parts of France; they are also chiefly those of English and Irish saints; and as the peculiar but elegant style of ornamentation is of that modified French character which obtained in this country, we might venture to claim this beautiful volume as of English production.

The English connexion and the North-French locality are further indicated by the names of St. Willibrord, a native of Northumberland, whom Pepin sent as apostle to the Frisians; the English Abbess Walpurgis, who died in Germany about 780; Kilian the Irish apostle of the Franks, killed in 688; and many others. The calendar also contains the name of "Elizabeth Teutonice," opposite the date of November 19; this designation of the nationality of a now well-known saint, which I find in no other calendar, being sufficient to show that her canonization (A.D. 1235) was still recent and unfamiliar at the time the MS. was written. The name of Petrus Mediolanensis is added in the Calendar (April 29) by a contemporary or nearly contemporary hand, and as he died in 1252, this circumstance further suggests the date of the book. The Calendar is very full, and contains many unfamiliar entries which may serve to fix the locality of the execution of the MS.

The liturgical value of the book is also high, as the service, hymns, homilies, lives of saints, and music, are given in extenso, which is a very unusual thing in MSS. of the kind.

The miniatures are illustrative of the text which they accompany, and are designed and coloured with remarkable fineness and delicacy. The adjunct ornaments which fill the long straight borders that are drawn upwards and downwards from the initials and miniatures, are grotesque and striking. In two instances the lower line is occupied by a tourney scene of two knights on horseback tilting with lances.

As a paleographical specimen the MS. is truly beautiful and attractive.

EVANGELIA QUATUOR, GRÆCE, cum Canonibus Eusebii, 410 leaves, (in 2 vols. sm. 4to. including ten blank) fine Byzantine illuminated Manuscripts upon Vellum, with 4 large Paintings of the Evangelists, the capitals and headings in gold, beautifully bound in green morocco extra, blind-tooled, enclosed in a red velvet case, with compartments and spring, £210.

about A.D. 1000

It is a circumstance of very great rarity to find all the four pictures of the Evangelists in one MS., and an unusual interest attaches in consequence to the present codex, which, from its correctness, is also important for the collation of the text. As far as any peculiarities of the writing are concerned, it has to be said that there are but few instances of itacism; the dative iota is sometimes ascript, and sometimes omitted, but never subscript; and the breathings are scarcely modified from the old rectangular shape. It is remarkable that in John, i. 28, the word Bethabara was written by the scribe over the erased Bethania (the latter form being that which appears in all the more ancient MSS.) This fact shows not only that the MS. above described must have been copied from one of the early codices, but also that it underwent a careful critical revision and collation, since an emendation first made by Origen was thus accepted in spite of the archetypal authority.

MISSALE GALLICANUM, sm. folio, MS. on Vellum, written in double columns in a bold Gothic hand, with ornamental painted initials, bound in vellum, from the library of the late Dr. Todd of Trinity College, Dublin, £100. Sec. XIII

A volume of very great value to the liturgical scholar, and of a class which is extremely rare. Its Gallican character is shown by a note on the margin of leaf 65, reverse, opposite to the prayer for the Pope, the Bishop, and the King. The words are Domini Regis Franciæ; and lower down in the same margin opposite the memento for the dead there is written, "Domini Edwardi Regis Angliæ," and "Margarette de Clere comitissa Cornubiæ." This handwriting is of the fourteenth century, and the notes evidently refer to Edward II, and to Margaret de Clere wife of Edmund Earl of Cornwall. This Earl (who died A.D. 1300) is also mentioned in a note on the reverse of leaf 66, in the notes "Edmundi Comitiss Cornubiæ," "Domini Roberti Cardinalis," "Adele Regine." The Cardinal was Robert, Archbishop of Canterbury who died in 1277, in Italy, soon after receiving the red hat; and the Queen was Adelaide of Savoy, wife of King Louis le Gros of France. She died A.D. 1154. On the reverse of the second last leaf (folio 129) there is a prayer, written also in the fourteenth century, for King Charles V. or VI. of France.

The MS. is therefore of peculiar interest to an English collector, since it must have been used in some connexion with the Royal family of England as above remarked.

The liturgical peculiarities are copiously noted in a printed dissertation by Dr. Todd, which is pasted upon the fly-leaves.

— in two books in one vol. 12mo. bound in brown morocco, £36. Sec. XV

At the end of the Isidore are found the celebrated rhymes, which stand in the present MS.

Erthe out of erthe is wondirli wrouzt,
Erthe of erthe hath gete a dignite of nouzt,
Erthe upon erthe hath sett all his thounzt,
How that erthe upon erthe mai be hiz brouzt.
Erthe upon erthe would be a king,
But how erthe schal to erthe thenkith he

Whanne that erthe biddeth erthe hise rentis

Thanne schall erthe out of erthe have a piteuous

Erthe upon erthe wynneth castels and touris,
Than seeth erthe to erthe this is al ouris.
Whanne erthe upon erthe biggid up his bouris,
Thanne schal erthe upon erthe suffre scharpe

Erthe gooth upon erthe as molde upon molde,
So gooth erthe upon erthe al glittering in gold,
Lyk as erthe unto erthe never go schuld,
And zit schal erthe unto erthe rather than he wolde.

And so on through thirty-two lines more.

Pecock's curious treatise on moral and religious obligations was intended for poor people who could not buy his larger work, the Donet, and may therefore be rarer than the latter. He uses the word published quite in its modern sense, in the following sentence:—

"Zit in to the moor ese of the psone pooris in haver & in witt I have drawn this now folewyng extract or outdrawzt fro the first pti of the said Donet, that no psoon cristen grown into discrecyon of resou or fewe of hem after sufficient pupplishing of this book to hem schulde have eny excusaciou for this that thei knowe not the lawe and service of her lord god."

American Writing. Manuscrit Pictographique Americain, précédé d'une Notice sur l'Idéographie des Peaux-Rouges par l'Abbé Em. Domenech, roy. 8vo. 119 pp. of Text, and 228 lithographed pages, half calf, 30s; or half morocco, uncut, 35s Paris, 1860

This pretended American MS. is in reality a copy book, full of rude drawings by a dirty-minded German school-boy, which having fallen into the hands of a missionary in the wilds of America, and by him been presented to the Marquis de Paulmy, the worthy Abbé's enthusiasm has led him to believe, was a genuine pictographic MS. Its German origin is established by the fact, that on page 64 the word 'wurst,' on 185 'Johann,' and 119 'Konig,' are plainly written. In consequence of the discovery of its real character, the book has been withdrawn from circulation.

IDEA IN THE RELIGIONS OF ANTIQUITY, by HODDER M. WESTROPP and C. STANILAND WAKE, with an Introduction, additional Notes, and Appendix by ALEXANDER WILDER, M.D., 1 vol. 8vo. second edition, with plates, cloth, 10s 6d New York, 1875

These papers were read before the Anthropological Society of London, attracting great interest among scholars and persons of cultivation. The whole subject of Phallism is here condensed and set forth modestly yet explicitly; and its connection with the ancient-world religions accurately defined. The Biblical student, desirous to understand the nature and character of the idolatry of the Israelites, during the Commonwealth and Monarchy, the Missionary to heathen lands fitting for his work, and the classic scholar endeavouring to comprehend the ideas and principles which underlie mythology, will find their curiosity gratified; and they will be enabled at the same time to perceive how not only many of our modern systems of religion, but our arts and architecture, are to be traced to the same archaic source. Such additions to our knowledge will be beneficial in every department of science, art, and civilization: while true religion is incalculably the gainer.

H. MACNAGHTEN, 4 vols. roy. 8vo. fine copy, red morocco extra, £5. Calc. 1832-42

This edition of the Arabian Nights will be found a most useful book for the practical study of the Modern Arabic Language. It is held in the highest estimation.

BEIDHAWII Commentarius in Coranum Arabice, ed. FLEISCHER, 2 vols. in 1, 4to. (all published), cloth, £2. 2s Lips. 1844-48

An excellent critical edition of the work which is considered the best literal interpretation of the Koran.

One of the most important works upon Arabic Bibliography.

CONCORDANTIE Corani Arabice ad literarum ordinem et verborum radices disposuit Fluegel, 4to. bds. 15s Lipsiæ, 1875

This is the only available technical aid to enable the student quickly to trace certain words and their uses in the Koran. There is another Concordance printed about fifty years back at Calcutta, but so imperfect and clumsily arranged as to be useless.

CORAN in Arabic, 12mo. lithographed in facsimile from the copy written by Hafiz Osman in A. H. 1094, which had been transcribed from the codex of the famous commentator, ALI AL CARL, morocco, native binding, £1. 1s (Constantinople, about 1871)

CORANUS, Arabice, Flügelianum textum recognovit iterum exprimi curavit Redslob, 8vo. FINE PAPER, russiæ extra, 24s Lips. 1855

Lipsiæ, 1869

The best critical edition of the Koran, with an Index of the sections and Suras. Even natives of the East and South prefer this fine book, for its clearness and typographical beauty, to the MSS. that are accessible to them.

- IKHWANU S-SAFA: Story of the Dispute between Man and the other Animals concerning their relative position in the scheme of existence, in Arabic, roy. 8vo. morocco, RARE, £2. 0s. 1263 (1846)

This is the Arabic original of the Hindustani book to which Professor Forbes gave the title of Ikhwān us Sāfa. The Ikhwān us Sāfa (Brothers of Purity) were a society of thinkers and writers flourishing about the end of the tenth century of our era, who have left a large number of curious treatises, chiefly philosophical and speculative. The above is one of them.

- One of the few great works in Arabic historical literature. The abridged translation made by Don Pascual de Gayangos, and the edition of the text printed at Leyden, have enabled the Western reader to estimate Makkari's compilation justly as by far the most important book ever written on the subject it treats. However little the author be entitled to the reputation of a critical historian, his work is nevertheless a complete picture of the domination of the Mohammedans in Spain, from their first invasion to their final expulsion, extracted from the elder writers and chronologically arranged.

A new and carefully corrected edition of Rodwell's Koran. THE KORAN commonly called the Alcoran of Mahommed, re-arranged and translated into English, with Notes by J. M. Rodwell, M.A., 1 vol. demy 8vo. cloth, 12s 1876

The Koran as arranged in the authentic Arabic MSS. is a sad jumble of the original composition of Mahommed, made some years after his death by order of Abu Bekr. Mr. Rodwell has re-arranged all the Surahs chronologically, so as to form one perfect work, shewing the growth and progression of the doctrines of the Prophet.

"On the whole the work is a most acceptable contribution to Oriental literature; and the English and Arabic part especially will be an invaluable aid to travellers in the East, and to all Englishmen who have occasion to study Arabic."—Athenæum, Jan. 29, '59.

Architectural Publication Society: A complete set of the works issued by this body from the beginning in 1848 to its abrupt close in 1869, consisting of:

DETACHED ESSAYS, with 99 plates and 170 woodcuts, VERY RARE 1848-53

DICTIONARY OF ARCHITECTURE, including the Biographical as well as Technical and other portions of Art and Science, 1852-67, 16 parts [A-LYTTUS]—ILLUSTRATIONS to the Dictionary of Architecture, 14 parts, [A-MAZE], with above 150 plates, some of them coloured, and 300 woodcuts—in all 3 vols. and 10 parts, atlas 4to, two vols. hf. morocco, one in cloth, from the library of T. Bellamy, Esq. £15. 1848-69

This important and comprehensive work (the only one of the class in any language), honoured by the support and contentenance of the leading scientific and artistic bodies, is an invaluable authority for reference on all matters relating to the art and science of Architecture, and will be found to merit a foremost place in the libraries of all amateurs and artists, and of public bodies and educational establishments of all countries.

A complete set like the above very rarely occurs for sale, owing to the difficulty of obtaining the first portion. A few of the scarce parts can be had separately. The subscription price was 21 guineas.

Archives de la Commission des Monuments Historiques, publiées par ordre de son Excellence M. Achille Fould, Ministre d'Etat, impl. folio, 164 very fine plates, some coloured, with text; in parts, sd. £3. 10s Paris, 1870, and after

One hundred and twenty-nine parts have been issued of this valuable artistic and archaeological publication; the above set being the major part of livrn 1-126. Only a small number of copies were printed. The plates are not numbered and no titles have as yet been given. The various parts have been delineated of the numerous architectural antiquities and historic monuments of France, and coloured reproductions of ancient paintings and decorations given. Details of any remarkable portion and ornament, and of statuary, etc. of any building are also depicted. Choice of subjects has been made from edifices of all styles, Domestic Architecture being specially illustrated. Military, Municipal, and Ecclesiastical Architecture share the other illustrations. Great attention has been paid to give the modes of construction, and analyses of the plans followed by the ancient Architects.

Astronomical Society of London: Memoirs, a complete set from the commencement in 1822 to 1863, being Vols. I-XXXII, 32 vols. large 4to. with Index in 8vo.—33 vols. fine plates of Eclipses, Comets, Instruments, etc. twenty-five vols. uniformly half bound green calf, rest in bds. VERY SCARCE, the Hartwell House copy, £30. 1822-63

Arundel Society. A Set of its Publications, consisting of facsimile reproductions of Paintings in Fresco, by the old Italian and German Masters, from the commencement in 1849 to the end of 1873, including both the First and Second Annual Publications, since the division was made in 1867, the whole comprising about 80 superb Chromolithographs, upwards of 60 copper, line, outline and wood engravings, and 12 vols. of Memoirs on the Artists whose works have been reproduced, extremely rare, £84. 1849-75

Arundel Society. A Set of the Publications, from the commencement in 1849 to the end of 1875, including both the FIRST and SECOND Annual Publications, as well as ALL the EXTRA Plates; in all about 120 CHROMOLITHOGRAPHS, 70 copper, line, outline and wood engravings, and 13 vols. of Text, an absolutely perfect set, extremely rare, £150. 1849-75

Sets are occasionally advertized as "complete," "the entire series of plates," etc. but without the EXTRA or OCCASIONAL publications, or at the best only a portion of them, whilst it is these very extra plates that include the finest and rarest of the Society's publications. They were brought out for separate sale at higher prices to the public and at lower to the members, and the impression of them being strictly limited to 500 copies, and the total number of subscribers being 3000, it is obvious that only a few can obtain them. The consequence is they quickly get out of print. Sets, or rather series, without these can be had for much less money.

(sells 24s), cloth, 16s 1862-72

The curious matter brought to light for the first time in this volume, cannot fail to attract the particular attention of scholars, and to open a new and interesting era in the History of Welsh Literature. The Welsh and English Text are placed opposite each other, an arrangement more convenient for the Scholar, who may wish to test the accuracy of the translation by a reference to the original.

The portion of the unfinished second volume described above, was discovered during the examination of Mr. Rees' stock, after its purchase by Mr. Quaritch; and as there is no possibility of its completion, it is now added to the first volume, that Welsh scholars may have the work complete as far as it was printed.

BIBLE (the Complutensian). BIBLIA SACRA

Compluti, industria Arn. Guil. de Brocario, 1514, 1515 et 1517

In the fifth volume of some copies, a sheet of six leaves, containing a Greek preface to St. Paul's Epistles, is found : it was probably added before the publication of the whole edition. The present copy does not contain it.

Cette polyglotte, exécutée par les ordres et aux dépens du Cardinal Ximenes, dont elle a retenu le nom, est la première qui ait été publiée. Livre infiniment précieux.

If ever the finger of Providence may be traced, surely it was visible in the order of these conflicting, yet concurring events. That a Cardinal Archbishop, the friend and advocate of the Inquisition, should conceive and execute the project of printing and publishing the Holy Scriptures in their original tongues—that the conqueror of Oran and Regent of Spain should devote his revenues to casting Hebrew and Greek types, to the collection of MSS. and the assemblage of Scholars—that he should prevail on Leo to assist him with the treasures of the Vatican and the prestige of the tiara, that he should just finish his work and expire, when the Protestant reform began—that an Augustinian Monk should then start up and confront the Papacy. That Leo should then strive in vain to suppress the work he had previously favoured, and that after five years of suspense and imprisonment, this Polyglot should come to light at the crisis. Whether the Bible was for the many or the few, whether the Vulgate Latin was of the same authority as the originals; this is indeed such a marvellous combination of events apparently independent and adverse, that we may well appeal to it, as the nodus vindice dignus of superhuman solution.—E. G. Grinfield.

The printing of the celebrated Complutensian Polyglott occupied fifteen years, at an expense of 50,000 ducats, which was defrayed by Cardinal Ximenes, who when upwards of sixty years of age made himself master of the Hebrew tongue, to qualify himself for the superintendence of the work with which his name has in succeeding generations been so honourably associated.

Moguntia per Petrum Schoiffer der Gernshem, 1472

This excessively rare and valuable edition is a reprint (page for page and line for line) of that issued by Fust and Schoiffer in 1462, and by Dr. Pettigrew is considered of greater rarity. The binding alone cost £13. 5s 6d.

BIBLIA LATINA, 8vo. bds. 28s

Lutetia, R. Stephani, 1545

This may be considered a wonderful production for the time of the press of the Estienne. It is printed with a very fine diamond type, yet quite easy to read and of great clearness and beauty.

BIBLIA SACRA LATINA, 2 vols. folio, painted capitals, with the first page of each volume illuminated in gold and colours, a few leaves mended, otherwise a good sound copy,

TREMELY RARE, £105.

Paris, Ulric Gering, M. Krantz et

M. Friburger, (1476)

This edition of the Latin Bible ought to form the foundation stone of every Parisian Amateur's library, not only because it was the earliest printed in France, but also on account of its being one of the rarest of the works emanating from the Press of Gering, Krantz, and Friburger, who first introduced printing into Paris. This very interesting copy formerly belonged to SIR THOMAS FAIRFAX, grandfather of the celebrated Parliamentary General, and has his autograph attestation of its having been in the possession of his ancestor, Sir Guy Fairfax, of Steton.

Nurembergae, jussu Andrea Frisner Bunsdelensis et Joannis Sensenschmit, 1475

Here follows the printer's mark: 2 crossed scythes and a pelican tearing up its own breast.

With the exception of a few leaves which have been mended in the margin, and three leaves wanting in the epistles, this may be considered as a fine copy of a most splendid specimen of early typography. The initial letters at the commencement of the first line are richly ornamented, and the capital letters throughout are well stencilled in colours.

About A.D. 1200

This MS. was presented by Reyner Spergel, Vicar in Emden, to a convent at "Bentlage," never to be alienated from it, early in the fifteenth century. It was afterwards, in 1603, given by Arnold, Count of Bentheim, to the library of the Church of Tecklenburg. The book is a fine example of paleography, and as a Bible written probably in Eastern France about the same time as Magna Charta in England, it would form an excellent specimen of mediæval monkish art in any library.

B. Richel, cir. 1470

Extremely rare, and probably the first book printed at Basel by B. Rodt, one of Gutenberg's workmen. Mr.
Pettigrew in the Bibliotheca Susexiana, says: "I regard this edition of the Vulgate as of the greatest rarity; and I DO NOT KNOW OF ANY PUBLIC OR PRIVATE LIBRARY IN WHICH ANOTHER IS TO BE FOUND." Braun considers this edition to have been printed between 1460 and 1465. The first portion with rubricated Capitals was printed by B. Rodt, and the second with woodcut Initials by B. Richel.

Bhagavad-Gita (The); or a Discourse between Krishna and Arjuna on Divine Matter, a Sanskrit philosophical poem, translated with notes, and an introduction on Sanskrit Philosophy, by J. Cockburn Thomson, square small 8vo. original unabridged edition, pp. cxix and 155, cloth, 10s 6d Hertford, 1855

The Bhagavad Gita, which was written probably some time before the birth of Christ, and was inserted in the great epic poem Mahabharata, is not only a poem but also the greatest philosophical work which India has produced. It belongs to the Sankhya system—the most important of Hindu schools of philosophy—and is Pantheistic in its character. When we consider that the busy intellect of mankind has been engaged upon metaphysical inquiries for thousands of years, and that no advance has been made in real discovery, the teaching of the Bhagavad Gita is as valuable now as it ever has been, and offers a study as attractive as any other which exists for the student of the History of Religions.

The introduction by Mr. Thomson, which gives with admirable condensation an analysis of the doctrines of all the Hindu systems of Philosophy, has long been acknowledged to be a masterpiece.

Binns's Royal Worcester China.—In preparation, a new, much improved, and enlarged edition; the progress of the work is best shown by the words of the Author extracted from a letter dated November, 8, 1875:—

"In reply to your letter I beg to say that my MS. of second edition is in the printer's hands. I am pushing him forward with it, as I have had all the engravings, &c. completed. I think you will be pleased with it as I hope to make it much superior to the first edition. Many enquiries are made about it, but I can make no promise as to when it will be ready; I can only say I have done my part. There will be upwards of 30 new illustrations in the form of new objects and proofs from old plates, which I think will be of much interest."

CHRISTIAN ART BY THE OLD GERMAN MASTERS.

Boisserée Gallery now at Munich,

GALLERY OF THE OLD GERMAN MASTERS, formerly at Stuttgart, in the Possession of the Brothers BOISSERÉE, now removed to Munich, 120 superb Plates, executed under the direction of STRIXNER, engraved in lithography, heightened by tints, and so admirably done as to be scarcely distinguishable from the most perfect line engravings, mounted and ruled on drab-coloured drawing paper, elephant folio, quite COMPLETE, with title and Table of Contents, half bound red MOROCCO, £20.

Published at £75. Priced, in 1841, H. Bohn, £63. In 1825 a copy fetched at Sotheby's £40.; 1860, Scarisbrick's, £28. 10s; 1868, Lord Farnham's, £34.

To all engaged in the study of Christian Mythology and Christian Art, to all Painters and Sculptors, the Boisserée Gallery is of especial interest, as no where else can be found such faithful representations of the ecclesiastically accepted portraits of Christ, the Holy Family, the Apostles, and the Saints of the Christian Church.

In no other paintings is found expressed the same religious feeling and depth. The alphabetical Index of subjects facilitates research, as several portraits have been treated with variations by different artists.

La collection de peintures d'après laquelle ce magnifique recueil est publié, et qui fait maintenant partie de la galerie royale de Munich, se compose de 320 morceaux; mais l'ouvrage que nous annonçons ne présente qu'un choix des objets les plus nécessaires pour former une histoire à peu près complète de la peinture allemande et flamande, par les monuments mêmes. Elle est divisée en trois séries principales: la première contient les peintures du XIVe siècle, la seconde celles du XVe, et la troisième celles du XVIe.

“C'est dans cet ouvrage que, sous le crayon de M. Strixner, la lithographie semble avoir atteint le plus haut degré de perfection en Allemagne.”—Brunet.

THE COLLECTION OF ANCIENT GREEK INSCRIPTIONS in the British Museum, edited by NEWTON, part I, Attika, edited by the Rev. E. L. Hicks, folio, viii and 160 pp. 3 plates of the Ground-plan, Sections, and Details of Erechtheion, bds. £1. 1874

"The Collection of Greek Inscriptions in the British Museum, of which the Attic portion is here published, has been acquired by purchase, by donations, and also through the exploration of ancient sites conducted by the Government, by the Trustees, or by private enterprise.

"In the present work the same geographical arrangement has been followed which was adopted by Böckh in his great work, the Corpus Inscriptionum Græcarum, published in 1828 by the Academy of Berlin, and also in the new Corpus, now being published by the same Academy. According to this arrangement Attika stands first in the order of Greek States.

"All the uncial texts have been carefully collated with the original marbles by Mr. Hicks in the first instance and by me afterwards."—C. T. NEWTON.

BUSK'S Catalogue of Marine Polyzoa, part 3, Cyclostomata, 8vo. 38 plates representing above 200 species, cloth, 5s 1875

A CATALOGUE of Birds, by R. BOWDLER SHARPE, F.L.S., F.Z.S., &c., &c., Assistant in the Zoological Department, British Museum.

Vol. I. Accipres, 8vo. xvi and 480 pp. many woodcuts and 14 coloured plates of new or little known species of BIRDS of PREY, cloth, 19s 1874

— the same, Vol. II. Catalogue of the Striges or Nocturnal Birds of Prey in the collection of the British Museum, 8vo. xii and 326 pp. with 14 coloured plates of Owls, cloth, 16s 1875

The importance of Mr. Sharpe's previous contributions to Science, such as the 'Monograph of the Alcedinidae,' and the 'Birds of Europe,' fully justify the interest which is felt in the above volume. Ornithological Science will largely gain by it. The 'Catalogue of Birds' will be a companion work to Dr. Günther's celebrated 'Catalogue of Fishes,' which was also published by the authorities of the British Museum. As in that work, every species will be described in full, and since not only the Birds in the Museum itself will be included, but every known species of every genus, each volume will be a series of monographic revisions of the group or family of which it treats. In addition to this, diagnostic tables and keys will be supplied for each genus, and the genera and families will also be fully characterized, woodcuts being added whenever the characters require elucidation.

FACSIMILES of ANCIENT CHARTERS in the British Museum, folio, 23 large photographic facsimiles, with the modern printed form, cloth, £1. 1s 1873

"The special object of the present publication of Ancient English Charters in facsimile is to preserve as it were the documents themselves, by reproducing them in exact imitation and in a permanent form. They cannot be looked upon without emotion, as monuments of a remote age; and, being dated both as to place and time, they are invaluable for the study of palæography, especially as a standard of comparison for English writings, of which it is most important for the study of the language to fix the true age.

"The Trustees resolved to have facsimiles made of the series which were the oldest and of worst condition. The process practised by Messrs. Spencer, Sawyer, and Bird, was selected, as giving the photographic copy, untouched by hand, in actual printing. The results show how excellently it is adapted for the purpose; and the prints obtained by it may be accepted as giving all the niceties of the writing with perfect accuracy."—Preface.

A Catalogue of Birds, by R. BOWDLER SHARPE, F.L.S., F.Z.S., &c., &c., Assistant in the Zoological Department, British Museum.
 Vol. I. Accipitres, 8vo. xvi and 480 pp. many woodcuts, and 14 coloured plates of new or little known species of BIRDS OF PREY, cloth, 19s 1874

The importance of Mr. Sharpe's previous contributions to Science, such as the 'Monograph of the Alcedinidæ,' and the 'Birds of Europe,' fully justify the interest which is felt in the above volume. Ornithological Science will largely gain by it.
 The 'Catalogue of Birds' will be a companion work to Dr. Günther's celebrated 'Catalogue of Fishes,' which was also published by the authorities of the British Museum. As in that work, every species will be described in full, and since not only the Birds in the Museum itself will be included, but every known species of every genus, each volume will be a series of monographic revisions of the group or family of which it treats. In addition to this, diagnostic tables and keys will be supplied for each genus, and the genera and families will also be fully characterized, woodcuts being added whenever the characters require elucidation.

British Museum Publication. Facsimile of an Egyptian

Hieratic Papyrus of the reign of Rameses III, oblong atlas folio, 79 large plates, with an historical and descriptive Introduction, and Translation by S. Birch, bds. £3. By Order of the Trustees, 1876

The Papyrus is the largest of its class which has been hitherto discovered. It measures 133 feet in length and 16½ inches in breadth. It is written in a most carefully engrossed hand, more like that employed for the production of carefully copied books, than the cursive style.

It throws great light on this portion of Egyptian History (reign of Rameses II.) as in the four last pages, a kind of royal speech or proclamation, Rameses III describes the condition of Egypt at the time of the accession of his father.—Introduction.

The general arrangement adopted in this work is that of Lamarck, according to the descending scale, with such slight alterations and the addition of some new Genera, which more recent observations have rendered necessary, since the time of that celebrated Malacologist. This work is illustrated by 62 coloured plates, exhibiting nearly 3000 figures.

Brown's Illustrations of Fossil Conchology, with Descriptions and Localities of all the Species, thick royal 4to. 3520 figures on 116 coloured plates, (pub. at £5. 10s), half bound, uncut, £4. 4s 1842

The Illustrations of "Fossil Conchology," with its sister work, "Illustrations of the Recent Conchology of Great Britain and Ireland," will be found to embrace pretty full representations, descriptions, and localities of all the known species, both fossil and recent, which have hitherto been met with in the strata, seas, land, and fresh waters, of the British Islands. These have been engraved by artists of established reputation; the names of Lizas, Aikman, Miller, Turvey, &c., being well-known to the public as men of celebrity. The whole of the engravings have been executed from drawings made by the Author expressly for the work, and amount to 116 coloured plates, comprehending 3521 figures. These two works are necessary adjuncts to Sowerby's Genera of Recent and Fossil Shells.

A volume of extraordinary character. It is not only rare and curious, but is the only work worth reading on the history of Fashion's vagaries throughout the world. It matters little that some of the author's statements are derived from untrustworthy sources; on the whole his learning is correct and extensive, his judgment sound, and his remarks entertaining. It is a perfect encyclopædia of the strange customs of all times and countries, and will always remain one of the most curious and interesting books in English literature.

Cervantes, OBRAS completas, edicion dirigida por Don Cayetano Rosell, 12 vols. impl. 8vo. very fine portrait and facsimile, calf extra, gilt tops, uncut, £9. Madrid, 1863-64

A great testimony of the enduring love of Spain for its great writer. The type and paper of this edition are of the most beautiful and perfect kind, and the getting-up is of an equal excellence. The labour bestowed on the preparation for the press by the editor, who was assisted by Hartzenbusch undertaking the revision of Don Quixote, and the notes added by these two scholars, render this the standard critical edition. The issue was limited to 312 copies, and the binding of this one is worthy of the valuable work it encloses.

Cocker's Decimal Arithmeitic, with his Artificial Arithmetic, and Algebraical Arithmetic, 12mo. First Edition, morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £4. 10s London, 1685

The rarity of the first edition of Cocker's Arithmetic is too well known to require much comment. Few persons who quote the proverb, "correct according to Cocker," have ever seen the book that has rendered the author's name a household word—although there are upwards of sixty editions of it—and of these, few, probably not half a dozen, have seen a copy printed before 1700. For many years it was very doubtful if any copy of the first remained in existence, it being supposed that its use in schools had utterly extirpated every vestige of it. Lowndes never saw a copy of the Decimal Arithmetic, which he dates "probably 1669" (printer's error for 1689) adding "BUT NO COPY KNOWN." Geo. Smith's copy with the volume of Vulgar Arithmetic fetched £18. 5s.

The above copy has not the portrait, sometimes prefixed.

works that exist on the interesting subject of Medieval Costume. The ideas of most people in this respect, are very vague, being derived from pretty picture-books of fancy figures, in which nothing like precision or scientific treatment is ever met with. Indeed, Hefner's work may be called the only safe guide in this branch of Archæology and Fine Arts, which ought to be so attractive to the painter and to the general student of history and manners.

"Mr. Cotman is beyond all comparison the most spirited and forcible of the Architectural Draughtsmen of the present age. His Etchings have all the richness and vigour of the best artists of the old School, and are highly prized by all who are capable of appreciating them."

"The plates, etched and drawn by Mr. Cotman, are recommended by a high degree of merit and interest; most of the subjects which this indefatigable artist has chosen are hitherto unedited monuments. Mr. Cotman's style of engraving is well adapted for architecture, and unites picturesque effect with fidelity of delineation."—Quarterly Review.

Argo: or the Quest of the Golden Fleece, in ten books, 8vo. cloth gilt, new, 10s 6d 1876

Of the scholarship displayed in this book none could have a doubt who knew the author's History of Christian Art and Lives of the Lindsays. But as a poet his name is scarcely known, except to those who have seen his translations of Songs and Ballads from German and other tongues, written many years ago. There is nothing hysterical, libidinous, or blasphemous in the poem; therefore it is scarcely likely to suit the majority of readers of poetry. But there is an educated minority which will appreciate the simple beauty and strength of "Argo," and admire that combination of lofty thoughts and clear language with an intimate knowledge of Grecian story, which makes it seem like a work of pure classical origin rather than of modern adaptation. The Quest of the Golden Fleece is an epic based on the old story of the Argonauts, and written in the heroic verse of Dryden, its plot so systematically designed and worked out so thoroughly, that the reader's attention is never diverted from the central object of the poem.

The Propylæum is written in blank verse, and has no direct connexion with the story, but as a suggestion of the author's views on many important questions of our time, it will be found singularly interesting even by those who may hold opinions of a very different stamp.

The Dabistan ; or, School of Manners.

3 vols. 8vo. cloth, getting scarce, £2. 2s 1844

This is a work of great interest for all Oriental Scholars and Comparative Mythologists.
Sir William Jones describes this work as containing "more recondite learning, more entertaining history, more beautiful poetry, more ingenuity and wit, indecency and blasphemy, than he "ever saw collected in a single volume." It contains an account of the old Persian, the Brahmin, the Buddhist, the Christian, the Sufi, and the Mohammedan religions, with their various sects ; as well as a statement of their doctrines. It is most valuable for its exposition of the Zoroastrian creed, as this is based upon ancient Zend works now entirely lost.

"Before the Aryan and the Semitic races had made a record in history, aboriginal peoples occupied India, Arabia, and the countries of the Mediterranean. They were not barbarous, for their monumental remains show that their knowledge of architecture, the mechanic arts, and astronomy, has not been exceeded in subsequent time. Their civilization, however, was peculiar; for the religious comprehended the political system, and worship made science and art its ministers. Unconscious of harm or immodesty, they adored the Supreme Being as the Essential Principle of Life; and expressed their veneration by symbols which, in their simple apprehension, best expressed the Divine Functions. The Sun, possessing and diffusing the triune potencies of Heat, Light, and Actinism, was a universal emblem of God; as was the Bull, the zodiacal sign which indicated the vernal equinox and the resuscitation of Time. With equal aptness and propriety the human organs of sex, as representing Divine Love and the Perpetuation of Animated Existence, were also adopted as symbols of the Deity, and models of them employed at all religious festivals.

"Those symbols were adopted by the Aryan conquerors of India, and incorporated into the Brahmin worship; and we find remains of the pre-historical religion in modern creeds, superstitions, and architecture. The Monumental Shaft, the Cross, the Church-Spire, appear to have been derived from the archaic worship just noted, and mean alike the virile symbol and the life everlasting.

"Mr. Davenport has given these matters a due explanation, and his work is a rare as well as a valuable contribution to literature."—*Solomon the Wise.*Davenport's Curiositates Eroticæ Physiologiæ; or Tabooed Subjects freely treated, in Six Essays, viz.—1. Generation; 2. Chastity and Modesty; 3. Marriage; 4. Circumcision; 5. Eunuchism; 6. Herniaphrodisim; and followed by a closing Essay on Death, by JOHN DAVENPORT, 1 vol. 4to. half morocco, gilt top, £2.*London, Privately printed, 1875*Davies' Celtic Researches, on the Origin, Traditions, and Languages of the Ancient Britons; with Introductory Sketches on Primitive Society, 8vo. calf neat, 12s 1804— Mythology and Rites of the British Druids, with Remarks on Ancient British Coins, roy. 8vo. front. cloth, uncut, 25s 1809[Davis (John) of Hereford] The Scourge of Folly, consisting of satyirical epigrams and others in honour of many noble and worthy persons of our land, together with a pleasant (though discordant) Descent upon most English Proverbs, and others, 12mo. engraved title with figures, red morocco extra, gilt edges, by BEDFORD, £12. 12s*(About 1612)*

EXTREMELY RARE. It is perhaps the most valuable of the works of Davis of Hereford, not merely as an example of his powers in this branch of poetry, but for the interesting references to men and manners in his time. One of the epigrams is addressed

To our English Terence Mr. Will Shake-speare.

Some say (good Will) which I in sport do sing,

Hadst thou not plaid some Kingly parts in sport,

Thou hadst been a companion for a King

And been a King among the meaner sort.

Some others rail; but rail as they think fit

Thou hast no railing, but a reigning Wit;

And honesty thou sow'st, which they do reape

So to increase their stocke which they do keepe.

This valuable work, compiled early in the third century, from sources which are lost, is the only one of its kind that has been handed down to us. The Lives and Opinions of the Ancient Philosophers, described by a liberal and refined scholar of the early ages of Christianity, must be considered one of the most important legacies of Greek literature. Diogenes was an Epicurean and anti-Christian.

The author's greatest work; originally written at twenty-one years of age, reprinted with changes and additions one year later; and finally given to the world in its complete form between 1829 and 1848, after he had embraced the ancient faith of Europe, and thereby found himself obliged to make considerable alterations in the text. The product of a highly sensitive and graceful genius, richly stored with learning, it stands in the same relation to the History of Chivalry as the works of Mr. Ruskin to the History of Art. No ancient romancer, nor yet Mr. Tennyson in our own time, has ever painted Knighthood in such beautiful shape and delicate colouring; and the enthusiasm which breathes throughout the work reveals the nature of the author himself as identical with the type he portrays. In spite of the vast knowledge of olden times and mediæval literature which is visible in every passage of his book, there is no mouldiness of antiquity, no dust or rust, on the mirror of his intellect; his style is simple and unaffected; and to any mind, in which high and noble thoughts can ever harbour, the reading of the Broad Stone of Honour will be as delightful and full of charm as the Earlier Romances of Chivalry.

Donovan's Natural History of the Insects of China, with Indexes according to the Systems of Linnæus and Fabricius, new edition, with additions by Westwood, roy. 4to. 50 coloured plates containing 220 figures, half red morocco, £5. 1842

"In presenting a new edition of the Epitome of the Insects of China to the entomological public, I have endeavoured to bring it down to the present state of the science. I have endeavoured to render the specific characters more precise, the nomenclature more correct (giving the priority to the oldest specific name), and the synonyms more numerous.

The localities in many instances were incorrectly given in the former edition; and I have added many additional observations, either incorporated in the text or given as foot notes, omitting nothing which appeared in the former at all likely to instruct or interest the reader."

—J. O. Westwood.

All travellers to, and residents in India and China, should not be without them.

"The progress of Entomology, as a science, has so much advanced, as to render a republication of this work advisable; at the same time, however, requiring that its original Linnean style should not be retained, but that it should be brought down to the present state of science. This I have endeavoured to do, by rendering the specific characters more detailed, the nomenclature more correct, the synonyms more numerous, and the localities more precise. I have added many additional observations, omitting nothing which appeared in the former at all likely to instruct or interest the reader. Alphabetical and systematic indices of the work are introduced, as well as numbers, both for the plates, and for the individual figures on each plate, which were omitted in the former edition."—J. O. Westwood.

With an English translation, and copious notes. Edited by J. WILLIAMS AB ITHEL, thick 8vo. cxxvii and 350 pp. cloth, 28s 1855

The Editorial Notes, in a smaller type, are incorporated in the Text of Edeyrn, with the view of supplying deficiencies, and rendering the work complete as a practical Grammar of the Cymraeg from the 6th century to the present day. It consists of Four main parts: 1. Orthography; 2. Parts of Speech; 3. Syntax; 4. Prosody. Under the last head, in addition to the rules furnished by Edeyrn, are given also the numerous and interesting regulations relative to poetic compositions which are to be found in "Y Pum Llyfr Kerddwriaeth," a MS. work of rare merit, which is printed entire in its original form. Altogether, it is expected that this will prove the standard Grammar of the Welsh language, calculated as it will be to aid in the composition of modern Cymraeg, and to unravel the peculiar structure of the ancient and mediæval literature.

This work deserves support from a wide circle, for at the price at which it is offered no greater boon could be conferred on the Art-loving public. A facsimile reproduction of such a series of engravings—the masterpieces of the greatest of all German artists—ought to be hailed with gladness by those who know the fame of Dürer, and the extreme difficulty of obtaining his original works even at a very high cost.

The noblest and most beautiful of all Albert Dürer's works. EADIE, the English Bible, an External ment, by JOHN EADIE, D.D., LL.D., Professor of Biblical Literature and Exegesis, United Presbyterian Church, 2 vols. 8vo.

cloth, 28s 1876

The story of the English Bible is one of singular interest to all who speak the English tongue. Dr. Eadie has tried to trace the Bible down from Anglo-Saxon times, adding remarks on the successive changes which have passed over the language since those times. A full account is given of Wycliffe's work as a translator, and the work and lives of the other men who have from time to time had a share in different versions of the Bible are also carefully considered. Full space is devoted to our present "authorized version," and the author concludes by pointing out the necessity which existed for the revision which is now

[ALLOT (ROBERT) or ROBERT ARMIN]

ENGLAND'S PARNASSUS, 12mo. with the leaf "Fames windy trump," mentioned by Lowndes as frequently wanting (and justly, as it never formed a portion of the work, but has been taken from another publication and added), red morocco extra, gilt edges, by F.
Bedford, £20. 1600

The Roxburghe copy sold for £21. This extremely rare Selection from Shakespeare and other Poets has enabled Editors to assign to their true authors various pieces not otherwise known. It has also preserved numerous verses of the Elizabethan and ante-Elizabethan period, nowhere else to be met with, and the names of poets who are not otherwise known in literary history than by their mention in England's Parnassus. It has hitherto been the custom to consider that the initials R. A.
at foot of the dedication to Sir Thomas Mounson concealed the name of Robert Allot, but Mr. Collier has adduced very plausible reasons for identifying them with Robert Armin, actor and author, who was a member of Shakspeare's company in 1603.

BALE (Johan) BREFE CHRONICLE concerning

Martir of Christ Sir John Oldecastell the Lord Cobham, 12mo. black letter, woodcut portrait on title, russica gilt, £10.

A. Scoloker and W. Seres, n. d. (1548)

EXCESSIVELY RARE, especially with the title. Herbert says he had seen three copies, but all of them wanting the portrait as it is called apparently without reason. A woodcut of a man in Roman armour but with the cross on his shield and the point of his sword bursting into flame, is hardly likely to have resembled Sir John Old-castle, except in the same way as Bale resembled a real historian.

ing many Selections from the Author's other works, etc.

of Braithwaite's Shepherd's Tales, published early in the same year, separately.

BULWER (J.) Anthropometamorphosis: Man Transform'd; or the Artificial Changeling, sm. 8vo. FIRST EDITION, frontispiece and portrait, fine copy in red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Riviere, £4. 4s 1650

A very curious and interesting work on the strange vagaries of Fashion, in all times and countries. At home and abroad, from personal observation, the accounts of books, and the reports of travellers, the author sought out all the known customs by which the propriety and modesty of nature were artificially modified.

CHAUCER (Geffray) WORKES, newlye printed, with dyvers Workes which were never in print before, stout sm. folio, title in facsimile, otherwise a perfect and very fine copy in red morocco super extra, gilt edges, by F. Bedford, probably the TALLEST COPY KNOWN, £26. 5s W. Bonham, 1542

This is the first collected edition with a date, in which the Plowman's Tale is printed. Several booksellers contributed to its production, and copies are therefore found with varying titles, bearing one or another name of the confraternity.

Mr. Hazlitt claims priority for an undated edition also issued by a union of booksellers, and which he assigns to 1538 as the probable date, but this is very doubtful.

CHEKE (Sir John) Hurt of Sedition, how grievous it is to a common welth, 12mo. black letter, calf extra, gilt edges, by Cecil, a very fine copy, £3. W. Seres, 1569

This curious and interesting treatise was printed first in 1549, reprinted in 1569, and again in 1576. The edition of 1576 is the commonest, or rather the least rare; the last copy of it which occurred for sale, fetched £3. 5s. But of the former two, copies are very seldom seen. The book is a sort of lay discourse from "the true subject to the rebell," and is grave and moderate in its character; even now worth attentive perusal.

CITIES WARNING-PEECE, in the Malignants description and Conversion; or, the Round-head turn'd Poet, where a Feast of Prose and Verse invites Curiosity to be nibbling, sm. 4to. hf. morocco, 12s

Written long since, but printed in the yeere that every knave and foole turned Cavaleere, [1642]

A curious piece, which belongs probably to the rarest productions of the ephemeral literature of the Civil War. It was apparently written by a citizen of Chichester sometime towards the end of 1642, before the Roundheads regained the possession of that town.

COOKE (J.) Greenes Tu Quoque, or the Cittie Gallant, sm. 4to. woodcut portrait of Greene on title, hf. green morocco, gilt edges, £8. 8s M. Flesher, n. d. (? 1622) Scarc. George Daniel's copy sold for £11. 15s.

Thomas Green, an eminent comic actor, Shakspeare's friend, played in this piece the part of Bubble, who frequently uses the phrase tu quoque. It is probable that "the City Gallant" was the title given to Cook's Comedy on the stage, and that the stupid name of "Greene's Tu Quoque" was simply added in the impression because of the humorous way in which it was uttered by the actor.

COWLEY'S Verses written upon several occasions, 12mo. calf, 12s 1663

CRASHAW (R.) Steps to the Temple, Sacred Poems, with the Delights of the Muses; the second edition, wherein are added divers pieces not before extant, 2 vols. in 1, 12mo. frontispiece by T. Cross, calf extra, gilt edges, by F. Bedford, £3. 3s 1648

This exquisite poet is no longer neglected, as was too much the fashion. The strong devotional fervour of most of his pieces, and the fact that he turned Roman Catholic, have contributed to obscure his name.

DRAYTON (M.) POLYOLBION, or a chorographical Description of Great Britain, digested into a poem, in two parts, folio, with the engraved frontispiece by Hole, but not the printed title, portrait of Prince Henry also by Hole, and 31 maps, very fine copy in old calf, £16. 1613-22

Drayton's Poly-Olbion is, according to Mr. G. Ellis, "a wonderful work, exhibiting at once the learning of an historian, an antiquary, a naturalist, and a geographer: embellished with the imagination of a poet." Mr. Gifford also says, it contains "many passages of high poetic beauty." That elegant critic, Rev. H. Heady, justly observes, "Drayton's Poly-Olbion is one of the most singular works this country has produced, and seems to me eminently original. The information contained in it is in general so accurate that he is quoted as an authority both by Hearne and Wood. His perpetual allusions to obsolete traditions, remote events, remarkable facts and personages, together with his curious genealogies of rivers, and his taste for natural history, have contributed to render his work very valuable to the Antiquary."

DRUMMOND OF HAWTHORNDEN. The most Elegant and Elaborate Poems of that great Court-wit Mr. William Drummond, sm. 8vo. brilliant impression of the rare portrait by R. Gaywood, green morocco super extra, gilt edges, by F. Bedford, £15. 15s 1656-1659

The title given above is the first in the volume, with the date 1659, but it is followed by the title "Poems by that most famous wit William Drummond of Hawthornden," with the genuine date of the book, 1656. There are besides several separate titles to the various parts.

These poems must take a high rank in English literature. There is no passion in them; they are full of frigid yet ingenious conceits; but the language is pure and musical, the ideas lofty, the form wrought to perfection. A high-bred sweetness blends in their melody with the repose of classic elegance; and thus Drummond, though not attaining to the upper regions of Poetry, occupies nevertheless a place in literature which there are few to share with him.

FLETCHER (Phineas) Locustæ vel Pietas Jesuitica, Cantab. 1627—The Locusts, or Apollyonists (in Verse), Camb. 1627—2 vols. in 1, sm. 4to. hf. russia, 36s—the same, fine copy in olive morocco extra, gilt edges, by C. Smith, £4. 4s 1627

"A bitter satire against the Jesuits, to which Milton ingeniously confesses that he owed his Paradise Lost, and which Bp. Douglas was unable to obtain. An imperfect copy of the English portion only is valued at £9. 9s in the Bibliotheca Anglo-Poetica."

GREENES GHOST HAUNTING CONY-CATCHERS, wherein is set downe the Art of Humouring, the Art of carrying Stones, Will. St. Lift, Ja. Post. Law, Ned. Bro. Catch and Blacke Robins kindnesse, with the merry conceits of Doctor Pinchbacke, sm. 4to. black letter, fine copy, morocco extra, gilt edges by Lewis (from the Libraries of Bindley, Jolley, Gardner and Corser), VERY RARE, £10. 10s for Francis Williams, 1626

An extremely curious account of the thieving and swindling classes of London; with a set of stories illustrating their methods and dexterity. Samuel Rowlands was the author.

GREENE (ROBERT) Greenes Farewell to Follic sent to Courtiers and Scholars, as a president to warne them from the vaine delights that drawes youth on to repentance, sm. 4to. black letter, maroon morocco, gilt edges, from the

GREENE (Robert) Greene's Arcadia or Menaphon: Camillaes Alarum to Slumber (sic) Euphnes in his melancholy cell at Silexredra, sm. 4to. black letter, red morocco, gilt edges, from Sir F. Freeling's Collection, scarce,
 £6. 6s 1616

A heavy book, the chief value of which consists in the songs which are interspersed through the prose narrative. The prefatory letter (13 pp.) by Thomas Nash to the Gentlemen students of both Universities (which, as the Arcadia originally appeared in 1587, was his first venture in print) is also well worth reading. It reviews the existing state of literature, and contains apt criticisms upon the recent poetical productions.

HARDYNG'S (Ihon) CHRONICLE (in Verse)

from the first begynnyng of Engelande unto the Reigne of Kyng Edward the fourth, and from that tyme is added a continuacion of the storie in prose to this our tyme (by R. Grafton), sm. 4to. First Edition, black letter, fine copy in morocco super extra, covered with blind tooling in the antique style, gilt edges, by F. Bedford, £27. R. Grafton, 1543

VERY RARE. This copy has the genuine original leaf (folio g of Edward IV.), which was cancelled and altered.

HOLINSHED (R.) Chronicles of Engelande,

Scotlande, and Irelande, 2 vols. sm. folio, black letter, numerous woodcuts, very fine copy in old gilt russia, with the cypher of Henrietta Louisa Countess of Pomfret, in gold on sides, and that of Lord Shelburne on backs, £56. Imprinted for John Hunne, 1577

One of the finest copies ever offered for sale. This FIRST EDITION is usually termed "THE SHAKESPEARE EDITION," because it is supposed to be the one the Dramatist used. In the subsequent edition the language was altered considerably, and the woodcuts omitted. The request for this valuable old chronicle is constantly increasing and copies are now so rare that the book in any state is eagerly sought for. The map of Edinburgh has been beautifully facsimiled, and two leaves of errata in the first volume, not mentioned by Lowndes, have been cancelled by the binder, who probably considered that they were superseded by the errata of the second volume.

HOMER. THE CROWNE OF ALL HOMER'S

WORCKES; Batrachomyomachia, or the Battaille of Frogs and Mice, His Hymn's and Epigrames, translated according to ye original by GEORGE CHAPMAN, sm. folio, beautifully engraved title, with portrait of the translator, &c. by W. Pass, fine impression, green morocco extra, gilt edges, by C. Lewis, £16. 10s John Bill, n.d. (circa 1625)

Extremely rare.

first edition, calf gilt, £5. 5s

G. Ells, for Thomas Thorpe, 1605

The preface calls attention to the fact that this book differs from the play which had been performed on the stage, the latter having been partly composed by another hand, while the printed edition contains only the work of the immortal Ben.

black letter, fine copy in brown morocco extra, covered with blind tooling in the old style, gilt edges, by F. Bedford, VERY RARE, £12.

Roberts Cromley, 1550

Earlier in the same year the first impression of this famous work had appeared. Both editions are very rare; it being highly probable that when Queen Mary came to the throne, and the printer took refuge in Germany, many copies were destroyed by the Roman Catholic party.

LATIMER (Bp. Hughe) Fyrste Sermon, Jhon

Day, 1549—Seconde Sermon (with Sermons III. to VII. in the same volume), ib. 1549—2 vols. in 1, 16mo. black letter, very fine copy in morocco extra, gilt edges, old style, by Hayday, VERY RARE, £9. 1549

This is the complete set of Latimer's Lenten Sermons, preached before Edward VI. in 1549. During the last twenty years only two other perfect copies have occurred for sale. The next which occurs will probably bring a still higher price than the book is now marked.

MIDDLETON'S (Thomas) Triumphs of Truth,

a solemnity unparalleled for cost, art, and magnificence at the confirmation of Sir Thomas Middleton in the honorable office of his Majesties Lieutenant, the Lord Maior of the thrice famous city of London [a Masque, with Song and Music], sm. 4to. apparently defective, morocco gilt, 36s 1613

PALMERIN OF ENGLAND. The famous

History of the noble and valiant Prince Palmerin of England and his brother Florian du Desart, translated out of French by A(nton) y M(unday), 2 vols. in 1, sm. 4to. the title to the first supplied in MS. facsimile, citron morocco, gilt edges, £2. 16s 1644

SKELTON. Pithy, Pleasaunt, and Profitable

Workes of Maister Skelton, Poete Laureate, nowe collected and newly published, 12mo. black letter, a few leaves mended, else fine copy, russia, gilt edges, £20.

Thomas Marshe, 1568

EXTREMELY RARE. This copy sold for £25. in 1873. The Duke of Roxburghe's brought £32. 11s, and Mr. Lloyd's described by Mr. Heber as washed £24. 3s (resold in Strettell's sale for £19. 8s 6d).

First collected edition of the first of English song-writers. His verses ring like martial music; and notwithstanding the archaism of the language, they seem more familiar and homely to our modern taste in melody than the lyrics of later writers whose sweetest phrases seem to lisp with a slightly foreign accent. Take for example the first four lines from a song addressed to Maistres Isabel Pennell:—

By Saint Mary my lady,
 Your mammy and your daddy
 Brought forth a goodly baby,
 My maiden Isabel!

With all their coarseness and frequently doggrel character, the works of Skelton are better worth than any number of pieces written by the minor poets of the Elizabethan age upon whom so much attention is lavished.

SUCKLING (Sir John) FRAGMENTA AUREA.

A collection of all the incomparable peeces written by Sir John Suckling, and published by a friend to perpetuate his memory, sm. 8vo. brilliant impression of the portrait by Marshall, maroon morocco extra, gilt edges, by Mackenzie, £4. 4s 1646

RARE FIRST EDITION OF SUCKLING'S WORKS. It contains his plays, and his letters (in prose), as well as those few but charming songs and lyric pieces which have fixed his rank in the hierarchy of English poets.

TYNDALE (W.) Parable of the Wicked Mammon, sm. 4to. fine copy in olive morocco extra, gold tooling, by Rivière, £7. 10s
W. Hill, n. d. (? 1548)

The introduction gives some interesting particulars relative to his dealings, in the translation of the New Testament, which he had made in 1535, with William Roye (Wolsey's satirist) whose character is drawn by Tyndale (no less flattering terms). He speaks of him as a man "whos tonge is able not only to make foles sterke madde but also to disceyve the wisest that is, at the fyrst syght and requayntaunce." His resolve to face the stake in defence of his opinions is expressed in many, simple words which did not long precede the doom he anticipated.

WITHER (G.) Shepherds Hunting : being certain Eglogs written during the time of the author's imprisonment in the Marshalsey, 12mo. fine copy in red morocco extra, gilt edges, by F. Bedford, £3. 3s 1615

These Eclogues are complaints against the wicked who had hunted the poor Shepherd, Roget, (Wither) into bondage. There are many fine lines in them, mixed up with a great deal of rubbish. But like all Wither's early books, it is rare.

Early English Press:

BLADES (W.) Life and Typography of William Caxton, Englands first Printer, with Evidence of his Typographical Connection with Colard Mansion, the Printer at Bruges, 2 vols. 4to. with a large number of facsimiles, and portraits, printers' marks, &c. green morocco super extra, rich gold tooling, gilt edges, by Rivière, £7. 7s 1861-63

A splendidly bound copy of the great authority upon the art of Printing in England.

BOCHAS (Johan) BOKE DISCRYVING THE FALL OF PRINCES, Princesses, and other Nobles : Translated into Englysshe by John Lydgate (in Verse, folio, black letter, woodcuts, a small piece on the last leaf made up in facsimile, but, all things considered, a fine copy in morocco extra, gilt edges, by F. Bedford, EXTREMELY RARE, £60. R. Pynson, 1527
 A charming volume, equally desirable under several aspects ; as a book of great rarity, as a production of one of England's earliest printers, as a specimen of ancient wood engraving in this country, and as containing the text of an old English poem. On folio A ii in the prologue of the translator, we find the following stanza :—

My maister Chaucer with his fressh comedies
 Is deed alas ! chefe poete of Breayne
 That somtyme made full pitous tragedies
 The fall of princes he did also complayne
 As he that was of makinge soverayne Whom all this lande of right oughte preferre
 Sithe of our langage he was the lode sterre.
 The judgment of Lydgate concerning Chaucer, as well as the words in which he expresses it, are noteworthy. He calls him "of makinge sovereygn," i. e. the King of Poets ; showing thus that the original sense of the word poet still clung to the idea in English.

BOKE NAMED THE ROYALL [of the Ten Commandementes, the twelve Artycles of Fayth, the seven deedly Synnes, the seven Petycyons in the Pater Noster, the seven Gyftes of the Holy Ghoost, the Seven Vertues, &c.] (translated out of Frensshe into Englysshe by me Wyllyam Caxton), sm. 4to. xylographic title, black letter, woodcuts, fine copy in morocco extra, by J. Mackenzie, £60.
Wynkyn de Worde, 1507

I can find no record of more than two copies : Gardner's and the present, which has successively belonged to Mr. Corser and Mr. Craufurd. Dibdin's description was derived entirely from Herbert, no copy having evidently been accessible to him.

EXCESSIVELY RARE. In mentioning the edition by Caxton and Wynkin de Worde, Brunet says that the French original which he speaks of as unknown, had never been printed ; yet he himself describes an edition of it printed by Vêrard about 1502, under the title "Somme des Vertus et des Vices." The work was written by Frère Laurent, the confessor of Philip III. of France in 1279, and afterwards presented to Philip the Fair.

HIGDEN (RANULPH) POLYCHRONICON, in whiche booke ben comprysed bryeffly many Wonderfulfull hystories, Englyssheb by Syr Johan de Trevisa, Chappellayn unto Lord Thomas of Barkley, folio. black letter, (the title, last leaf, and Caxton's last device admirably supplied in facsimile by Harris), FINE, LARGE AND CLEAN COPY, dark morocco extra, gilt edges, old style, by Pratt, £40.

Enprynted at Westmestre by Wynkyn The Worde, 1495

— the same, folio, A FINE AND PERFECT copy in brown morocco super extra, blind tooling, gilt edges, by F. Bedford, £125.

Wynkyn de Worde, 1495
 This copy cost the late Mr. Craufurd £125. Lowndes was unable to cite any copy sold as complete, and Dr. Dibdin says, "The only perfect copy which I remember to have seen is that in the collection of J. D. Phelps."

HILTON (W.) SCALA PERFECCIONIS, Englished, the Ladder of Perfection, sm. fol. FIRST EDITION, fine copy, but Title and two leaves of Contents reproduced in facsimile by Harris, russica, gilt edges, by F. Bedford, EXTREMELY RARE, £35. Wynkyn de Worde, 1494

This is one of the rarest, as well as one of the earliest works printed by Wynkin de Worde as an independent typographer. He had begun his labours in that way one year earlier ; but the Scala Perfectionis is the first in which he announces himself as the successor of dead Caxton. The statement is found in the verses headed Envoye, in the following lines :—

... Wynkyn de Worde thys hath sett in prynt
 In Wyllyam Caxtons hows so fyll(ing) the case.
 God rest his soule. In Joy ther mot it stynt.

HORMAN. VULGARIA viri doctissimi Guil. Hormani Caesarisburgensis, sm. 4to. first edition, fine copy in brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by F. Bedford, £50. R. Pynson, 1519

EXCESSIVELY RARE. No other perfect copy of this first edition has occurred for sale, and the only one known to Lowndes was in the British Museum. A copy of the second edition (by Wynkyn de Worde) sold for £49. at Sotheby's in 1870.

The book itself is a curious one, deserving of study and consideration for the specimens of old English familiar and conversational language, containing remarks upon almost every subject. We have ceased to admire it for its correct Latinity so highly thought of in the author's time. He was a native of Salisbury, a Fellow of New College, Oxford, and Master of Eton for the year 1485. After he had resigned this post and retired into private life, being then an old man, his friend William Attwater, Bishop of Lincoln, persuaded him to publish the lessons he had used during his mastership. The sentences of which the book consists are given in both Latin and English, the latter not being in any way a literal translation, but a terse and idiomatic rendering of the sense ; and events of his own time are sometimes alluded to. One of the statements—"The Turke hath kyld the great Sowdan,"—refers to the destruction of the Mamluk dynasty in Egypt by the Ottoman Sultan Selim, and the death of Kansu Ghanri, in 1516.

HYLTON (W.) SCALA PERFECTIONIS, sm. 4to. black letter, small portion of woodcut of title beautifully facsimiled, with Printer's Device, blue morocco extra, gilt edges, by C. Lewis, EXTREMELY RARE, from the Alchorne, Freeling, and Craufurd Libraries, £40. Julyan Notary, 1507

No more than two copies of this very rare volume seem to have occurred for sale, although it might appear otherwise from the circumstance that bibliographers have doubled the number, by recording that which belonged to Mr. Alchorne and Sir Francis Freeling, and Mr. Craufurd in succession, as three copies instead of one only. Everything printed by Juhan Notary is of a high degree of scarcity.

The preamble excuses in the following singular terms, Virgil for having wasted his great talent in describing shepherds and peasants;—"Le roy David plus affecta comme je croy harper aux champs entre ses fetantes brebis que regir le peuple Disrael."

"Opusculum rare qui renferme des poésies un peu libres."—Brunet. It consists of 22 leaves, instead of 20 as stated by the Manuel, and is an early specimen of the press of the first printer of Vienna, who two years earlier had issued the first product of his art.

CICERONIS liber de Amicia, s. n. 4to. hf. calf, £6. 10s s. n. (Colon. U. Zell, about 1466)

Petri de Crescentiis . . . ruraliū cōmodorum libri duodecim finiunt feliciter p. Johanne Schuszler civem augustensem impressi, anno 1471

First Edition of this Treatise on Agriculture, "le meilleur écrit qui ait paru dans le moyen âge," (1300-1310). Books from the press of J. Schüssler, at Augsburg, are very scarce. The above is in fine condition, and is an exceptionally large copy, some leaves being entirely uncut. It bears an inscription of ownership, one year after the HIERONIMI (S.) Epistola, second edition, large folio, very fine copy, with painted capitals, blue MOROCCO super extra, broad borders of gold, gilt edges, £24.

Sine ulla nota (Argentorati typis J. Mentelin, circa 1468)

Extremely rare. The Lomenie copy sold for 1196 francs 95 centimes, and the Brienne Laire for 1200 francs. Although the edition printed at Rome in 1463 is generally considered the first, it will always be a doubtful point, as Mentelin's text is less complete, several letters to be found in the Roman not being in his. Mentelin's certainly could not have been printed later than 1469, as the binding of the copy in the National Library of Paris is inscribed with the name of the binder J. Rychenbach, and dated 1469.

Argentoraci, J. Grüninger, 1508

THE ONLY KNOWN COPY IN WHICH THE MAP IS TO BE FOUND. It is a modified Ptolemæan map, in which, however, along the southern line to the east of Africa, a hint of the new discoveries in America is found, in the words—"Hic non terra sed mare est in que miræ magnitudinis insulæ sed Ptolemæo fuerunt incognitæ." Degrees of longitude are marked, as well as of latitude, the first degree seeming to pass through the Atlantic south-west of the Canary Islands and to touch the west coast of Iceland in the extreme north.

Mantue, J. Schallus, 1475

A very rare edition, much scarcer than that of 1470. The author had been converted from the Judaic faith early in the fifteenth century, and was Bishop of Burgos when he composed the above work. It contains some curious notices of Spanish Jews in the middle ages, including 'Tractatus ad convincendum judeos de errore suo. (Epistola quam scripsit Rabbi Samuel Israelitella oriundus de civitate regis Morochiani).'

Fitzgerald (Edward) Works :

Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam, the Astro-nomer-Poet of Persia, rendered into English verse, sq. 8vo. third edition, with additions, xxiv and 36 pp. hf. morocco, 7s 6d 1872

"Mr. Edward Fitzgerald's translation itself may justly be termed masterly; the preface and notes are decidedly the work of a thoughtful scholar. He seems to have left untranslated all the amatory and sensual parts of the work, and to have devoted his attention chiefly to Omar's philosophy, and to those views of the relations of man to the Infinite which so deeply occupied that great wild heart. It is the soul's essence of Omar that Mr. Fitzgerald has delivered to us. He has most successfully reproduced for us, when reproducing Omar's verses that 'something, as in the Greek Alcaic, when the penultimate line seems to lift and suspend the wave that falls over in the last,' and we may consider, with satisfaction and gratitude, that the verbal music, as well as the deepest meaning of Omar, is before us to delight us. The translation, indeed, reads like an original work, and that work the work of a poet. Eastern scholars vouch for the fidelity; every competent reader can certify the beauty of the thing translated, as of the translation itself.

"Goethe maintains that all highest poetry can be translated; nay, that it is a note of the highest work that it has a vital force that will bear to be re-told in other tongues. Mr. Fitzgerald's admirable work is an illustration of the great poet-critic's theory. In the easy flow and nervous strength of his glorious verses, which seem, owing to their very excellence, to be modern work—and his own work—we require to set our thought backward in order to realize the fact that we are face to face with the thoughts and imagery of a Persian poet of the eleventh century. All high abstract thought transcends the local and temporary. Omar has only so much of the East as lends colour to his imagery and magic to his music. The perennial essence of this song might belong to almost any country, and is scarcely limited by any particular century.

"Thus much premised, in the way of needful explanation and information, we will pass on to an attempt to analyze these glowing and still vital verses, and to show, by sufficient extract, proof of their claim to the high character which they bear already in the estimation of the judicious few.

"Omar is a sceptic, but he is no commonplace sceptic. His is no shallow and petulant negation. His doubts do not spring from thin and sour logic. He 'denied divinely the divine.' To be more accurate, he rather doubted than denied. He was full of that unconscious faith which complains to the Deity of its inability to comprehend the divine. His sense of the transient, his regretful protest against inscrutability, are deeply pathetic, are never irreverent. His was a sincere and earnest soul, profound in its dark depths, gay with sad humour upon its light surface.

"Omar could not lift the veil, but he has sung his inability in verses which must deeply touch the human heart. Even Lucretius, with whom Omar is most naturally compared, seems to me to be inferior in depth, in force, in beauty and glory of rhythm. The extracts which I have given will, I believe, send all my readers to Mr. Fitzgerald's charming book. They will be rewarded by finding, through his admirable translation, that they have learned to know a new and real poet in Omar the Tentmaker."—H. SCHÜTZ WILSON, in the Contemporary Review, March, 1876, pp. 561-2, 570.

"One of the best articles in this month's Contemporary Review is Mr. Schütz Wilson's account, written in a warmly sympathetic spirit, of the Rubáiyat of Omar Khayyám. It would be impossible to write an uninteresting description of a book so wonderfully interesting as Mr. Fitzgerald's translation, and Mr. Wilson's sympathy with the subject is complete."—The Examiner, March 11, 1876.

"Omar Khayyam composed the wonderful poem of which Mr. Edward Fitzgerald's marvellously fine translation now lies before us,—together with Mr. Schütz-Wilson's interesting essay in the Contemporary Review, which has called the attention of English literary men to it not too soon, for indeed it is somewhat a disgrace to us that such a translation of such a poem should have been among us for fifteen years without becoming generally known.

"We cannot, however, agree with Mr. Schütz-Wilson's estimate of the poem in other respects. It should, we think, take rank rather as the poem of Revolt and Denial, the song of speculative Nihilism and cynical sensualism, than as a poem of the stamp which the Contemporary Review claims for it,—namely, one which 'denies divinely the divine,' and is full of 'the unconscious faith which complains to the Deity of its inability to comprehend the Divine.' Of this character we confess we cannot find a trace in Mr. Edward Fitzgerald's magnificent translation,—a translation which confessedly selects all the finest verses of the Oriental poem, and leaves only the most sensual still under the veil of the Persian original. With something of the cynical force of Byron, and something, too, of the humorous and familiar ease of Goethe, the writer of this poem (through a contemporary, as Mr. Schütz-Wilson reminds us, of Henry II. and Fair Rosamond) expends his whole power in showing what a mockery of man is implied in irreversible laws of creation; and he accomplishes his task with all the grasp of a thinker of first-rate calibre, and all the bitterness of a defiant heart. As for nobleness in any moral sense, it seems to us utterly absent from this fine poem, which of course should be judged by a Mohammedan and not by a Christian standard.

"There is certainly something in the Oriental imagination which surpasses all that Western imagination can effect in attempts to give a glimpse of the infinite or absolute.

"No poetry existing, of course, approaches the poetry of Isaiah and some of the Psalms, in the sweep of its images. But this may be attributed to the divine truth which inspired the thought.

"Turn then to this far from pious poetry, the very poetry of revolt and despair, and observe with what majesty the mere infinitude of the panorama is depicted, even on the author's assumption that the whole panorama is an illusion and a snare."—Spectator, March 11, 1876, pp. 334 and 336.

ÆSCHYLUS (by the Translator of OMAR KHAYYAM), sm. 4to. pp. vii. and 79, in Roxburghe half binding, 7s 6d 1876

Of this dramatic poem, a small number of copies were privately printed some few years ago, and gradually dispersed among the author's friends. Many who had heard of the book, desired to see and have it, and for that reason the present edition is given to the public who may be curious concerning the efforts in another line of poetic art of the translator of Omar Khayyam's Tetrastichs.

As a version of Æschylus, it would not be fair to consider and judge it; the author having taken fuller license than a mere translator, adapting what suited him in the original, rejecting or changing what did not.

"Mr. Fitzgerald has many admirers in this country, readers of OMAR KHAYYAM, who will count themselves fortunate to possess a copy of 'Agamemnon.' They are to be congratulated on the opportunity now offered."—Extracts from a letter from L. L. Thaxter Esq., Newtonville, Massachusetts, U.S.A., August 17th, 1876.

The Fossil Flora of Great Britain;

OR, FIGURES AND DESCRIPTIONS of the VEGETABLE REMAINS found in a Fossil state in this country. By JOHN LINDLEY, F.R.S., L.S., and G.S., Professor of Botany, University College, London; and WILLIAM HUTTON, F.G.S., &c. A RE-ISSUE, in 3 vols. 8vo. 230 plates, with text, half morocco, uncut, £5. 5s.

To these will be added a Supplementary Volume, containing Figures and Descriptions of all the important additions made to the Fossil Flora of Britain since 1837; together with a Critical Examination of the Species in LINDLEY and HUTTON's Classic Work, and a Synopsis of all the known Fossil Plants of Britain. By WILLIAM CARRUTHERS, F.R.S., L.S., and G.S., Keeper of the Botanical Department, British Museum.

Mr. QUARITCH having recently purchased the copper-plates and copyright of this standard work on the Fossil Plants of Britain, and knowing the extreme rarity of the work,—selling as it does from 8 to 10 guineas a copy,—has produced a fac-simile re-issue of the work, from the original copper-plates. Notwithstanding the great progress that has been made in Palæontological Botany in Britain during the last thirty-five years, the "Fossil Flora" still remains the principal authority for the species of Extinct British Plants, and its figures and descriptions must always be consulted and quoted by every scientific investigator. To secure the accuracy of the re-issue, Mr. QUARITCH secured the aid of Wm. CARRUTHERS, Esq., of the British Museum, to superintend it. This gentleman has further undertaken the preparation of a SUPPLEMENTARY VOLUME, to contain exact delineations, by means of woodcuts, and not less than 40 plates, of the Discoveries in Fossil Botany since 1837; together with Descriptions and a Synopsis, which will bring the whole work up to the state of the Science at the present day. The preparation of the SUPPLEMENTARY VOLUME was commenced immediately after the revision of the original work,—and it will be supplementary not only to the present re-issue, but also to the original edition of LINDLEY & HUTTON's great work.

Paris, Galignani, (1829-30)

This edition has the plates printed from the original coppers; the subjects are arranged in Schools, and each School is divided according to the Masters; the text has been condensed, and English descriptions added: therefore this edition is preferable for an English Library.

Musée Royal, Recueil de Gravures d'après les plus beaux Tableaux, Statues et Bas-Reliefs de la Collection Royale, par LAURENT, 2 vols. atlas folio, the Companion to the "Musée Français, 4 vols." 161 beautiful plates, good impressions, blue morocco extra, broad borders of gold, gilt edges
Paris, 1816-18

This is undoubtedly the most magnificent work that has issued from the Parisian press. At the exhibition of 1819 the gold medal was granted to M. Henry Laurent, the jury considering this work as the most perfect that had ever been published since the existence of engraving. Dissertations upon the arts in different ages, observations upon the style, excellence, and defects of the various schools in painting, a minute description of every painting, etc. are included, written with extreme care and correctness.

Galérie du Musée Napoleon et de France, publiée par Filhol et Lavallée, 10 vols. in 11, royal 4to. SPLENDID DUPLICATE IMPRESSIONS, viz.: PROOFS BEFORE LETTERS, and the ETCHINGS of each plate, hf. red morocco extra, uncut, a beautiful copy, £160.
Paris, 1802-15

A refined Collector's copy, in the best state, of the greatest rarity, containing not only the FINEST PROOF IMPRESSIONS, before the inscriptions with only a number and name of Painter written on the plates, and the ARTISTS' ETCHINGS added, but also a very fine and rare portrait of Napoleon I, 5 plates in a third state, variations of two plates, the etched outlines of two plates, and an additional engraving in two states of the Laocoon. Further, the original prospectus with its specimen plate in four states has been preserved, and the titles printed after the fall of Napoleon have been added. The dedication to the Emperor is absent. The dissertations have been bound as a supplement in an eleventh volume, with title 'Cours historique et élémentaire de Peinture,' 1802, with a rare frontispiece.

This work consists of Engravings of all the chief paintings concentrated in the Louvre by Napoleon, before they were again dispersed—whilst the folio Musée Français and Supplement do not comprise together more than 482 subjects. It is necessary to observe that this work is not a mere collection of prints, as it contains many luminous and masterly dissertations upon the style, excellence, and defects of the various schools of painting, lives of the most eminent painters, and finally a minute description of every painting, statue, &c. drawn up with extreme care and correctness.

The rarest and most magnificent of all the old picture galleries. Brunet, who calls the work "Recueil précieux," states that the portrait of Augustus alone sold for 164 francs, Alibert in 1803, and for 125 francs, Saint-Yves.

This beautiful reprint of the first and second volumes is carefully executed from the original copper-plates. The descriptive Letterpress, in French, is revised and corrected.

Gentleman's Magazine, A COMPLETE SET, from its commencement in 1731 to 1868, with Ayscough's Indexes to 1818, and List of the Plates and Maps from 1731 to 1822, 5 vols.; Miscellaneous Correspondence, 1 vol.; Index to Miscellaneous Correspondence, 1 vol.—together 230 vols. 8vo. the first ten on LARGE PAPER (very rare in this state), numerous plates and portraits, (several portraits of Cave added), the whole set uniformly bound in hf. russia, UNCUT, A MAGNIFICENT SET, from Sir Charles Price's library, £65.

So complete and desirable a set of this valuable Antiquarian periodical is rarely to be met with. The set is, as described above, complete down to what may be considered its end, 1868. On June 1st, 1868, an entirely new series commenced. The Magazine is now devoted to the drama, general literature, fiction, music, etc. The great inferiority of this new publication is such as to prevent its being treated as a continuation of its famous predecessor; the value of the latter to the historian, the student, and to the general reader being well-known.

— The volumes for the years 1799 to 1802, inclusive, (8 vols.) are at present absent, having unaccountably strayed from the set. A liberal reward will be paid to anyone returning them.

Venetia, J. Ziletti, 1570

RARE AND VALUABLE, but little known. The map by Vopelius is an interesting document as exhibiting the scheme of a man who was recognized to be one of the best cartographers of his time, and also as a rare chart which can no where else be examined than in this book. The text is equally important from the specially large and careful treatment which is given to the New World. Although the book is a general Cosmography, yet the author's labour was exercised in the description of the Indies, "por ser cosa necessaria principalmente a nuestros Espanoles."

He also gives in most instances the collation of the works, and the prices fixed by the most eminent book-sellers as well as the sums fetched at auctions.

Rare and almost unknown—as it deserves to be. This magnificent work is no less valuable to the Architect than to the Painter. It does not profess (says the Quarterly Review in an elaborate article) to exhibit fresh decorative painting in that highest walk chosen by Michael Angelo and Raffaele (except as a handmaid), but as a purely decorative Art and subservient to Architecture. Owing its very existence to the exigencies of the sovereign art, and deriving its appropriate locality, scale and effect from the edifice, it no less assists the Architecture, in return, by its arabesques and other tasteful accessories.

Gruner's Terra-Cotta Architecture of North Italy

(12th—15th Centuries). A Series of Select Examples for Imitation in other Countries, from Careful Drawings and Restorations, by FEDERIGO LOSE; with Descriptive Letterpress. Edited by LEWIS GRUNER, 1 vol. folio, with 48 chromo-lithographic plates, with Elevations, Sections, Mouldings, and Working Drawings in line, hf. bd. morocco, uncut, £5. 5s John Murray, 1865

Only a limited edition was printed, and few copies remain for sale.

One of the greatest impediments to the progress of Architectural Art in this country has been the difficulty of finding any building material which should unite durability with elegance, and should not at the same time be so expensive as to preclude its being generally employed. Stone suitable for building purposes is not found in many parts of the country, and especially not near the Metropolis. In addition to its expensiveness, stone soon becomes discoloured, and many kinds decay rapidly when exposed to smoke and atmospheric impurities. In all the south-eastern districts of the country brick is the usual substitute resorted to; but, as hitherto employed, its shape and colour, combined with the smallness of its size, have resulted in extreme meanness of effect, and rendered its employment impossible when anything like artistic effect was aimed at. An escape from this dilemma has been attempted by covering the brickwork with stucco; but this is admitted to be at least a most undesirable makeshift.

Under these circumstances, the employment of Terra-Cotta seems to offer a means of remedying this defect more readily than any other which has yet been suggested. It is more durable than stone; its colour may be toned down if desirable; its neatness and preciousness remove at once all appearance of meanness; and it is capable of being moulded into ornaments of any amount of complexity or sharpness of detail. For a long time its employment in this country has been limited by fiscal regulations connected with the duty on bricks, and when resorted to, has too often been unsuccessful for want of refined and elegant models. Of late, however, several firms have undertaken its manufacture on a large scale, and can produce articles of elegance and durability.

One great obstacle to the general introduction of Terra-Cotta as a building material in England is the want of familiarity on the part of Architects with the modes in which it can be most artistically combined. The object of Mr. Gruner's work on Terra-Cotta architecture is to supply this deficiency, and to furnish approved patterns and models. Many parts of Italy are similarly situated to England as regards building materials, and from early times Terra-Cotta has been there very generally used as the only means of meeting the difficulty. The Italians, with their inherent taste and artistic education, have worked it into forms of the most artistic beauty. In the north of Italy Terra-Cotta has been employed, not only in the erection of palaces and civic buildings, but also in churches and edifices of the most monumental class.

The employment of this material has been attended with such signal success that the Terra-Cotta buildings of Italy, either in the Mediæval or Renaissance style, are at the present day, on the whole, better preserved, and generally more admired, than those erected in stone or marble.

With a knowledge of these facts before us, it is hoped that, by placing in the hands of the British public detailed drawings of a selection of the best Italian examples, the difficulties that impede the introduction of Terra-Cotta may be removed. Their study will enable the architect of the present day to start at once from the point attained by the long experience of the Italians in the art, and from this source to produce designs which cannot fail to be pleasing and satisfactory.

In order to meet these wants, the examples enumerated in the subjoined lists have been selected. They are such as seem best adapted not only to the requirements of modern church architecture, but also such as may be advantageously used as suggestions for the decoration of either civic buildings or private dwelling-houses in town or country.

The drawings here reproduced in colour are the result of the long labours and studies of Signor Lose, whose taste and long practice of the eye has recovered—in many cases from buildings reduced to ruin by war, wanton dilapidation, dirt and neglect, rather than from effects of the weather—ornaments obliterated from the view of an ordinary observer. To a certain extent his drawings may be styled discoveries. By patiently retracing, with his practised eye, every tint, every shade of colour, every scratch, he has succeeded in rescuing and presenting to us the Italian architect's original plans and designs restored to a freshness which they possessed when first built,

This work is, without comparison, the most useful of all the Fund Publications. It stands in the same relation to Oriental Literature as Watts' Bibliotheca and Graesse's Tresor do to that of the Western World. The arrangement is alphabetic, according to the names of the works, (an INDEX OF AUTHORS being added at the end), and comprises descriptions of above 15,000 books in Arabic, Persian, and Turkish; with statements of the date when the writers flourished, and many other useful particulars.

Mustafâ ben Abdallah Kâtib Tchelebi, called Hadji Khalfeh, was a learned Turk, who, early in the seventeenth century, held a high official position under Amurath IV. At a later period, he collected a large library, and wrote several works, chiefly historical; but the greatest monument of his immense industry and erudition remains in the Bibliographical Lexicon. (Kashf us-Zamân.) The Bibliothèque of D'Herbelot consists principally of an abstract from defective texts of the work of Hadji Khalfeh; while Flügel's edition is based upon the best copies in existence, which contain the corrections and additions of later writers.

In the Press a New Edition of Hawkins' Silver Coins of England, arranged and described, with Remarks on British Money, previous to the Saxon Dynasties, by E. HAWKINS, Keeper of Coins and Antiquities in the British Museum, revised and enlarged by R. L. S. KENYON, Esq., thick 8vo. 55 plates containing figures of about 650 Coins, by F. W. Fairholt and F. J. Lees, half morocco Nearly ready

A new edition of Mr. Hawkins' "Silver Coins of England," being greatly required, the present has been undertaken by Mr. R. L. Kenyon, a grandson of Mr. Hawkins. Considerable alterations and additions have been found necessary, in order to incorporate in the text all the information on the subject which has been acquired since the year 1841, when the book was first published. Among other things, the numerous new types of the contemporaries of Alfred found at Cuerdale in 1842, will be described in this edition; Coins will be found attributed to King John, the Empress Matilda, the Earl of Warwick, &c., and the parts relating to British coins, to the short cross pennies attributed to Henry II., and to the Coins of Henry IV., V., and VI., have been entirely re-written. Some new plates by Mr. J. F. Lees, Member of the Numismatic Society, which will be added will contain nearly 100 additional coins, and it is hoped that the new edition will worthily maintain the reputation of the old one. Only a small edition will be printed.

CUSSANS' HISTORY OF HERTFORDSHIRE, A County History, got up in a very superior manner, and ranging with the finest works of its class, by JOHN E. CUSSANS, Parts I. to X. folio, illustrated with full-page Plates on Copper and Stone, and a profusion of small woodcuts, (subscription price, £10. 10s) sd. £8. 8s 1876

"Mr. Cussans has, from sources not accessible to Clutterbuck, made most valuable additions to the manorial history of the county, from the earliest period downwards, cleared up many doubtful points, and given original details concerning various subjects untouched or imperfectly treated by that writer. The same may be said as to the lists of incumbents and the monumental inscriptions, Clutterbuck's errors and omissions have been carefully corrected and supplied, and the occurrences of the last fifty years added, so that we have these important features of the work complete. Particular attention has also been paid to the heraldry of the county. . . . The pedigrees seem to have been constructed with great care, and are a valuable addition to the genealogical history of the county. Mr. Cussans appears to have done his work conscientiously, and to have spared neither time, labour, nor expense to render his volumes worthy of ranking in the highest class of County Histories. The typography is entitled to unqualified praise, the paper, type, and illustrations being unexceptionable.—ACADEMY.

— the above Maps and text, bound together in 1 vol. large folio, £7. 8s; or, hf. green morocco, £9. 9s 1862

1. A General Description of Ulster; 2. Tyrone; 3. Tyreonnelle; 4 and 5. Barony of Knockinnie; 6. Clancally; 7. Clinawley; 8. Mahghery Steffanah; 9. Mahghery Roy; 10. The preliminary leaf is indispensable to the possessors of copies of this important historical work, as it contains a general list of Contents, and a letter from Sir Thomas Bodley to the Lord High Treasurer Salisbury, describing the method of survey adopted in forming these maps, and pointing out the value of them clearly and concisely.

Hogarth's Works engraved by himself, 153 fine plates including the two well-known "suppressed plates," with elaborate letter-press descriptions, by J. Hogenberg's Procession of Pope Clement

VII. AND THE EMPEROR CHARLES V.: a Reproduction in facsimile of the remarkable and rare series of Plates engraved by NICOLAS HOGENBERG, commemorating the PROCESSION of POPE CLEMENT VII. AND THE EMPEROR CHARLES V. AFTER THE CORONATION AT BOLOGNA, 24th February, 1530, 1 vol. royal folio, a fine series of 40 Plates, each 14 by 12 inches, forming a continuous picture of great interest to the student of History, Antiquities, or the fine Arts; and the value of this reproduction has been greatly enhanced by an Historical Introduction by Sir William Stirling-Maxwell, Baronet, M.P. illustrated by various contemporary Portraits, of the Pope and the Emperor, and embellished by many Ornamental Designs in facsimile from books of the Sixteenth Century, half morocco, £6. 10s
Edinburgh, 1875

The Introduction also contains portions in facsimile, on a somewhat reduced scale, of the extremely rare Venetian woodcut of the Entry of Charles V. into Bologna on the 5th of November, 1529, and the whole of the Procession after the Coronation, as engraved by COMERIO after BRUSASORCI's frieze in the Ridolfi Palace at Verona; and a facsimile of the principal group in the Procession, as cut in wood by ROBERT PERIL at Antwerp in 1530—a print so rare that only one impression, that in the Museum at Antwerp, is known.

The whole forms a handsome Folio, bound in cloth, with morocco back, the sides being ornamented with the Armorial Bearings of the Pope and the Emperor—also in facsimile from contemporary sources.

Only Two Hundred and Fifty copies were printed, and the price is now raised to EIGHT GUINEAS.

Holbein's Portraits of the Court of Henry the EIGHTH, THE LARGE EDITION, with eight additional and unpublished portraits of the French Court, likewise engraved by BARTOLOZZI; Proofs, beautifully finished in coloured tints; mounted on stout drawing paper, ruled with red lines, atlas folio, hf. bound morocco extra, gilt edges, (pub. at £52. 10s) £20.

Holbein's Portraits of the Court of Henry the

EIGHTH, a series of 80 exquisitely beautiful plates, engraved by BARTOLOZZI, COOPER, and others, and printed on tinted paper in imitation of the original highly finished coloured drawings preserved in the Royal Collection at Windsor, with Historical and Biographical letter-press by EDMUND LODGE, Esq., Norroy King of Arms. Published by John Chamberlaine, Esq., late Keeper of the Royal Collection of Drawings and Medals, impl. 4to. elegantly hf. bound Turkey morocco extra, gilt edges, (pub. at £15. 15s) £5. 15s 6d

The small edition of Holbein's Portraits was undertaken at the suggestion and under the patronage of his late Majesty George IV., with whom the original book had always been an especial favourite, but too large for his book-tables.

It is unquestionably the most pleasing and interesting volume of Portraits ever published in this country, and is a no less delightful ornament to the boudoir and drawing-room table, than valuable in the library as an historical and pictorial record of a most remarkable period.

The graceful and delicate colouring preserves all the effect of the original highly-finished drawings, and at the same time communicates an animation to the features which is quite enchanting. —Not more than ten of the subjects are included in Lodge's Portraits, and still fewer are to be found in any other Collection, which gives this volume an additional value.

"A very charming, costly, and captivating performance."—Dibdin.

Augustæ Vind. per G. Zainer, s. a. (circa 1471)

EXCESSIVELY RARE. The fact that Zainer afterwards issued in a collected form this work and a few treatises by St. Jerome and others, with a list of contents, has induced some persons to believe that the Imitation is only part of a volume. This is highly improbable, especially since the Imitation is neither the first nor the last piece in the so-called Recueil and yet is the only one bearing an imprint.

This was the first general Biographical Dictionary in the Arabic language; and it remains a wonderful testimony to the learning, genius, and industry of the author. The biographies are arranged in alphabetical order of names, and comprise distinguished individuals of every sect and nation in Islam, down to the thirteenth century, when Ibn Khallikan flourished. Moslem critics have blamed him for enlarging on the lives of poets and historical writers, at the expense of the learned doctors of law; but that very circumstance renders his book all the more valuable to the European reader.

Ancient Names: or an attempt to trace the Religious Belief, Sacred Rites, and Holy Emblems of certain Nations, second edition, 2 stout vols. 8vo. numerous plates and woodcuts, (pub. at £3.) new cloth, £2. 1872

The boldness of Dr. Inman's opinions. and the variety and extent of his reading, make this one of the most remarkable books of our time. The large number of students who are now groping after truth in the history of Religions, will find in "Ancient Faiths" ample food for their digestion; a style and treatment of the subject widely different from the unsteady rambling of GODFREY HIGGINS, whose Anacalypsis has formed for many their first Revelation in the same direction of inquiry.

Inman's Ancient Faiths, and Modern, a dissertation upon Worships, Legends and Divinities in Central and Western Asia, Europe, and elsewhere, before the Christian Era, 8vo.

xx, 478, Index, xlvii pp. cloth, 20s

New York. 1876

This forms Vol. III of that celebrated work, "Inman's Ancient Faiths."

The many attacks upon the Bible which have been made by scholars and others during the last century and a half, have had their due effect, spreading a sentiment of scepticism which is wholesome enough in its way, as tending to foster a spirit of independent judgment in the minds of men; but few of those who think (or strive to think) in these islands possess the opportunity of studying in the vernacular a great mass of facts and opinions, drawn together in accessible form, upon the subject of Biblical religion. Dr. Inman deserves the thanks of all who would learn something upon this subject, for the industry and zeal with which he has collected instances and grouped facts, derived from a vast number of the books and monuments of all creeds. The unlearned world thus obtains a true idea of the formidable batteries that are playing upon the structure of three thousand years; that stronghold of which many of the defences have already crumbled away, and others are fast perishing, but which still contains the Palladium of Christendom, and claims the allegiance of the best part of civilization. No one, to whatever class or religious denomination he may belong, can deny to this vigorous writer the title of an earnest and independent Thinker.

Dr. Inman's pathetic preface would of itself disarm criticism. But his work on "Ancient Faiths and Modern" really contains a number of accurate and important facts, calculated to lead the reader to a more historical estimate of Christianity. We are no admirers of his former works on "Ancient Faiths Embodied in Ancient Names," in which he commits as many acts of treason against philology as there are pages in the book. The present work is, happily, not based on names, but on published collections of myths and legends, and on translations of sacred books, which can be verified. Of critical tact, indeed, there is little or no display; but the argument, though quite in the rough, is effective. Christianity is not an unique religion, but rooted in nature-worship, and its sacred books are a medley of "gold, silver, precious stones, hay, stubble." There still, however, remains the question, What is it that gives the Biblical literature and the Biblical religion its strange fascination to children of the West? Granted that it has grown up naturally, granted that it is equalled or excelled in many points by other religions, is there not an undefined something which justifies its claim to be the religion of the highest races of the world, so long, that is, as they need a religion? And is this undefined something really undefinable? Dr. Inman appears to deny this stamp of superiority, but he writes in the spirit of the advocate, and has no true sympathy with the religious spirit in any of its manifestations. His own sketch of a religion of the future, on p. 473, is of the most idealistic character.

The appendix contains a letter by Mr. G. St. Clair on the origin of the Sabbath, followed by the remarks of the author. Mr. St. Clair should have referred to Mr. G. Smith's "Annals of Assurbanipal," where he would have found full particulars as to the Assyrian Sabbath. Sum cuique. But it is going too far to infer with Dr. Inman that the Sabbath was borrowed by the Jews from Babylonia in the time of the second Isaiah. What becomes of the Decalogue? Did the Hebrews bring no religious forms with them from their early Mesopotamian home?

LEABHAR BREAC, the Speckled Book, otherwise styled Leabhar Mor Duna Doighre, a collection of pieces in Irish and Latin, compiled from ancient sources about the close of the fourteenth century, now for the first time published from the original MS. in the library of the Royal Irish Academy, 2 parts, large folio, with facsimile, £4. 4s Dublin, 1872

The entire work is lithographed from a carefully collated transcript, which has been made as nearly as possible a facsimile of the original MS. The language in which these miscellaneous pieces of prose and verse is written, is considered to be of the purest ancient character and extremely valuable for philological purposes; and a set of Glosses which the work contains, is held by scholars to be an important addition to the knowledge of the old Irish Grammar and Vocabulary.

Jacquin (N. J.) Selectarum Stirpium Americanarum Historia cum Explicatione Tabularum, with title written within a beautiful water-colour drawing of a wreath composed of flowering plants, correctly drawn and exquisitely painted in water-colours, green morocco super extra, broad borders of gold, gilt edges, £70. Vienna, about 1780

This volume—unsurpassed by any other pictorial work on Botany which has ever appeared—is of extraordinary rarity, as only 12 copies were originally executed for presents; although it is believed the number was afterwards increased to 25, when the King of Spain applied to Jacquin for a copy, and the latter tried in vain to obtain the return of one in the possession of the court-physician, in order to gratify the monarch's wish. The text is printed, but the illustrations are all highly finished drawings in water-colours, done by Jacquin himself from the specimens which he had brought back from the West Indies, whither he had been sent on a scientific expedition by the Emperor. An enthusiastic naturalist and an artist of great power, he lived respected at the Court of Vienna to a good old age, bearing the title of Freiherr at his death in 1817.

— together 6 vols. 8vo. first editions with early impressions of the plates and woodcuts, cloth, very scarce, £12. 12s 1848-64

The difficulty of obtaining a COMPLETE SET of the original editions of these beautiful books is well known. Their popularity has caused large numbers to be printed, therefore to obtain good impressions with a truthful rendering of the works of the great masters, a connoisseur should not lose this opportunity of securing a genuine original set.

Vivid pictures of the scenery and people of Japan, customs and costumes of the various classes of both sexes, types of the different races of Nippon, theatrical and legendary representations, and strange contrasts afforded by the juxtaposition of native and foreign modes of life. The depiction of European figures and manners by home artists often affords the best insight into the mind and habits of the people of Japan.

This important work has become so rare that the copies which occasionally turn up at sales are eagerly competed for, and bring three or four times the original publication-price. It was the magnum opus of its author, a scholar unrivalled in his knowledge of the earliest English history and antiquities. The works of Sir Francis Palgrave, Lappenberg, and Mr. Freeman, all belong like this to the new school in which the notions of most writers upon ancient England are replaced by new and sounder views, but "the Saxons in England" must be studied by all who would effectively clear their mental atmosphere of the old clouds of ignorance and error. In this treasury of historical knowledge and criticism, the origines of the English race have to be sought for, and the earliest forms of that Teutonic civilization which has developed into the society and institutions of the United Kingdom and the United States.

Knight's (H. Gally) Ecclesiastical Architecture

OF ITALY, FROM THE TIME OF CONSTANTINE TO THE XVTH CENTURY, with an Introduction and Text, 81 lithographic illustrations, 2 vols. the first reprinted, impl. folio, (pub. £10. 10s) hf. bd. roan, £4. 4s 1843-44

The object of this beautiful and interesting Work is to give examples of the Primitive Churches, and of the changes of style in Italian Architecture from the time of Constantine to the Fifteenth Century. Notwithstanding the number of publications which have been devoted to the elucidation of the forms and beauties of Ancient Architecture, there has not hitherto been one which sufficiently illustrates its early stages, and progressive advance in Italy, a subject full of interest to the Churchman, as well as to the Antiquary, and the Architect—Italy being the only country in which examples of the earliest period still remain, and in which the chain is unbroken.

In producing this work no expense has been spared to render it worthy of the reputation of the Author, who is already well known to the public by his Architectural Tour in Normandy, and his work on the Saracenic and Norman Remains in Sicily. The Drawings were all executed on the spot, expressly for this work, by Artists of acknowledged talents and fidelity, and the Engravings are on a scale sufficiently large to give a just idea of the Buildings.

THE GREAT WORK ON MEXICO.

KINGSBOROUGH'S (Lord) ANTIQUITIES

OF MEXICO; comprising facsimiles of Ancient Mexican Paintings and Hieroglyphics, preserved in the Royal Libraries of Paris, Berlin, and Dresden; in the Imperial Library of Vienna in the Vatican Library; in the Borgian Museum at Rome; in the Library of the Institute of Bologna; and in the Bodleian Library at Oxford; together with the Monuments of New Spain, by M. Dupaix; illustrated by many valuable inedited MSS. 9 vols. impl. folio, containing upwards of 1000 large plates embracing all the remains of Mexican Architecture, Art, Religion, etc. hf. bd. green morocco, £40. 1830-48

—— the same with the plates coloured, (pub. at £175.) hf. morocco, gilt tops, £60. 1830-48

—— the same, 9 vols. atlas folio, LARGE PAPER, EXTRA coloured plates, UNIQUE, half morocco extra, gilt edges, £75. 1830-48

TWO COPIES were struck off on LARGE PAPER, at a great expense, but only this one could be made perfect, the other being irremediably defective, and therefore cancelled; even of this perfect one, four leaves are inlaid. The size is about 26 inches by 19 inches, which is four inches larger each way than the small paper.

"Cet ouvrage de la plus grande magnificence, a été exécuté aux frais de Lord Kingsborough, qui en a fait hommage à plusieurs bibliothèques publiques du continent, particulièrement à la Bibliothèque royale, à Paris, et à celle de l'Institut de France. Le prix de chaque exemplaire étoit de 175 livres (2000 fr. Klaproth). Les quatre premiers volumes renferment les planches lithographiées, au nombre de plus de 1000; les trois autres contiennent l'explication des planches et plusieurs mémoires inédits, écrits en différentes langues, ainsi que des appendices en anglais. Le septième volume, est entièrement rempli par un ouvrage important qui a pour titre:—Hist. de las cosas de Nueva Espana, por el M. L. R. P. Fr. Bernardino de Sahagun."—Brunet.

After an interval of seventeen years two more volumes of this extraordinary work were published, in every respect uniform with the preceding, consisting, 1. of Supplementary Notes in English and Spanish; 2. of extracts from the works of Torquemada, Acosta and Garcia, illustrating the last portions of the Mexican paintings, contained in the collection of Mendoza, and shewing the correspondence which exists between many of the Mexican and Hebrew laws; 3. Adair's History of the North American Indians, their customs and descent from the Jews; 4. Cartas ineditas de Hernando Cortez; 5. Cronica Mexicana de Tezozomoc; 6. Historia Chichimeca y Relaciones por Fernando de Alva Ixtlilcochitl.

"When, some four centuries ago, the enterprise of Spanish navigators opened the vast continent of America to the admiration of Europe, the civilization of the New World was found to be concentrated in two spots, and two only, of that enormous territory. One of these favoured regions was Peru; the other was Mexico. IT WAS IN MEXICO ESPECIALLY THAT ART, POLITICS AND SCIENCE HAD RECEIVED THEIR GREATEST DEVELOPMENT. All the rest of North America, from the shores of Hudson's Bay to the mouths of the Mississippi, was desolate and barbarous, diversified only by swamp, forest, or prairie, and populated by savages without knowledge or laws. Mexico alone redeemed the character of the new continent, and presented to the eyes of the invader a spectacle so marvellous as to satisfy even the expectations which the great discovery had raised. There the Spaniards found an organized State, an ancient polity, an opulent capital, an exalted dynasty, a formidable priesthood, and a people well skilled in mechanical and decorative arts. So great, in fact, was the proficiency of the Mexican workmen, so elaborate the system of government, and so impressive the whole evidence of wealth and grandeur, that for some time the civilization of Mexico was regarded as superior to that of Europe. Although indeed the researches of modern inquirers has enabled us to supply some corrective to these ideas, it is really probable that in certain respects the Spaniards found Mexico more advanced than Spain, and we have been recently assured on the authority of a comprehensive history that this civilization was the necessary incident of geographical and natural advantages. Such was the situation and configuration of Mexico that it could hardly fail to make progress, and all that was discovered there in the shape of national wealth or political order represented the extraordinary opportunities which nature had provided."—Times, Dec. 8, 1858.

Knight's Symbolical Language of Ancient Art and Mythology, reprinted from the privately printed edition of 1818, by Barker, 8vo. 80 pp. hf. morocco, 5s 1836

An ingenious treatise, which displays to a far greater extent than the "Worship of Priapus" the deep reading and research, the immense learning, and the mental powers of Payne Knight. Yet it is also a memento of the disease of his mind; in every paragraph the Phallus stands before us, accompanied by its usual attendant, and the Duads and Triads of many religions are deduced from the nature of the generative organs.

Knight (Rich. Payne) the Symbolical Language of ANCIENT ART AND MYTHOLOGY; a new edition, with Introduction, Additions, Notes translated into English, and a new complete INDEX, by A WILDER, M.P., 8vo. xxviii and 240 pp. of which the Index occupies 58 pp. in note type, elegantly printed on ribbed paper, cloth, 12s New York, Bouton, 1876

"Richard Payne Knight was one of the most thorough scholars of the earlier period of the present century. His works display profound judgment, discrimination, taste, acuteness, and erudition, united with extraordinary candour and impartiality; and they constitute an invaluable collection of ancient and curious learning, from which the students of such literature can draw abundant supplies. In these respects they stand side by side with the writings of the late Godfrey Higgins; while they excel in respect to scope, accuracy, conciseness, and the arrangement of subjects. They are of untold value for the unfolding of correcter views of Ancient Mythology than have been commonly entertained."—Preface.

It will be published in ten parts of ten plates, with text, each at 12s 6d per part. Parts 1-3 are ready.

Although written before 1630, the smoking of tobacco had already become so general, that the author speaks of it in the following manner: "cujus herba, non dicam usus, sed abusus non modo in Indiâ, sed et in Belgio nostro et alibi, insanum in modum jam adolevit."

The Campo Santo was erected in the thirteenth century, and its pictures, consisting of Scriptural subjects, will always be interesting as showing the state of the art in Italy at an early period. Raphael and other great painters of Italy are said to have studied them attentively—indeed some of the finest compositions of the succeeding period will be found indebted to them.

Lea (H. C.) an Historical Sketch of Sacerdotal Celibacy in the Christian Church, 8vo. 600 pp.

Philadelphia, 1867

"This subject has recently been treated with very great learning, and with admirable impartiality, by an American author, Mr. Henry C. Lea, in his History of Sacerdotal Celibacy, which is certainly one of the most valuable works which America has produced. Since the great history of Dean Milman, I know no work in English which has thrown more light on the moral condition of the middle ages, and none which is more fitted to dispel the gross illusions concerning that period which positive writers and writers of a certain Ecclesiastical school have conspired to sustain."—Lecky's History of European Morals, chap. v.

"In fulness and exactness of detail, in conscientious citation of authorities, in the impartiality with which all possible sources of information have been searched, in learning and scholarly finish, it is absolutely unapproached by any similar treatise which has issued from the American press. Indeed, the number of foreign historical works which have equalled it in these particulars might be readily counted on the fingers."—Journal of Psychological Medicine, October, 1867.

"Altogether, the work is an extremely creditable addition to the literature of church history, and may challenge comparison with the best monographs which the German scholarship of our day has produced in this department. . . . The calmly reasoned, deeply learned, and dispassionate history of Mr. LEA, will do its part in producing this wholesome result."—N. Y. Nation, June 27, 1867

"This exhaustive treatise of Mr. LEA upon ecclesiastical celibacy we take to possess, like his excellent work upon 'Superstition and Force,' all the capital requisites of an historical monograph—an immense body of information and of reference on the subject in hand, a sufficiently cool and dispassionate manner of presenting facts, and a strict adherence to the central question. The amount of research, and indeed of scholarship involved in the preparation of the volume, is such as to command the warmest recognition."—Atlantic Monthly, September, 1867.

"Very instructive—not the less so because impartial, uncontroversial, and free from all exaggeration, on a subject which is naturally not unprovocative of it. It has the proper qualities of a history."—Westminster Review, Oct. 1867.

"Thus his chapter on the Anglican church is perhaps the most connected and most satisfactory account of our own Reformation as to the question of celibacy or marriage that could be found."

Quarterly Review, October 1869.

"Mr. LEA has already distinguished himself by a scholarly and very eloquent treatise on 'Superstition and Force.' That book was an excellent gathering of curious thought put together with enlightened liberality. This one is as full of careful research and intelligent observation, and far surpasses it, inasmuch as it has for its theme one of the chief motive powers, whether the power was exercised for good or for ill, in the progress of Christianity and of Christian civilization."

Lee's Glossary of Liturgical and Ecclesiastical

TERMS, compiled and arranged by the Rev. FREDERICK GEORGE LEE, D.C.L., F.S.A., Vicar of All Saints' Lambeth, 1 vol. 8vo. about 500 pp. with upwards of a hundred illustrations on wood, hf. bd. Roxburghe, elegant, £1. 1s 1876

— the same, LARGE PAPER, 1 vol. royal 8vo. of which only 25 are printed, half Roxburghe, £2. 12s 6d 1876

This volume contains more than five thousand explanations of Liturgical and Ecclesiastical terms, both Eastern and Western. It has been the compiler's object to give in a comparatively small compass and in a popular form as much information as possible set forth in terse and clear language concerning the meaning of such terms—a subject of study peculiarly interesting and current at the present day, and one to which considerable attention is now being directed by the laity as well as the clergy. The compiler has been for many years collecting materials for the volume from all ordinary liturgical books and treatises, and has consulted nearly two hundred MSS., e.g., Church and Churchwardens' Accounts, of different periods, which throw much light both on the Statute law and Custom of the English Church. He has also made considerable use of the various County Histories, which contain so much un-tabulated information, and is indebted to many friends for notes, records of facts, literary guidance and friendly criticism. The illustrations are largely taken from English examples.

“Since Pugin's Glossary no volume so complete and useful has appeared as this elaborate glossary of all liturgical and ecclesiastical terms. Not only because High Church phrases are so commonly used, and so little understood, but because in our busy town the vessels of the altar and the decorations of the church are so largely made, does this volume become indispensable in many houses of business, and in most houses of taste. All the definitions are clearly and concisely given. Many are illustrated by some of the very best woodcuts of modern times. Not only are the ordinary terms now in use defined and illustrated, but the volume is full of archaeological details indispensable to every student of ordinary literature. The volume contains nearly five hundred handsome pages, profusely illustrated by woodcuts from rare or unique examples, and, not only for reference, but even for reading, will be found a most valuable and interesting work."—Birmingham Gazette.

"This very valuable and elaborate Glossary is a monument of its author's patient research and pious zeal. In all its elaborate chronicle of ancient terms and usages, it bears evidence in every page, and every line of every page, of the unity of Church practices in all times."

Weekly Register and Catholic Standard, October 28, 1876.

"The Glossary is, as a work of reference ought to be, firmly and substantially, though not expensively, bound; it opens well and its type has an ample margin. We can honestly affirm it to be a very useful kind of book in its way. It really contains a great deal of miscellaneous information of an odd kind which is worth possessing; it explains a large number of out-of-the-way ecclesiastical terms, any one of which the ordinary reader may chance to stumble upon, and to be thereby greatly mystified; while in many instances it supplies the true meaning of words in popular use, where the popular use is either ignorant or blundering. As an illustration under the last head may be quoted a group of names of wild flowers on pp. 178-9, all bearing, like the lovely Cardamine pratensis, the prefix of "lady's" to their English name, and all evidencing the loving reverence which once dedicated to the Blessed Virgin the brightest and most beautiful adornments of English rural life.

"It remains only to be added that the illustrations in the volume, which are numerous, and in many instances from the pencil of the author, are clearly and carefully drawn, and well engraved; and also that the ecclesiastical terms used in the Eastern Church have been collected and compared with the corresponding terms of the Western. The literary character of the work is that of which alone we profess to speak; and it may fairly be pronounced to be useful as a book of reference on subjects of increasing interest, and to supply in a commodious way information which is otherwise not easily accessible."—Saturday Review, November 18, 1876.

— le même ouvrage, GRAND PAPIER VELIN, 2 vols. roy. folio, PROOFS BEFORE LETTERS, (pub. at £16. 16s) uncut, £10. 1866-69

A beautiful and attractive work, containing etchings of a hundred objects of virtù: Arms, Jewels, Furniture, Crystals, Enamels, Porcelain, the work chiefly of great artists of the Renaissance, and exhibiting the highest form of Art as applied to things used in the ordinary transactions of life. They are chosen from different celebrated collections; and so far as the etcher's work is concerned, it has received eulogy from all sides, for the perfection with which it reproduces and seems to convey the most delicate lights and shades. Even the colourist's hand could hardly satisfy the eye and the perceptions more than these plain illustrations, in which any one with artistic feeling can almost discern the very hues and tints of the originals.

Litta (P.) Famiglie celebre Italiane: the Titles, Tables of Contents, and General Index to Vols. I—X, royal folio, £2. 2s 1875

The most elaborate and most valuable of all Genealogical Works is undoubtedly Litta's grand work on the Noble Families of Italy. Strange to say, its original and present editor have entirely neglected to issue proper titles, tables of contents, or an Index to it.

I have remedied this serious drawback, and printed everything required to make "Litta's Noble Families of Italy," an easy Book of Reference.

Londoni, J. Kynsgton et H. Sutton, 1555

The rarity of this edition is so great that Lowndes in mentioning it does not specify any copy as being known to him.

The unusual name of Cæsaris Burgus is given to Salisbury in some quaint Latin verses in the title, recommending the purchase of this improved book to the priests. They begin thus:

Sanctorum qui sancta soles intrare sacerdos
Hoc missale novum (si michi credas) emas.

MISSALE AD USUM INSI | GNIS ECCLESIE SARISBURIENSIS | NUNC RECENS TYPIS ELEGANTIORIBUS EXARATUM | HISTORIIS NOVIS VARIIS AC PROPRIIS INSI | GNITUM, etc. folio, Gothic letter, beautifully printed in black and red ink, with Music and numerous fine woodcuts and large capitals, two leaves of the Canon printed on Velum, large engravings, one of the Crucifixion, the other of God the Father, very fine copy, notwithstanding a few small wormholes, in the original oak boards, recovered by Broadbère, who has preserved the old stamped sides, gilt edges, with brass clasps and corners, EXCESSIVELY RARE, £80.

Parisiis, apud Guillelmum Merlin—at end, Joannes Amazeur pro Guilielmo Merlin, 1555

— another copy, not so tall, but altogether a fine one, bound in black morocco extra, gilt edges, tooled in antique style, by BEDFORD, £70. 1555

A copy wanting two leaves fetched at Sotheby's, in 1864, £85. The above two, which are perfect, are consequently cheap in comparison. This is beyond dispute the finest of all the editions of the Sarum Missal, and is also one of the last, as they ceased to be printed in 1557, shortly before Elizabeth's accession to the throne. Most of the copies that survived the reforming rage of the sixteenth century were mutilated, and Mr. Maskell (Mon. Rit. I. lxiv.) notices that the fine large woodcut of God the Father, crowned with a papal tiara, and surrounded by the apostolical symbols, on the second vellum leaf of the Canon, "is a rare picture, and seldom found in printed Missals." The same accomplished critic, in his work on Ancient Liturgies (pref. p. vii), remarks in reference to all the old English service-books, that "Of late years the demand for them has increased tenfold, and their price, always great, has naturally increased with the demand, so as to put them, when they do occur, beyond the reach of men who are nevertheless the most anxious to obtain them." The last two sheets I and K are occupied by a curious Accentuarium to guide the priests in their pronunciation of the Latin tongue. As a specimen of the English that occurs in the volume, it may not be out of place to quote here a portion of the marriage service—"I N. take the N. to be my weddyd husbände to have et to hold fro thys day forwarde for bett' for wurs, for richere, for porer, in sikenesse & in helthe to be bonowr and buskom in bed & at bord tyll deth us departe yf holly chyrche wyl it ordeyne & therto I plyght the my trouth.

The paper and the printing ink are also of the best quality. The binding has cost £6. 6s. Here is a really beautiful book for the Liturgical collector or for a Roman Church.

was made subservient to his purpose ; and of many ancient buildings the Engravings contained in these volumes are now the only known records. What adds considerably to the value of the work, is that the letter-press gives extracts from Parish Registers and Munimental Documents not easily accessible elsewhere. An enumeration of a few of the plates will give some idea of the scope of the work.

Lord Stratford de Redcliffe's Historical Play :

Alfred the Great in Athelnay ; with a preliminary scene, post 8vo.
 xiv and 178 pp. hf. Roxburghe, 9s 1876

Lord Stratford de Redcliffe's Alfred the Great in Athelnay ; with a preliminary scene, LARGE PAPER, demy 8vo.

hf. Roxburghe, £1. 11s 6d 1876

The entire impression was limited to 250 copies, and 20 copies for sale on Large Paper.

"Lord Stratford de Redcliffe, though not a poet in any high sense of the word, writes neat and polished lines with great facility ; he has adopted the account of Alfred's retreat to Athelnay from some life of St. Neot.

"Hilda is the young lady of the piece. She is betrothed to Cedric, and there is a quaint scene in which Guthrum, the Danish king, makes love to her. Hilda mentions that there is a prior attachment, and Guthrum answers in the spirit of King Valoroso when he said to Betsinda, 'Never mind the young men, my dear, but deign to look on a middle-aged despot, who has been thought not ill-looking in his day.' At last Guthrum gets impatient, and 'Bethink thee well, proud girl—I need not sue;

You're in my power—a word, and force might seize

What love and love's blind fondness fail to win.

Hilda : Thou darest not, king, thou can'st not stoop so low,

Thy nature, weak, not bad, restrains thy will;
 But were it other, I have means wherewith
 To save my honour, though at cost of life.
 Stand off ! I say, stand off !

Guth. (apart) I feel abased,—

'Tis not the dagger, 'tis not love's revenge ;
 Her maiden virtue masters my intent,
 And leaves me baffled, cowed but little cured.'

"Alfred has the usual scenes, often represented by English art of our day with the burnt cake, 'his oaten charge,' the old woman, and the Danes in camp. There is a battle, in which Wulfrida kills an English traitor, the Peace of Wedmore is transacted in blameless blank verse, and the play ends with the wedding of Hilda and Cedric, and with the songs of a chorus of converted Danes. It will be seen that the interest of the play is not concentrated, but then it is very varied. There is the revival of Alfred, the love affair of Hilda, the conversion of the Danes, and it would be hard to say which of these themes is made the most prominent. The scattered lyrics are fluent and spirited."—Academy, March 18th, 1876, p. 258.

SANCTI: two memoirs on the Ferns, Flowering Plants, and Land Shells of Madeira and Porto Santo, with Appendix, sm. 8vo. 2 folding plates of Shells, (sells 5s) bds. 2s 6d 1851

This small work was reprinted from the Transactions of the Cambridge Philosophical Society, on account of the volumes in which the two memoirs were first issued becoming so scarce. It contains an account of the Ferns, Shells, &c., of Madeira and Porto Santo; and at the commencement of the volume is an address, which gives a short account of the general character of Maderan Botany and Malacology. As the book was reprinted verbatim from the above Periodical, the Author has placed in the Appendix numerous notes and additions, which had not before appeared.

A more correct and complete detailed catalogue of the living plants, actually or heretofore existing in the Madeiras, than has before been made; it is the fruit of twenty-six years labour in the Islands. The Botany of this group, traced by a skilful hand, is of the greatest importance as a test of the variations between the Floras of the great continents of which the Madeiras are the visible connecting links.

Lundy's Monumental Christianity, or the Art and Symbolism of the Primitive Church as witnesses and teachers of the one Catholic faith and practice, sm. 4to. about 500 pp. with several large plates and over 200 woodcuts, cloth gilt, £1. 11s 6d New York, 1876

Valuable as a work on early Christian art, with figures of all the monuments described, and comprising many curious items of information in its text. The author's theories need not be taken into account, although he brings Agni, Mithra, and Horus to their support.

"The parallelism of the Christian and Pagan ideas on certain points is, as might be expected, carefully pointed out, with very interesting results. One of the best chapters is the last, on 'Resurrection and Life Everlasting, as displayed in Ancient Art, Pagan and Christian.'"

Athenæum, August 19th, 1876, p. 246.

"Mr. Lundy describes his subject as 'The Art and Symbolism of the Primitive Church, as witnesses and teachers of the one Catholic Faith and Practice.' He has written a learned work, spending on it an infinite amount of pains, which have not told as much as they might have done, for want of critical sagacity. The most interesting and, as it seems to us, the most valuable portion of it, is the comparison drawn with elaborate care between the symbolism of Christianity and that of other beliefs. Mr. Lundy is not afraid of tracing these resemblances; on the contrary, he finds in them a welcome significance. There is a good deal of information on this topic which it would not be easy to find collected elsewhere. The plan of the work is, after an introductory chapter, and chapters dealing with the subjects of 'The Structure of Catacombs,' 'The Necessity and Art-Teaching of the Catacombs,' and 'The Disciplina Arcani, the Mysteries,' to treat separately of each article of the Creed, and to find the testimony to its reception by the Church in the monuments of primitive times. Mr. Lundy writes generally in a candid and liberal spirit, and it is a pity that he should be so ill-advised as to speak in one place of the 'proud State Church of England' as 'neglecting the poor.' This Church has many faults, but this is not and never has been one of them. It has never neglected the poor, even when it has allied itself with the narrowest views of their rights as citizens. This is a remarkably handsome and well got up volume, adorned, too, with an abundance of excellent illustrations."—The Spectator, July 8th, 1876.

"The author has collected a great mass of matter from the early monuments of the Church and from the religious sculptures and inscriptions of the East, illustrative sometimes only of the author's particular crotchets concerning the relation of false creeds to the true, but occasionally throwing valuable light upon the antiquity of particular doctrines and ideas, and even documents; as when several Christian sculptures of the second century are produced to show that the parable of the Vine (and therefore the fourth Gospel, in which alone that parable is found) had already taken a strong and general hold on the mind of the Church.—Saturday Review, May 27th, 1876."

There has hitherto been no comprehensive English work on this extremely attractive subject,—“the Jewish Coinage,” which forms a very important PILLAR of the HISTORICAL TRUTH of the BIBLE. Orthodox Christians and Sceptics, alike will do well to read and refer to this unbiassed work, which states and illustrates numerous Biblical Events with the utmost impartiality. The Designs of the Coins were made by Mr. Fairholt from the Coins themselves, chiefly in the British Museum.

Makamat; or, Rhetorical Anecdotes of Abu'l

Kasem al Hariri, of Basra, translated into English Verse and Prose; and illustrated with Annotations, by the Rev. T. PRESTON, 8vo. cloth, 16s 1850

"The most classical work in Arabic literature—a masterpiece of elegance and refinement." This translation, by the freedom of its rendering and the easiness of its style, will be more acceptable to an European reader than any literal version; while the frequent notes recall to the more studious reader the subtler points of the text as verbally followed. Mr. Preston has been careful not to fall into the error of Rückert, who made an imitation rather than a translation.

Psalterium Davidis, cum Calendario: accedunt

Symbolum S. Athanasii, Litania, Orationes et Officium Mortuorum, stout sm. 8vo. illuminated Manuscript on Vellum, ornamented with 11 large initials (historiated with small MINIATURES, executed in colours on a gold ground), in ancient oak boards, covered with stamped leather, £20. SEC. XIII

This codex has the merit of being more ancient, and of a rarer kind than the liturgical MSS. usually met with. It is a specimen of no ordinary character, and was evidently executed for some important house or person in Eastern France about the time of Saint-Louis.

MANUSCRIPTS.

EVANGELISTARIUM, Latine, 4to. Manuscript on Vellum, of the IX-Xth Century, OCCUPYING 395 LEAVES (10 by 7 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches). This venerable and superb MS. is in the most perfect preservation, £880. Sec. IX-X

It was probably executed for a Royal personage, and is a marvel of sumptuous artistic decoration. The first four leaves are occupied by full-length figures of the four Evangelists, each of whom is represented as writing his Gospel, the opening sentence of which is on a scroll in letters of gold, the background of each painting being decorated with a rich pattern of leaf-work. The fifth leaf presents the Salvator Mundi seated on a gold arc. Folio 6 is a splendid page of interlaced capitals, a blaze of Gold, signifying with 15 letters—"LEGENDUM PER ANNI CURRICULUM." On the reverse are curiously interlaced three capitals, signifying "DOMINUS." Page 10 represents the word "SEQUENTIA," a marvel of interlacement of gold and rich colours: pp. 12-13 bear the words "EVANGELII" "SECUNDUM" in the same style, but entirely varied. P. 14 presents two large intricately designed letters, within which are worked the words "RESPONDEANT OMNES, GLORIA TIBI DOMINE." On p. 15, from the maze of interlaced golden letters we decipher "IN ILLO TEMPORE;" pp. 16-17 contain in gold uncial characters the opening of St. Matthew's Gospel. To pass on for want of space, pages 35-8 have an empurpled ground, shadowed with white in leaf pattern, on which are emblazoned the lections of the FESTIVAL of the PURIFICATION, IN GOLD UNCIAL LETTERS. At pages 171-4 are the lections of MAUNDY-THURSDAY, IN GOLD SEMI-UNCIAL CHARACTERS ON WHITE GROUND. Then for the great festival of EASTER are 17 GORGEOUS PAGES OF INTRICATE GOLDEN LETTERS ON EMPURPLED GROUND, most delicately shadowed with white in different devices, the text in uncial and semi-uncial characters of gold. No description, however, can do justice to this noble monument of ancient art. It was probably executed in Germany, but it is by no means unlikely that it was the work of an Irish artist resident in that country.

Among the various choice collections of Manuscripts that have been dispersed of late years, it is doubtful if any volume can compare with the present, which is indeed a treasure any collector might be proud to possess.

ALBERTI MAGNI SPECULUM. Accedit Liber Ymaginum astronomicarum Tebith, 12mo. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, written on 56 leaves (5 $\frac{3}{8}$ by 3 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches) with illuminated Initial and painted Capitals, red morocco, in case, £1. 10s Sec. xv.

ALBERTUS MAGNUS. Notulæ super Matheum et Marcum secundum egregium Doctorem Dominum Albertum Magnum quondam Ratisponensem Episcopum, stout folio, SPLENDID MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, written by a German scribe on 268 leaves (14 $\frac{7}{8}$ by 10 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches) and decorated with 31 Initials executed in brilliant colours (several with floreated borders and 3 historiated with beautiful Miniatures), executed in a very unusual style, having prefixed a full-length portrait of ALBERTUS MAGNUS, embroidered in silk and gold threads, half red morocco extra, £21. Sec. xv.

ALEXANDRI DE VILLA DEI, Carmen de Algorismo; Calendarium; Tractatus de Arithmetica (Joannis de Sacro Bosco); Tractatus de ASTROLOGIA; 4to. MS. on paper and vellum mixed, in an English hand, calf gilt, £3. 16s Sec. xv.

ANTIPHONALE ET MISSARIUM, sm. folio, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, 149 leaves (11 $\frac{3}{8}$ by 8 inches), with the Music in Neumes, ornamented with painted Initials (6 very large illuminated in gold, silver, and colours), and having at end (folio cli to cxvii) additional Services written on Paper in the hand-writing of the xvth Century, in the ancient oak boards, covered in stamped pigskin, with brass bosses, £36. Sec. xi.

This venerable Ecclesiastical MS. is well worthy the notice of those interested in Liturgical matters. The fact that the Feast of the Holy Trinity is to be found in its place here, is one of no slight interest when the age of the volume is considered. The service for the festival of St. Adalbert, the Apostle of the Prussians, who was martyred in 997, is given; one seldom met with in MSS. of the kind, and from this and the name Fridericus Diaconus which appears on the bottom margins of two pages, in the hand-writing of the original scribe, it seems probable that the MS. was written somewhere between Treves and Augsburg, in the second half of the eleventh century.

HISTORICAL ARMORIAL OF ENGLAND, folio, MS. on paper, consisting of 510 coats of Arms, neatly executed in colours, beginning with William the Conqueror and ending with two different emblazonments of James I. all the royal shields being in very large size, hf. bd. £12. About 1605-10

A valuable MS. evidently planned and compiled as a work for use, reference, or publication, not merely as a collection of stray Coats of Arms. The arrangement is chronological, so that from reign to reign, one can see the names and escutcheons of the nobility of the time; with genealogical and other particulars added briefly in almost every instance. It is without doubt the production of a competent and scholarly antiquary of the early part of James I.'s reign, probably executed immediately upon his accession to the English throne.

AUGUSTINI (Beati) TRACTATUS IN PSALMOS, CANTICUM GRADUUM ET ENCHIRIDION, sm. folio, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, by a Spanish scribe, written on 180 leaves (10 by 7 inches) in the original oak boards, £14. Sec. xii.

At the end is a notice that the Scribe's name was Didacus, and an inscription claims the Manuscript as "Liber Sanctæ Mariæ de Benevivere: qui abstulerit Anathema sit." I cannot discover the modern or native name of Benevivere; it would add to the interest of the book if, with a little trouble, this origin could be traced.

BIBLIA HEBRAICA, stout small 4to. Manuscript on Vellum, finely written by a Hebrew-Spanish scribe, blue morocco extra, gilt edges, from the library of the Rev. Theodore Williams, £36. Sec. xiv.

Early Hebrew Bibles, written in Spain, are of the greatest rarity, as the Inquisition caused all books of the Jews to be destroyed.

BIBLIA SACRA LATINA, cum Prologis Sancti Hieronimi et Interpretatione Nominum, 4to. Manuscript on Vellum, written in a beautiful minute character on 315 leaves (8 $\frac{3}{8}$ by 5 $\frac{7}{8}$ inches) without the first leaves of Matthew's Gospel and Deuteronomy, blue morocco, gilt edges, £16. Sec. xiii.

PROPHETÆ XVI. Latine, folio, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, written on 189 leaves (9 $\frac{7}{8}$ by 6 $\frac{5}{8}$ inches) with painted Capitals, hf. bd. £6. Sec. xiii

From the library of San Nicolo di Carpi, to which it had been presented by a Canon of St. Mary's Church in Carpi, as appears from an inscription at the end written about A.D. 1400.

BIBLIA SACRA (Genesis-usque ad Reg. lib. iv.) Flandrice, stout fol. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM AND PAPER, written on 436 leaves (11 $\frac{1}{2}$ by 8 inches), with painted Capitals, and ornamented with 13 bordered Initials, several of which are heightened with gold and colours, oak boards covered in stamped leather, with clasps, £16. A.D. 1412

Preface on Study of the Sacred Scriptures, followed by the text in Flemish, alternating in sections with a commentary extracted from the History of Peter Comestor.

Fol. 3. The writing was commenced on 25th May.

Fol. 354. Completed as far as the end of the 2nd book of Kings on 13th December, 1412, by a member of the Cloistered Convent of the Third Order of St. Francis at Lierre, near Mechlin (Malines).

CHRISTI VITA (Ludolpho de Saxonia Carthusiensi Auctore, folio, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, written on 129 leaves ($13\frac{7}{8}$ by $9\frac{1}{2}$ inches), with bordered Initial, illuminated in gold and colours and painted Capitals, half morocco, gilt edges, £2. 10s Sec. xv

On the fly-leaf is written "Liber Monasterii Nemoris Beatæ Mariæ Virginis prope Northorne Ordinis Canonice Regularium quem nobis legavit et donavit venerabilis et devotus Sacerdos Dominus Johannes Royssmyt hic sepultus."

CHRONICLE OF ENGLAND, in Norman-French, MS. on vellum, with 124 portraits of the Kings and Queens and their families, executed in pen and ink, in a roll $11\frac{1}{2}$ feet long by $9\frac{1}{2}$ inches broad, £12. 12s About AD. 1280

An extremely curious and interesting MS. which begins with a sort of geographical diagram and a short description of the heptarchical division of England; and then proceeds at once to the annals of the kings of England. They begin with Echilbert (Egbert) and stop short at the coronation of Edward I. which no doubt marks the period of composition. The portraits, to the number of 124, are highly remarkable specimens of English art in the thirteenth century. Being simply sketched in pen and ink, and then slightly washed in part with red or yellow, they do not exhibit so much labour as the figures in contemporary missal-painting, but they are characterised by a freedom and boldness of design which are rare; and a certain amount of individuality appears in each portrait, which must have been extremely difficult to accomplish.

Harold is described as having reigned by force, while William the Bastard took the crown in legitimate succession. King John is treated thus "Allas quel dolor! Entre tuz reis chrestiens il fu devant le plus franc, e par son eindegre de franc si se fist serf e mist le glorious reume de Engleterre a truage." The record terminates with the death and burial of Henry III. and nothing comes after it but the drawing of Edward I. enthroned.

On the back of the roll, and written in a handwriting of about the year 1300, there is a poem, or part of one, also in the langue d'oïl, in octosyllabic couplets of about 400 lines, recounting apparently the rival merits in love of clerc and chevalier. The heroine is named Ydoine; and her champion dies. Perhaps it is a portion of the Romance of Ydoine and Amadas.

CHRONICA FIGURATA ab Adamo primo Parente usque ad Bonifacium VIII. in qua delineatæ sunt Imagines Pontificum et Sacerdotum, Imperatorum, Regum, Ducum et Principum; Sancti et Martyres, Prophetæ et Sibyllæ, Oracula et Divinitates, Rerum omnium Inventores, Religionum Fundatores, Theologi, Jurisconsulti, Philosophi, Medici, Historici, Poetæ, &c. &c. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, written on a Roll measuring 17 feet by 18 inches, and ornamented with 310 very clever Paintings of the Events, containing full-length Portraits of the Persons mentioned, Views, &c. AN EXTRA-ORDINARY WORK OF ART, £36. Sec. xv

This, although called a MS., is really a Panoramic Painting or chronological series of Portraits, the scribe's work being wholly confined to the inscription of names and dates. The artist was a skilful draughtsman, whose style is largely influenced by the evident study of the ancient models which were still to be seen amongst the ruins of old Rome. It is probable that the work was executed in the city of the Caesars, caput mundi, as it is named in the inscription under a rude design. In one corner of this View of Rome, there is a picture of Romulus and Remus suckled by the wolf, which is a very close copy of one of the antique sculptures.

The Roll has hitherto been absurdly described as a work of the early part of the thirteenth century, that is, as having been executed during the reign of Boniface VIII. whose portrait is one of the last three figures of the series. So little did the scribe know of the date of that Pope's accession that he sets it down as A.M. 4348, which for him was equivalent to A.D. 1385, nearly a century after the election of Boniface VIII. [The birth of Christ is assigned to A.M. 3963]. The true period of composition seems to be about the year 1440.

CHRONICA do Serenissimo Principe D. AFFONSO HENRIQUES I. Rey de Portugal escrita por Duarte Galvam, sm. folio, MANUSCRIPT ON PAPER ($11\frac{1}{2}$ by 8 inches), calf gilt, £4. 15s Sec. xvi

One of the great historical monuments of Portugal, although it remained unprinted till the eighteenth century. Both for its matter and its manner it ranks deservedly high, being the work of an accomplished scholar, who was at the same time an experienced statesman. There are copies in various collections of MSS. but few of equal age with the present.

CLEMENTIS V. CONSTITUTIONES cum Apparatu Joannis Andreæ, folio, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, the text written in double columns (the Apparatus also in two columns, forming the inner and outer borders) on 91 leaves (12¼ by 8 inches), morocco extra, £2. 16s Sec. xv

CORPUS JURIS CANONICI. GRATIANI DECRETUM, cum Apparatu Bartholomæi Brixensis et Glossis, large folio, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, written in double columns on 260 leaves (15¼ by 9¼) with the Glosses added on the margins, ornamented with 38 large grotesque initials, calf, £6. 6s About A.D. 1200

This is one of the oldest MSS. of the Canon Law in existence, and dates from the beginning of the thirteenth century, before the time that the Glosses of Bartholomæus Brixensis were written. These are added on the margins in a handwriting of the late part of the same century. On folio 47, in the bottom margin, is a Table displaying the Greek Alphabet, with their names and how used as Numerals. This was executed by the original scribe, and is extremely curious as showing how much and how little was known in central and north Italy of Hellenic literature about the year 1200.

CROKER (Crofton) and Thomas WRIGHT. Papers and Letters addressed to them by various eminent personages, containing valuable material for the literary and social history of the last fifty years, with Croker's Notes of conversation with Thomas Moore and others, a quarto parcel of MS. £2. 10s 1825-69

The letters to Mr. Wright deal with antiquarian matters and the literary societies.

DAVIES FAMILY. Letters and Communications addressed to Robert Davies of Gwissamy, and Thomas, William, and Robert Davies, including one from Peter Moss of the Record Office, 1624; Sir Francis Leigh, 1626; Sir Henry Salusbury, 1626; P. S. Yonge, 1628; the Bishop of St. Asaph (John Hanmer), about 1629; Sir Peter Leigh, 1629; a Commission of Coloneley on parchment signed by Charles I. at Oxford, 1643; a Warrant signed by Prince Rupert, 1644; a letter by Edward Peirce, 1694; Notes to be observed before you lett your survey passe out of your handes, about 1629; Robert Lloyd of Rhydd's Notes on the ownership and history of certain Welsh estates, about 1630, £3. 10s 1621-30

DUDLEY FAMILY. Adlard (George) MS. Collections for the Lives of the Dudleys: the Duke of Northumberland, Ambrose and Robert Dudley, transcripts from the Sydney Papers and various other sources, a great mass of matter on foolscap paper, forming a thick small folio parcel, £4. 1860-68

EVANGELIA QUATUOR, Latine, cum prologis S. Hieronimi, Argumento, Breviario et Indice Capitum Evangelicorum per Circulum Anni, smallest 4to. Manuscript on Vellum, written on 155 leaves (6¼ by 4¾ inches), with a Miniature of St. John at the beginning, but wanting a few lines at the commencement of each Gospel, in oak boards covered with crimson velvet, having inlaid on obverse of cover a carved ivory centre-piece, representing the Crucifixion, lined with white morocco, with broad border of gold, gold edges, enclosed in a half morocco case, £96. Sec. x.

It is needless to enlarge on the very rare occurrence of Biblical MSS. of this early date, and their value for criticism of the text.

On some of the blank pages, some of the forms connected with the electing of a Prioress of Polinchusen are written in a handwriting of the fifteenth century. They include her oath which was to be taken on this ancient copy of the Gospels.

EVANGELIARIUM FESTIVALE, cum Musica, folio, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, of Italian execution, written in a Missal Letter on 168 leaves (10½ by 7½ inches) and gorgeously decorated with EXQUISITE BORDERS in which, on a background of pale gold, are depicted Flowers, Fruit, Birds, Insects, Crocodile, Hound, Monkey, Frog, &c. in rich deep colouring; with 17

Miniatures and numerous Capitals illuminated in gold and colours, and adorned with flowers and fruit, morocco extra with vellum fly leaves, by Townsend of Sheffield, £28. Sec. xv.

The miniatures are of remarkably powerful design and execution; and betray the hand of an accomplished master. There are few finer specimens of Pre-Raphaelite art. A few leaves are unfortunately absent at the beginning; but the MS. is one of a very rare liturgical kind, there being few cathedrals so lavish in expense as to have separate books for the Gospel-lessons with the chant music.

FISHERI (Joannis, Episcopi Roffensis) PSALMI XV SEU PRECATIONES. Accedunt Francisci Petrarchæ Poetæ Oratorisque clarissimi Psalmi penitenciales. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, exquisitely written, in Italic Characters with Capitals in Gold, on 358 pages, (5 $\frac{7}{8}$ by 3 $\frac{3}{8}$ inches) by Paulus Jonas, at Prague, 17 December 1580, having a titlepage, in Letters of Gold, within an interlaced Border, 12mo. old red morocco, gilt edges, £4. 4s Sec. xvi. (1580)

GLANVILLE. BARTHOLOMEUS ANGLICUS DE PROPRIETATIBUS RERUM, folio, MANUSCRIPT ON PAPER, written on 100 leaves (11 $\frac{1}{2}$ by 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches) with painted Capitals, calf, 36s Sec. xv.

GOWER (John) CONFESSIO AMANTIS IN ENGLYSHE VERSE, folio, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, in double columns on 179 leaves (14 by 8 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches) ORNAMENTED WITH 8 Initials IN FLOREATED BORDERS, illuminated in gold and colours, calf, £275. about A.D. 1400

A SPLENDID OLD ENGLISH MANUSCRIPT, ON VELLUM, OF THE END OF THE XIVTH CENTURY, presenting an extremely valuable text of the first of Modern English Poets, who is also the second only in importance. Chaucer although he died before Gower, was younger than the latter and is called his disciple. The present is the earlier version dedicated to Richard the Second, and containing the complimentary verse addressed to Chaucer towards the end. This MS. in common with most of the early and valuable texts wants two or three leaves of the prologue. It has a very finely executed miniature of the Confessor and the lover at the head of the passage commencing,—

This worþi preest þis hooly man
To me spekende þus began.

The forms þ for th, and ȝ for gh or y, are always used except where there is a capital letter at the beginning of a line. The MS. is of a very early date, probably written during the author's life-time. It is to be regretted that Dr. Pauli, in publishing his edition, had the opportunity of collating only very late MSS. At the end of his third vol. he has professed to give the conclusion from a "Richard" text, but has, in consequence of the Harleian MS. which he used, being incomplete, omitted the last fifty-two lines altogether, though they differ entirely from the text of his edition.

HARINGTON FAMILY. TILSTON (J.) Descendants of Sir J. Harington of Exton, folio, MANUSCRIPT, with numerous Coats of Arms painted by F. Hougham, herald painter in the Old Bailey, hf. bd. £10. 1639

The MS. commences with a large escutcheon of Sir John Harington, Lord Harington, of Exton, in 1603, and proceeding not only with his family in direct descent, but all the families allied by marriage with the Haringtons, (including the Sydneys, Cecils, Bruces of Aylesbury and Elgin, Seymours, Dudleys, Butlers, and others of the highest nobility,) and it ends with a large coat of arms of the great Duke of Schomberg. The number of coloured coats of arms is about 350, of which eleven are large ones occupying each the greater part of a page.

HIERONIMI (S.) TRACTATUS IN MATTHEUM, 4to. fine ancient MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, with the name of Scribe, in old boards, covered with calf, £12.

The scribe Bertolfus, records his name in the following sentence: "Indignus alumnus Sce. Marie nomine Bertolfus mo. scripsit he. codice. optans a dno. p. hoc. venia peccaminu. suoru." (sic.) minister," (evidently, from his tone of authority, the Bishop of Bamberg) to "B. Geng. Abbati," in which he refers to his own condition of bondage (servitium), and while he asks for his prayers, orders him not to think "de monte commutando." This is written in the same hand as the rest of the book.

Horæ, or Offices:

English: HORÆ BEATÆ MARLÆ VIRGINIS SECUNDUM USUM SARUM, sm. cum Calendario, 4to. Illuminated Manuscript on Vellum written on 118 leaves ($6\frac{1}{2}$ by $4\frac{3}{4}$ inches) by an English Scribe, and ornamented with 11 large INITIALS, 9 of which are historiated with Miniatures illustrating the life of OUR SAVIOUR, and numerous Capitals illuminated in gold and colours, old calf, gilt edges, £36. About A.D. 1200

In the Calendar the name of St. Thomas of Canterbury is obliterated, but the Service for his festival still remains in the text. The whole volume is a rich and valuable monument of Early English Art.

MSS. of this kind distinctively belonging to the Sarum use of the English Church, are amongst the rarest which occur for sale. Moreover, all the Salisbury Horæ do not contain the service for Thomas à Becket's day: in the present MS. it is found, while that of the Apostle Thomas is omitted. The words of the Antiphon are—

Tuper Thomæ sanguinem quem pro te impendit
Fac nos Christe scandere quo Thomas ascendit.

IIORÆ BEATÆ MARLÆ VIRGINIS, sm. 4to. illuminated MS. on Vellum, containing 12 Miniatures, on backgrounds of chequered pattern, with borders and numerous gilt and painted Initials, in a binding of Limoges enamel, that is, having the sides covered with brass plaques, carved with central and subordinate figures and ornaments, the lines of the carving, the interstices, and the uncarved surface of the metal filled in with coloured enamel; a striking and remarkable specimen of bookbinding, £36. about 1380

Apparently written at or about St. Quentin, to judge from the reverence paid to that saint; and from the language which appears in the Calendar and some of the prayers being barbarous French, of Picard, or Flemish dialect.

IIORÆ BEATÆ MARLÆ VIRGINIS, cum Calendario, sm. 8vo. illuminated Manuscript on Vellum, written on 235 pages, (7 by $4\frac{3}{4}$ inches, by a French Scribe, and decorated with 19 INITIALS, numerous CAPITALS, 9 MINIATURES on Mosaic grounds and ivy-leaf BORDERS richly illuminated in gold and colours, purple velvet, gilt edges, £36. about A.D. 1380

The "Quinze Joyes de Nostre Dame," and "les Cinq Requestes de Nostre Seigneur," are in French. The MS. is not one of those showy pieces of work which dazzle with gold and decoration; but is an elegant specimen of pure French work, chaste in style, and sober though tasteful in its ornament and general character.

OFFICE DE NOTRE DAME, en Latin, avec Calendrier, smallest 4to. illuminated Manuscript on Vellum, written by a French Scribe on 147 leaves, (7 by $4\frac{3}{4}$ inches) and ornamented with 11 Miniatures within elegant ivy-leaf borders (relieved with Mermaid, Monkey, Bear and Nondescripts) 14 Initials and numerous capitals illuminated in gold and colours, red morocco, dentelle borders, silk linings, gilt edges, by Derome, in skiver case, £45. about A.D. 1400

By the binder this MS. was lettered as of the tenth century, but the error is obvious. Some of the miniatures have diaper-work backgrounds, others burnished gold and silver. The latter are very remarkable and unusual. The faces are finished with great care and delicacy; and altogether in the pure taste of its border-ornamentation, and the masterly execution of the paintings, this MS. is one of the best examples of the Parisian school that I possess. The Quinze Joyes and Cinq Requestes are as usual in French.

IIORÆ BEATÆ MARLÆ VIRGINIS, cum Calendario, sm. 4to. illuminated Manuscript on Vellum, written on 198 leaves, ($6\frac{5}{8}$ by 5 inches) and ornamented in a very unusual style, the Calendar with 24 curious pen and ink sketches and the Services with 12 Miniatures in Grisaille, heightened with gold and colours, each page being resplendent with ivy-leaf borders, capitals and terminals richly illuminated in gold and colours, russias, gilt edges, £35. about A.D. 1400

A fine Specimen of early Art in France, with Calendar, Rubrics and several of the Prayers in French. The decoration of the Calendar, the general taste of the book, is different to any other Book of Hours in the present collection, and it is certainly the work of no ordinary artist.

HORÆ BEATÆ MARÆ VIRGINIS, secundum Usus Romanum, cum Calendario, sm. 4to. illuminated Manuscript on Vellum, written on 150 leaves ($7\frac{1}{2}$ by $5\frac{1}{4}$ inches) and decorated with 13 Miniatures on Mosaic Grounds, elegant borders, 26 Initials and numerous capitals, finely illuminated in gold and colours, a beautiful Specimen of old binding, in French calf, gilt edges, the sides covered with gold scroll tooling, relieved with colour, in the Grolier style, having stamped in letters of gold on obverse of cover "PLENITUDO LEGIS DILECTIO A. M.," and on the reverse "A. M. HUMILITAS EXALTAT F. I." £30. about A.D. 1620

So charming an example of ancient bookbinding is rarely found on an illuminated MS. It was probably bound as a wedding or other special gift, and has evidently, from its fine internal condition, been most religiously cared for.

HORÆ BEATÆ MARÆ VIRGINIS, secundum Usus Romanum, cum Calendario, sm. 8vo. illuminated Manuscript on Vellum, written by a French Scribe on 196 leaves (6 by $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches) and decorated with 5 large and 12 small Miniatures, 30 fine Borders, 25 Initials, and numerous Capitals, richly illuminated in gold and colours, blue velvet, gilt edges, £20. HORÆ BEATÆ MARÆ VIRGINIS IN USU ROMANO, cum Calendario, sm. 8vo. illuminated Manuscript on Vellum, beautifully written on 140 leaves ($6\frac{1}{2}$ by $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches) and ornamented with 4 Miniatures exquisitely executed in Grisaille, heightened with gold, 4 floreated BORDERS and 12 INITIALS finely illuminated in gold and colours, vellum, £35. Sec. xv.

A most excellent example of this rare and elegant style of miniature painting. There is not a great extent of it, but what there is of singular charm. The borders and initials are excellent, but the grisaille work is of finished and unsurpassable beauty.

HORÆ BEATÆ MARÆ VIRGINIS, secundum Usus Curie Romanæ cum Calendario, sm. 8vo. illuminated Manuscript on Vellum, with floreated borders, initial and capital letters, finely illuminated in gold and colours, and richly ornamented with 24 Miniatures (14 large and 10 small), in Grisaille heightened with colours and gold, green velvet, gilt edges, £30. G. interlaced OR. Four of the other Borders represent Peasants dancing, a Dragon pursuing Children, Boys playing with a Sphinx, and Death slaying a Sleeper. An early MS. of the Italian School, and most valuable for the extraordinary beauty of the interlaced letters, by which MSS. of this class are distinguished from all others.

Spanish. OFFICIUM BEATÆ MARÆ VIRGINIS SECUNDUM ROMANAM CURIAM, cum Calendario, sm. 8vo. ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, written on 205 leaves (6 by $4\frac{5}{8}$ inches) by a Catalan Scribe (probably at Barcelona) and decorated with 9 splendidly coloured MINIATURES within elegant floreated BORDERS (one unfinished having merely the outline sketched and the border line gilt), several delicately pencilled BORDERS displaying Quadrupeds, Birds and Insects exquisitely delineated, and numerous INITIAL LETTERS all beautifully illuminated in gold and colours, red morocco extra, broad borders of gold, gilt edges, £85.

about A.D. 1460

The rarity of works exhibiting Spanish Art in Illumination is too well-known to require any comment. The Catalan inscriptions, "Diu se lo dimarts sanct, (It is said on Shrove Tuesday,) on fol. 169, and "Dimecres sant," (Ash Wednesday) on fol. 82 are convincing proofs of this Manuscript having been executed in Spain. Three of the Miniatures, the Adoration of the Three Kings (one painted as a Negro with gold earrings) opposite folio 41, the Madonna and Child opposite folio 64, and the Death of the Three Horsemen whilst flying the Falcon, opposite folio 111, are remarkable for the artistic handling of the subjects.

JUSTINIANI IMPERATORIS CODEX (in novem libris) CUM GLOSSIS, large folio, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, written on 282 leaves ($18\frac{1}{4}$ by $11\frac{1}{4}$ inches) ornamented with nearly 500 INITIALS (many pictorial) and 10 MINIATURES finely illuminated in gold and colours, vellum, £32.

On the fly-leaf is a curious memorandum (dated 10th July, 1406) in which Jean Boucher (Joannes Boscherii) of Lyons, acknowledges having borrowed six crowns of gold (sex scuta auri) from Johannes Rautuelli, Bachelor of Common Law, to be paid on demand, and that as security he leaves "istum presentem codicem;" the witnesses of the transaction being Petrus Branderii and Julianus Bandoins, both clerics like himself.

JUSTINI Epitoma historiarum Trogi Pompei, sm. folio, illuminated MS. on Vellum, 156 leaves, ornamented with an elegant border of interlaced work, in the best Italian manner, with the SFORZA Arms, supported by Amorini, painted on the lower compartment of the first page, and 43 beautiful Initials, richly illuminated in gold and colours, red morocco, with the book plate of "Reverendus Pater Jacobus Episcopus Ascalonensis," £12.

The paintings in this remarkable volume bear a strong resemblance to the style of Lucas Cranach, as shown in his "Antithesis Christi et Antichristi." The language and handwriting imply that the work was executed in South Germany, most probably in Nürnberg. The MS. can hardly be regarded as a book illustrated with pictures, but rather as a series of pictures illustrated with text. There is no ornamental calligraphy or border decoration to place it in the category of the ordinary illuminated books of devotion.

(TROYES PONTIFICAL) LECTIONES quas Episcopus Trecentis consuevit legere in Festis annualibus dum facit Officium, folio, fine illuminated Manuscript on Vellum, containing 68 leaves (15 by $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches, decorated with 19 ivy-leaf borders (the first having in addition the Arms of the Bishop, with figures of Birds and Angels), and with 19 BEAUTIFUL MINIATURES in initial letters, richly illuminated in gold and colours, morocco extra, gilt edges, £40. about A.D. 1420

I have never seen a finer example of French Art as shown in the illuminated books of the Middle Ages. Fragment as it is of a large Pontifical written for some Bishop of Troyes, it exhibits all the best qualities of the School; perfect drawing, combined with the purest taste, and the most elegant style of ornament. Only one of the great unknown masters of Painting can have executed the miniatures with which this splendid volume is enriched.

LECTIONARIUM PRO DOMINICIS ET FESTIS SANCTORUM, sm. folio, illuminated Manuscript on Vellum, written in large Missal Letters by a German Scribe on 225 leaves, ($10\frac{3}{8}$ by $7\frac{3}{8}$ inches) and decorated with 184 historiated Capitals and numerous very curious pictorial Illustrations, including Judgment of Solomon, Crucifixion, Descent of the Holy Ghost, various Martyrdoms, Holy Family, and Man in the Stocks, calf, £55. Sec. xiii

An important and most interesting monument of Old German Art.

The number and variety of illustrations are very remarkable, some of them being curiously grotesque and exhibiting a rich play of fancy. There is a spirited tilting scene, and a powerful composition in which a woodman turns to fly in terror from the tree out of which a viper leaps from the fissure in which his axe is still fixed. There are many such small border pictures as this, all exhibiting a fertile imagination on the part of the miniaturist, and arresting the attention of the observer at least as completely as any work of Cruikshank's pencil. The nationality of the artist is ascertained by the circumstance that in the picture of the Judgment of Solomon and the Baptism of John, High-German inscriptions appear as words uttering from the mouths of the figures.

LEGENDA Sanctæ Bonæ Virginis de Civitate Pisana. Accedit Officium S. Bonæ cum Musica. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, written on 42 leaves, (9 by $6\frac{3}{4}$ inches) with printed Capitals, vellum, £2. 2s

Written in the Monastery at Pisa, about A.D. 1280

A rare hagiological volume, of which there are but few copies in existence. The composition dates from a time not much later than the Saint's own.

On folio 40 is a transcript of the inscription, dated 1208, on the leaden tablet discovered when the body of the Saint was translated from beneath the altar of the old Church of St. Martin to that of the new Church, in the autograph of Fr. Beatus Stephani, as Visitor of the Sisters, dated 14 April, 1363.

In 1422 this MS. belonged to Guteburch, daughter of Heinric Paederzon at Leyden.

MARIE d'AMBOISE, (Vision, ou Pélerinage au parc d'amour divin) sm. 4to. an Allegorical Romance, Manuscript on Vellum, written on 24 leaves ($8\frac{5}{8}$ by 6 inches) and ornamented with 8 Paintings in colours, heightened with gold, (with coat of arms in two of them), apparently containing full length portrait of Marie d'Amboise (niece of the famous Cardinal), who married in 1487 Robert de Sarbruck Count of Brenne, and re-married in 1509 (her first husband having died in 1504) John sixth Lord de Crequy. She died in 1519, aged 47 years: £16. 16s about 1504

There is no title to the book; that which is given above embodies the real substance of the text, which is written in the first person; but does not follow exactly any of the rubricated headings. The first chapter represents the lady as swooning amid sorrows, and receiving celestial visitants; the second is headed "Complaincte de la dame pamee contre fortune."

MISSALE (P GALLICANUM) CUM CALENDARIO, stout sm. folio, Splendid Illuminated Manuscript on Vellum, written by a French Scribe on 465 leaves ($10\frac{1}{4}$ by 7 inches). A beautiful specimen of Calligraphy, with numerous Letters of gold and Capitals in various colours; decorated with two large Paintings (the Crucifixion and the Salvator Mundi) on a gold ground with Mosaics in colours (having at each of the four corners of each painting a small MINIATURE) and also ornamented with 17 BORDERED INITIALS, each historiated with a fine MINIATURE PAINTING, illustrating the lives of CHRIST and of the Saints, all RICHLY ILLUMINATED IN GOLD AND COLOURS, in the best French style; bound in the original oak boards, covered with red leather, and protected by early brass bosses and clasps, £260.

About A.D. 1320

A beautiful specimen of early Art. The two large paintings are almost unique in their way; they form the crowning ornament of the MS. and give it a peculiar attractiveness. The "Salvator Mundi," which is a figure of Christ seated as divinity, in the vesica piscis, forming the ogival centre of a square picture (decorated in its corners with representations of the Evangelists and their Symbols) is a work of rare beauty; which can only have been accomplished by an artist who combined genius and skill with the fervour and earnestness of religious devotion.

In the Proprium Sanctorum, we find a full service for Thomas à Becket's festival, including the hymns and music. St. Louis has several pages devoted to his festival; and a considerable space is also given to St. Gundulfus, from which (as this Saint did not enjoy very wide worship) I imagine the origin of the MS. may be traced. The words of the Marriage Service are given in French.

MISSALE FRATRUM ORDINIS BEATÆ MARIE DE MONTE CARMELI cum Calendario, folio, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, written in double columns on 340 leaves ($14\frac{3}{4}$ by 10 inches), ornamented with 23 historical INITIALS, (containing elegant MINIATURES) and 32 large CAPITALS, richly illuminated in gold and colours, and with numerous smaller Capitals in gold and colours, alternately, the first page decorated with an elegant border, having the Arms of the owner painted in the bottom compartment, brown morocco, super extra, gilt edges, by F. Bedford, £45

Sec. xiv.

Although at first sight this MS. would be taken to be of purely Italian execution, it was nevertheless produced in England; this is evident from the rubricated entry in the Calendar, at April 2, of the festival of St. Richard (with nine Lessons) the Bishop of Chichester, who died in 1255, and was canonized six or seven years later. His name does not appear in any of the foreign Liturgical books, and is only to be found in some copies of the Sarum service. The Italian style apparent in this and other English MSS. of the period, is to be accounted for by supposing that a school of writing was established by the Carmelites—in great measure Italians—who settled in England and fixed their headquarters there, in the thirteenth century.

The Miniatures are fine works of art, in which no trace whatever is visible of the stiff and incorrect drawing of the time; the faces and figures are executed with grace, freedom and high finish.

MISSALE SECUNDUM CONSUETUDINEM ROMANÆ CURIÆ cum Calendario, sm. 4to. SUMPTUOUS MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, ILLUMINATED by an Italian Miniature on 291 leaves ($8\frac{1}{2}$ by 6 inches) and decorated with 5 MINIATURES with elegant BORDERS; and 19 INITIALS with Part Borders, richly illuminated in gold and colours, besides several hundred Capitals, alternately in gold and colours, morocco, super extra, gilt edges, blind tooled in the old style by Hayday, £60.

about A.D. 1420

This beautiful Manuscript appears to have been executed for Cardinal Pietro Morosini (who died in 1424) as there is a cypher (an interlaced P.M.) with Cardinal's Hat, painted in the first beautiful border, and no other Cardinal of the Century bore the same initials; The full-page paintings of the Crucifixion, the Service of the Mass, and the Penitence of David, are examples of Italian art of the best kind.

MISSALE secundum consuetudinem Romane curie, cum Calendario, small 4to. Illuminated Manuscript on Vellum, by an Italian Scribe, written in double columns, on 278 leaves ($7\frac{1}{2}$ by 6 inches) and ornamented with floreated borders, 56 Initials, containing Miniatures and short scrolls, illuminated in gold and colours, and numerous gilt Capitals, with elegant flourishes, calf, gilt edges, £12. 12s

Sec. xv.

Each of the Initial letters in this beautiful volume contains a perfect Miniature, finished with the greatest care and consummate skill. The painting of the Crucifixion which was originally on a separate piece of vellum pasted down at the heading of a page, has been lost.

MONASTIC SYMBOLS AND MONOGRAMS, sm. folio, MS. on paper, so lettered on the back but really containing REBUSES in 305 Drawings executed with remarkable skill and power, with the explanations in very rude French Quatrains at foot, hf. bd. £5. 10s (Louvain, 1568)

The author of the rhymes possessed but a clumsy conversational knowledge of the language, which he twisted into dull prose to serve for the exercise of his metaphorical conceptions and superior artistic powers. The ornamental frames within which the drawings are executed, are engraved from woodblocks. The date and place assigned in the lettering are evidently correct; although they do not appear in the book itself.

The book resembles in some measure the "Devises" of Paradin.

About A.D. 1350

A remarkable volume, whether we consider it as a series of extraordinary Paintings, or as an unknown work of early French poetic literature. The text is entirely devoted to the Virgin, and nearly all of it is in rhyme although not divided into separate lines. It commences as follows:—

Ave en qui sans nul nombre a
Tant de biens que nus nes nombra
Ne nulz ne les pourroit nombrer
Maria en qui sa ombra
Le solail qui desombra

Nous tous que Eve fist a ombrer
Dont ne nous pout desaombrer
Mais Dieu qui se vout ombrer
En qui du tout nous desombra
Mes ton filz nous vout descombrer

The language, in general, seems later than the period of composition, as shown by the occasional use of more archaic phrases, as “tuit li membres de vostre corps.”

The drawings are real works of art; resembling in their grouping and design the composition of the Blockbooks, but infinitely superior in execution. The touch of a master's hand is recognizable in them all.

PETRARCA (FRANCESCO) RIME, sm. folio, elegant Manuscript on Vellum, with illuminated Capitals (several bordered and historiated) executed in gold and colours, written by an Italian Scribe on 198 leaves (9 by 5 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches) and the first page ornamented with an exquisite scroll Border (in which are depicted 6 portraits, Amorini, a Fox, Birds, Flowers, &c.) and an initial V historiated with the Poet's Portrait, richly illuminated in gold and colours by a Florentine Miniature, calf, gilt edges, £24.

A.D. 1487

On the fly-leaf this Deed is announced as the Property of the Convent of Minorites at Barcelona.

It is the republication of the Papal Bull or Letters Patent, cited at large, declaring the constitution of the Order of Minorites under the provincial Generalship of Bernardino de Guaza.

PITT (Dr. Christopher) Poems (Satires, Lyrics, etc.) by the translator of the Æneid, sm. 4to. unpublished autograph MS. of 66 pp. 10s About 1745

PSALMORUM LIBER secundum Usus Monachorum Sancti Michaelis Montis Oliveti Ordinis Benedicti, Manuscript on vellum, by an Italian scribe, with beautiful borders, miniatures, and initial letters, finely illuminated in gold and colours, from the Duke of Roxburghe's library, £300. small 4to. SEC. XV

A chef-d'œuvre of the most exquisite beauty. The finest specimens of French execution are not worthy to take a place even far beneath it; and indeed the Italian schools have produced few works of art to rival this MS.

PSALTERIUM DAVIDIS, cum Calendariis. Accedunt Cantica Biblica, Symbolum S. Athanasii et Litanía. Item Hymni Ordinis Humiliatorum, smallest 4to. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, written on 188 leaves (7 by 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches), and ornamented with 11 Initials, Illuminated in gold and colours, and numerous painted Capitals, all exhibiting a rude imitation of the curious interlacement pattern, bd. £12. Sec. xiii.

The bulk of this volume was written probably in the first part of the thirteenth century, somewhere in the north of Italy, perhaps in the territory of Milan, or a little further to the west. There are two calendars, the second much more amply filled than the first. The Humiliate Hymns, in which the Music is noted, are somewhat later than the rest of the book, being written perhaps about the beginning of the fourteenth century.

PSALTERIUM DAVIDIS cum Calendario. Accedunt Cantica Biblica, Symbolum S. Athanasii, Litanía et Preces, cum Musica, stout 12mo. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, written on 266 leaves (5 by 3 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches) and ornamented with 11 Miniatures (2 large and 9 small) in colours heightened with gold, purple morocco, gilt edges, with chased gilt silver clasp, £40. being coloured upon rude woodcuts, and thus affording one of the earliest known examples of that conjunction of the xylographic art with MS., which doubtless led up to the production of the block books.

The first woodcut bears the inscription, "Ave Maria." From the character of the handwriting in the book, and from some obliterated memorandum at the end, of which some words are still visible, it is evident that the volume was produced in North Germany.

Sec. xv.

The first lines are:—

"Fadyr & Son & Holy Gaste, þat anefald godd es ay stedfaste."

and the last two:—

"I send', he sayd, my mesangeir
Be for' my face my worde to beir."

The continuation is therefore lost. This poem which was composed in Yorkshire about the middle of the fourteenth century seems to be much more rare than the author's Prick of Conscience.

RUA RUIZ DE NAVEDA (Don Pasqual Antonio de la) Chronista y Rey de Armas, CERTIFICACION DE NOBLEZA Y ARMAS DE DON BENITO DE CASTRO Y UTRERA, sm. folio, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, finely executed on 51 leaves (12 by 8½ inches) and beautifully decorated with the full Arms of Castro on one shield, and the separate Quarterings in 4 others, highly emblazoned in gold, silver and colours. It is also ornamented with an elegant full-page Decoration with the Name of Don Pasqual between the Pillars of Hercules, with the impression of the Seal of Charles IV. of Spain at top, a Genealogical Tree, 6 beautiful Initials containing Views in Miniature, and Intitulations, all finely executed in gold and colours, red morocco, gilt edges, £5.

This original Document, with the official Signatures and Seals of Don Pasqual de la Rua, of the 4 Escribanos del Rey and of Don Manuel de Pinedo, the Secretary, is a beautiful Specimen of modern Spanish Calligraphy.

SALOMONIS PARABOLA, ECCLESIASTES, CANTICA CANTICORUM, LIBER SAPIENTIE ET ECCLESIASTICUS cum Commentariis et Glossis, folio, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, written on 228 leaves (10¾ by 7½ inches) with painted Capitals, citron morocco, £8.

Sec. xiii.

A number of marginal notes illustrating the text in the mystico-metaphysical style of the scholastic philosophy has induced a former owner to have the book lettered, "Opera Regis Salomonis cum Caballa."

VANDEN BRANDE (Willem, Prochyaen vant Groot Beghynhof tot Mechelen) SERMONEN, stout sm. 4to. MANUSCRIPT ON PAPER, written in 1566 on 660 leaves (7¾ by 5¾) and ornamented with curious designs in colours and four engravings on copper and wood of very remarkable character, and probably unique impressions, preserved only by being inserted in this volume, £6.

About 1566-68

The engravings form a characteristic feature of this strange volume. On one of them appears the inscription "P. Almaraz fi. fe." The MS. itself is curious as the work of a female artist and calligrapher, whose designs remind one of those in the old blockbooks, although inferior to the latter.

WELSH BARDS (Works of), The Book of the Vaughans (or Vychans) containing pieces by various Poets of the 14th, 15th and 16th centuries, in Welsh, written by a member of that family (perhaps John Wynne ap John Gryffyth Vychan) about 1560; with a continuation by Peter Vaughan, about 1670, comprising various poems of various ages with several Genealogies in prose; and with further continuations, sm. 4to. MS. on paper, 292 pp. dark green morocco extra by Bedford, £12. 1570 (and 1670-1700) the hand which executed the first hundred pages of the above MS. seems to have been that of a poet himself. It is a book which deserves careful examination by Welsh scholars and antiquaries.

The names of the poets in the more ancient part are: John Kent, Iolo Goch, Edward ap Rhys, Dafydd ap Gwiliam, Madoc Benfyras, Gruffydd Gryg, Tudur Aled, Gruffydd ap Ievan ap Llywelyn Vychan, Dafydd ap Edmond, J. Fynglwyd, Je. Vychan, Meredydd ap Rhys, Robyn Ddu, Dafydd Llwyd, Dafydd Nan Mor, etc.

EVANGELIARIUM GRÆCUM, folio, fine ancient MS. on Vellum, in a very old calf binding, rebound, £21. About A.D. 1040

An excellent specimen of Byzantine calligraphy, and precious by reason of its high antiquity. It was probably written before the days of Edward the Confessor, most likely when Canute was on the throne of England. A Greek MS. of such an age, still in good preservation, and only wanting a leaf or two at the end, is rarely to be acquired, and must form an object of admiration in any collection of books.

A well preserved specimen of ancient writing, which would be useful to a student of paleography.

HIERONIMI (S.) TRACTATUS IN MATTHEUM, 4to. fine ancient MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, with the name of the Scribe, in old boards, covered with calf, £12. Sec. XI

The scribe, Bertolfus, records his name in the following sentence: "Indignus alumnus Scs. Marie nomine Bertolfus mo. scripsit he. codice. optans a dno. p. hoc. venire. peccaminu. suoru." (sic.)

On the last page there is a letter from an unnamed "Babbgenis, ecclie. humil. minister," (evidently, from his tone of authority, the Bishop of Bamberg) to "B. Geng. Abbati," in which he refers to his own condition of bondage (servitium), and while he asks for his prayers, orders him not to think "de monte commutando." This is written in the same hand as the rest of the book.

initials pointed and gilt, a specimen of exquisite calligraphy, by an Italian penman, bound in blue morocco extra, gilt edges, by Lewis, from the library of Dr. Hawtrey, £50. About 1470

A copy like this can only have been written for a personage of high distinction. It was such as to hit the nice fastidious taste of those patrician magnates who were at once lovers of art, cultivators of learning, and high bred men of the world.

Maps. SIR FRANCIS DRAKE'S West-Indian Voyage, 1585-6, the five excessively rare Maps. coloured, and in beautiful condition, £50. (London, 1589)

The First Map is a Mappemonde, executed in England, of which only two other copies are known; and shews the "whole course of the viedge." The other four are the same as were used at Leyden, in 1588, in the original Latin edition of the narrative (reissued in English at London in 1589), and even of them, whether as found in the Latin book of 1588 or the English of 1589, only about four complete copies are known. They are all well-executed specimens of engraving and cartography, but the Map of the two Hemispheres which was specially prepared for some copies of the English edition, is geographically the most interesting, as well as the rarest, of all; and there are many students of the history of geographical discovery who would eagerly add it to their collection. But so far as I can ascertain, it is to be found nowhere but in the Grenville copy of the English book (wanting the other four), although it occurred also in an otherwise imperfect copy advertised by Rodd more than forty years ago. It is to be observed that only some copies of the English edition make mention of maps on the title-page; which shews that even in 1589, the impressions taken at Leyden and transmitted to England, of the four original plates, were already limited. The general map, added in England, bears the name of Baptista B., as designer or engraver, [Baptista Boazio is the full name as mentioned on the title of some copies referred to above] but it seems uncertain whether he was the engraver of the four, or only of the fifth map.

at 10s 6d) cloth, 7s 6d

Reprinted, 1870

This work has hitherto been very scarce; B. Q. has reprinted a small edition.

Manx Dictionary: KELLY'S (Dr. John) MANX DICTIONARY, in 2 parts: I. Manx and English; II. English and Manx: Fockleynr Maninagh as Baarlagh, edited by the Rev. W. Gill, 2 vols. in 1, 8vo. viii. and 432 pp. double columns, (pub. 21s) cloth, 15s Douglas, Manx Society, 1866

The Council of the Manx Society repose full confidence in the judgment of the Rev. Mr. Gill. As the authorised Translator of the Acts of Tynwald into Manx, he holds the highest place of authority as to the living Manx language. He has had long experience in preaching, and in the other duties of a Manx Parish Clergyman. As the Editor of their edition of Dr. Kelly's Manx Grammar, he has already placed the Manx Society in his debt. And now, with such coadjutors as Messrs. Clarke and Moseley, Mr. Gill's edition of Dr. Kelly's great work, must command the confidence of all Manxmen, and be an abiding monument of the final stage of the fast-disappearing dialect of the Celtic language, indigenous to the Isle of Man.

Marlborough Gems. Gemmarum Antiquarum Delectus ex

præstantioribus desumptus, quæ in Dactylithecis Ducis Marlburgiensis conservantur, 2 vols. folio, 100 fine engravings by Bartolozzi, from drawings by Cipriani, with descriptions in Latin and French, half morocco, uncut, £7. 10s 1845

Hitherto very scarce and often selling for twenty guineas.

The Collection of Works in Cameo and Intaglio, formed by the third Duke of Marlborough and known as the "Marlborough Gems," has for nearly a century deservedly possessed a wide reputation. To the archæologist, the cabinet at Blenheim has always possessed a singular interest, from its including the collection of gems which had been formed by the famous Earl of Arundel, who, during the troubled time of Charles I., found a solace for the abridgment of his dignities in collecting works of art and monuments of antiquity.

The entire Collection was sold in June, 1875, for £35,750.

The present work is a reimpression of the two splendid volumes, printed and distributed by the third Duke of Marlborough in 1780 and 1791, wherein a hundred of the most remarkable pieces in his Collection are described and figured. Only a limited impression was printed at the expense of the Duke of Marlborough.

This issue is in every respect the same as that of 1781-90; of which Hibbert's copy sold for £71. 8s, and Combe's for £98.

McLennan's Primitive Marriage, under the title:

STUDIES IN ANCIENT HISTORY, comprising a reprint of PRIMITIVE MARRIAGE, an inquiry into the origin of the form of Capture in Marriage Ceremonies, by JOHN FERGUSON McLENNAN, M.A., LL.D., sm. 8vo. xv and 507 pp. cloth, 12s 1876

The subject of primitive marriage is here investigated upon the broadest basis by an eminent jurist, whose clear philosophical mode of treating this great subject has been gratefully acknowledged by the anthropologists and jurists of all countries. The first edition of Mr. McLennan's book was out of print soon after its appearance.

"Habit has made it so natural to think of the union of single pairs in marriage, and of the association of their children, with the addition in Rome and Greece of their slaves, as the 'family,' that most people accept the institution as natural and look on it as of primeval antiquity. We hear of the 'primitive Aryan,' with 'his lawful wife,' in his den, without asking how he came to have a 'lawful wife,' and who sanctioned the solemnization of matrimony. If a few travellers' tales have been reported of more scandalous arrangements, they have been received, from the time of Herodotus, as travellers' tales of no great importance."—Daily News, October 28th, 1876.

This dainty volume, prettily printed and quaintly bound, is a reprint of a very interesting work published in 1865, on the remarkable and universal theory and practice of all known nations, that some "survival" of an original "capture" remains in marriage ceremonies. Mr. McLennan has not merely produced a very learned but even an amusing work, and his elaborate researches into the marriage customs of all tribes and times are full of interest. These early examples of woman's rights or wrongs are well worth reading, and although the subject may seem dry, and the question out of general interest, the book will be found to be a most readable and really valuable work on the status of women in all ages and at all times, and on the curious ceremonies which have been associated with the various forms of marriage all over the world.

Mr. F. Porter Smith, F.R.G.S., Shepton Mallett, writes: "It may interest the reviewers of Mr. McLennan's 'Studies in Ancient History,' to know that there are evidences of primal precedence having been given in China to the female element. The Yin (female) is always placed before the Yang (male) in conversation and in literature. The common phrase designating the two sexes of animals is Pin mau, 'female and male.' This is remarkable in China, where the woman is so entirely ignored."

ANCIENT ARMS AND ARMOUR; A Critical Inquiry into Ancient Armour as it existed in Europe, but particularly in England, from the Norman Conquest to the Reign of Charles II.; with a Glossary by Sir S. R. MEYRICK. New and greatly improved Edition, corrected throughout by the Author, with the assistance of ALBERT WAY and others, illustrated by more than 100 Plates, splendidly illuminated in gold and silver: also an additional Plate of the Tournament of Locks and Keys, 3 vols. impl. 4to. (pub. £21.) hf. morocco extra, gilt edges, 1844

"While the splendour of the decorations of this work is well calculated to excite curiosity, the novel character of its contents, the very curious extracts from the rare MSS. in which it abounds, and the pleasing manner in which the author's antiquarian researches are prosecuted, will tempt many who take up the book in idleness to peruse it with care. No previous work can be compared, in point of extent, arrangement, science, or utility, with the one now in question. 1st. It for the first time supplies to our Schools of Art correct and ascertained data for costume, in its noblest and most important branch—historical painting. 2nd. It affords a simple, clear, and most conclusive elucidation of a great number of passages in our great dramatic poets—aye, and in the works of those of Greek and Rome—against which commentators and scholiasts have been trying their wits for centuries. 3rd. It throws a flood of light upon the manners, usages, and sports of our ancestors, from the time of the Anglo-Saxons down to the reign of Charles the Second. And, lastly, it at once removes a vast number of idle traditions and ingenious fables, which one compiler of history, copying from another, has succeeded in transmitting through the lapse of four or five hundred years."—Edinburgh Review.

* * * The first edition of this work, published in 1824, was printed without the supervision of Sir Samuel Meyrick, who always repudiated it as full of faults, especially in the colouring. Every leaf and plate of the present edition was submitted to his correction, and it was published with his entire approval.

Meyrick's Engraved Illustrations of Ancient

ARMS AND ARMOUR; a Series of 154 very highly finished Etchings of the Collection at Goodrich Court, Herefordshire; engraved by JOSEPH SKELTON, and accompanied by historical and critical disquisitions by the possessor, SIR SAMUEL RUSH MEYRICK, LL.D., &c. 2 vols. imp. 4to. with portrait, (pub. at £11. 11s) hf. bound morocco extra, richly gilt back and gilt edges (uniform with the preceding work), £4. 14s 6d 1854

"We should imagine that the possessors of Dr. Meyrick's former great work would eagerly add Mr. Skelton's as a suitable illustration. Indeed, they are essential companions. In the first they have the History of Arms and Armour; in the second work engravings of all the details."

A VALUABLE ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT OF THE 17TH CENTURY:

"The Missal" of Estevao Gonçalves, faithfully copied by means of Chromo-Lithography, and dedicated to His Majesty DOM FERDINAND II. of Portugal.

The Missal will be delivered to Subscribers in twelve Parts, each part £1. 13s 4d—The Missal complete, £20. After closing the Subscription, the price will be raised to £26. Parts I-VI are now ready.

The most admirable and perfect specimens in miniature adorn every page of this Missal, a work so beautifully and artistically wrought, that it has deservedly gained for its author the most distinguished rank among the Miniature Painters of the early part of the 17th Century.

Too much praise cannot be given to Estevão Gonçalves, whose rich and delicate illumination of this Missal is considered a Masterpiece of Art, and which any nation would reckon with pleasure amongst its proudest monuments.

Every one who has attentively examined this Missal, has been much surprised at the marvellous beauty and astonishing variety of the colouring, and the superb Miniatures with which it is ornamented. Several artists, whose opinions on such matters are unquestionable, have declared it to be the best illuminated work that ever existed.

Celebrated writers, who have described the works of Portuguese painters, speak of it in the highest terms, and unanimously assert that Estevão Gonçalves was an artist of the first class, whose work well deserves the praise it has so justly obtained.

Manual of the Arch  ology of Art, new edition by Welcker, translated by J. Leitch, 8vo. 644 pp. (pub. at 18s) cloth, 7s 6d 1852

"Criticism on this substantive work is unnecessary. Like the author's 'Dorians,' and 'Mythology,' it has taken its place among the best classical interpretations produced by the Modern German school of inquiry. In its own especial line of investigation we have nothing approaching it for accuracy of research and subtlety of appreciation. It is not only an invaluable manual to the reader of Greek history, and the student of Greek art, but a readable and interesting book for every one. Not only is M  ller's great work now worthily rendered into English, but with the elucidation of Mr. Leitch, and the additions of Herr Welcker, this is the best and most complete edition yet published."

Murphy's Arabian Antiquities of SPAIN, IN 100 VERY HIGHLY FINISHED LINE ENGRAVINGS, by J. and H. Courts, Halls, and Domes; Baths, Fountains, Wells, and Cisterns; Inscriptions in Cufic and Asiatic Characters; Porcelain and Enamel Mosaics; Paintings, Ornaments, &c. &c. from Drawings made on the Spot by James Cavanah Murphy; ACCOMPANIED BY LETTER-PRESS DESCRIPTIONS, atlas folio, ORIGINAL AND BRILLIANT IMPRESSIONS OF THE PLATES, (PUBLISHED AT £42.) russsia, £7. 7s London, 1813

In attestation of the extreme accuracy of these engravings, the publisher was favoured with a strong confirmatory opinion from one of the most distinguished scholars and travellers of the present day, who has compared them some years since on the spot.

"The most splendid work of any period connected with that interesting kingdom, Spain, is Mr. Murphy's magnificent folio devoted to its Moorish Antiquities—a work beyond all price, if the brilliancy and beauty of the plates be considered.

"For nobleness of design, splendour of execution, and richness of materials, this costly volume is, in every respect, a match for the mighty French work on the Antiquities of Egypt. As the expenses of the publication were enormous (upwards of Ten Thousand Pounds) the price of the volume is necessarily large in proportion;—yet where is the man of virtu, with pistoles in his purse, who will not hasten to secure such a treasure? If the day be dull, or the night be long, let these 'Antiquities of the Arabs in Spain,' be a constant, as they will be a cheering companion."—Bibliomania

Contents: Vol. I, Palæozoic and Secondary Rocks: Silurian Rocks of Scandinavia and Russia; the Devonian, Carboniferous, Permian, Oolitic and Cretaceous Systems; the Ural Mountain and Timan Range, and superficial Deposits of Russia; Views, plates of Corals and 7 maps.

Vol. II, Paléontologie: Animaux, Radiaires, Annélides, Mollusques, 50 plates.

Six hundred copies were originally produced, of which the smaller remainder has now come into the market. All Public Libraries should secure a copy, as this work must necessarily become scarce and rise in price.

Murchison ranks among the founders of Geology, and though in later years his name has been more prominently with Geography, it is as a Geologist alone that he must be known to posterity. In 1841, Murchison surveyed the whole of the Ural Mountains, under the auspices of the Emperor and with the assistance of Count Keyserling and De Verneuil, the results of which survey appeared in 1845, in the magnificent work entitled "Geology of Russia and the Ural Mountains."—Geikie.

MAMMALS, with a copious synonymic List of Species, stout 4to. 103 coloured plates and maps, shewing the geographical distribution of each separate family, pub. £3. 3s; cloth, 30s 1866

"A book of such solid and sterling merit that we feel no apology to be due to our reader, for bringing to their notice what cannot now be called a new publication. The great breadth of view adopted by the writer for his inquiry, the extent of his reading and research, and the width together with the caution of his generalizations, would remind us of that patient and persistent toil which we associate in general with the plodding genius of Germany, were it not for that more calm and wary tone of speculation which marks the less imaginative intellect of the North Briton. The hardy fibre of his national temperament is well displayed in his laborious heaping together of the results of wide travel and exploration, as well as in the shrewd, methodical, and well-sustained conclusions which he proceeds to build up on these data. It is no small credit to him to have succeeded in producing a work at once so full and comprehensive in its treatment of these multifarious heads of inquiry, and so clear and readable as regards its method, its argument, and its style."—Sat. Review, 28th Nov. 1868.

Mansions of England in the Olden Time, FOUR SERIES COMPLETE, consisting of 104 large and tinted lithographic drawings of existing Buildings and their interiors, depicting the most characteristic Features of the Domestic Architecture of the Tudor Age, and illustrating the Customs, Habits, and Recreations of our Ancestors, with descriptions, 4 vols. impl. folio, slightly water-stained, hf. morocco, £16. 16s 1839-49

— the same, 4 vols. impl. folio, fine clean copy, half morocco, £18. 18s 1839-49

"Nash's Mansions" has always been considered one of the most beautiful and attractive works ever published, and has met with a proportionate success.

Buyers of this work should be very careful to select an original copy; the later impressions are very bad.

Nash (Tho.) Have with you to Saffron-Walden, or Gabriel Harvey's Hunt is up, containing a full answer to the eldest sonne of the Halter-maker, or Nashe his confutation of the sinfull Doctor, 4to. red morocco, gilt edges, with the arms of Utterson on the sides, sold 1596

VERY RARE.—This is the chief work that appeared in the course of the celebrated dispute between Nash and Gabriel Harvey. Even now Nash's abuse can be read with as much pleasure as one would feel in perusing the scandalous gossip of the Greville memoirs; and at the same time yield a delight no modern polemic could afford, by the inexhaustible power and freshness with which the full tide of language and conceit is poured forth in it.

This very interesting work contains the most complete account of the great naval war, comprising elaborate details of the engagements, copies of the despatches, memoirs of Admirals, anecdotes, sketches, &c. It is indispensable to any naval library.

This work has a great strong Transatlantic interest. Many of the engagements chronicled took place in American waters, and it contains the biographies of such men as Vancouver, Anson, and others, who were explorers as well as naval officers.

"The art of printing was introduced into Norwich by Antony de Solempne, one of the strangers from the Low Countries who were encouraged to settle there by Q. Elizabeth, but the productions of this early press which, perhaps, did not continue long at work, are of the utmost rarity . . . Herbert had evidently never seen a specimen . . . England, with all her boasted libraries, has never yet been able to furnish a volume from the press of this Father of Norwich Typography."—Dr. Cotton's Topogr. Gazetteer (1831). The present book was unknown to Dr. Cotton who enumerates four volumes from the Norwich press, existing among the books of Archbishop Usher, in Trinity Coll. Dublin: a New Test., a Calendar, a vol. of Sermons, and a translation of the Psalms, all in Dutch. Nor did either Lowndes or Bohn know of its existence. A copy of the Psalms bound up with the Calendar fetched £96. at Sir W. Tite's sale in 1874, but I cannot trace a single copy of the "Chronyc" ever sold by auction in England.

"Towards the end of August, 1863, an unusually large hoard of coins, numbering in all no less than 13,500 pieces of silver, was found in the Protected State of Kooch Bahar, in Northern Bengal.

"This accumulation, so singular in its numerical amount is not the less remarkable in the details of its component elements. . . . It may be said to embrace compactly the records of ten kings, ten mint cities, and to represent 107 years of the annals of the country."

Numismata Orientalia. CATALOGUE of the COLLECTION of ORI-

ENTAL COINS belonging to COL. GUTHRIE; Coins of the AMAWI KHALIFEHS, by S. L. POOLE, 8vo. 5 plates, representing nearly 50 Coins, sewed, 2s Privately printed, Hertford, 1874

— the same, 8vo. cloth, 2s 6d 1874

— the same, LARGE PAPER, sm. 4to. cloth, 7s 6d 1874

"The coins of the Khalifehs of the House of Umayyeh possess an interest peculiarly their own. Unlike those of the 'Abbāsīs, historically they are of little value. But it is not from the historian's standpoint that we should view them. Their true worth lies in their being the first purely Moham-madan coinage that was issued by the Arabs."

The catalogue contains "some thirty or forty unpublished coins. The series which it describes is scarcely, if at all, inferior to the corresponding portion in the British Museum, and an estimate may be formed of the rarities contained in it by reference to the list of Inedited coins at the end."

Such a remarkable series of plates, accompanied by a competent introduction from the pen of Mr. Gilbert, must arouse surprise in many minds and help to modify existing notions on the subject of old Irish history. Here are specimens from the Domnach Airgid, a MS. of the fifth century, which there is fair evidence to show belonged to St. Patrick; two from the Cathach Psalter of St. Columba, sixth century; one from an ancient Gospel-book of the fifth-sixth century; two from the Book of Durrow, sixth century; eleven from the Book of Kells, VI-IX century; four from MSS. of the 7th Century; eight from MSS. of the 9th; fifteen from MSS. of the 10th, 11th and 12th. Many of these are interesting, not only as early biblical texts of rare Latin versions, but as palæographical monuments of the highest value; others as exhibiting ancient special mens of Gaelic, written at a time when the appearance of vulgar languages in MSS. was of extraordinary occurrence; and several as the finest and oldest examples of a magnificent style of Decoration peculiar at first to Ireland, but which was carried soon afterwards by Irish missionaries to England and the Continent, to form a new School of Art.

Map of England and Scotland (Author unknown)

in the Bodleian Library (probable date about 1300), a photozincographed facsimile, made under the superintendence of Sir H. James and Lieut.-Col. Parsons, 26 $\frac{1}{2}$ by 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ ins. with a description of 4 pp. folio, by W. B. Sanders, 3s 6d Southampton Office, 1875

"The ancient map of England and Scotland, of which the above is a facsimile in everything but size, belongs to the Bodleian Library, to which it appears to have been bequeathed by the eminent antiquarian, Richard Gough. I cannot fix the date of its having been made, but from internal evidence it may be assumed to be of the period of Edward I; though Gough in his 'British Topography' says that in 1768 it was shown to the Society of Antiquaries by Mr. Martin, who supposed it to be of the time of Edward III. This map Gough purchased at a sale of Martin's Manuscripts in 1774; and at page 77 of the first volume of his Topography he gives an engraving made of it by Basire, which he illustrates by copious remarks."

Calcutta, 1849

As a Bibliography of the historical materials of Moslem India, the student of Oriental Literature will find this volume exceedingly useful. It is not superseded by Prof. Dowson's valuable recasting of the author's materials, inasmuch as the bibliographical character has been altered and the work assumes the form of a History. Further in the latter, the extracts in Arabic, amounting to over 90 pages in Sir H. Elliot's original publication, are omitted. An additional recommendation is the low price, which places within the reach of every scholar a valuable literary manual.

SHAHRASTANI (Abū 'l-Fath Muhammad). Kitabu Milal wa Nihal: Book of the Religious and Philosophical Sects, in Arabic, edited by Cureton, 2 vols. in 1, sd. 30s 1842-6

This great work, an exposition of the doctrines of many creeds, was composed A.H. 521, and is one of the most valuable productions of Arabic literature. Its high importance at the present time, when the study of old creeds and mythologies is so universal, may be estimated from an abridgment of the contents. It comprises an account of the Mussulmans and all their numerous sects; the Jews; Christians and their sects; Magi, Zoroastrians, Manichæans, and other claimants of revealed religion; Sabæans; the Hermetic philosophy; the Greek Philosophers and their schools, from Thales to Porphyry; the system of Muhammadan doctors, especially Avicenna; the pre-Islamite religion of Arabia; Brahminism, Buddhism, and the other religions of India, concluding with an account of Hindu philosophers.

- COREA.—To the Editor of the Times.—Sir,—In the current number of the Edinburgh Review there is an article on "Corea," in which I find it stated (p. 300) that "with the exception of some scanty notices collected by the earlier Jesuit missionaries in China, and by writers such as Koempfer and Siebold in Japan, no published accounts of the geography or constitution of the Korean kingdom are in existence." I have met with similar statements elsewhere. I should be obliged, therefore, if you would permit me to call attention through your columns to a work written by a Japanese author, Rinsifee, in 1786, called San Kokf Tsou Ran To Sets, or "A History of the Three Kingdoms," viz., Corea, Yezo, and Loo-choo. This work has been translated into French by Klapproth, and is to be found among the publications of the Oriental Translation Fund.
- In 1856, after visiting Corea, I found Rinsifee's book of great use in drawing up a paper on the subject, which I read before the Hong-kong branch of the Royal Asiatic Society.

- HAJIKHALFÆ Lexicon Encyclopædium et Bibliographicum, editit G. FLUEGEL, 7 vols. impl. 4to. LARGE PAPER, cloth, £5. 5s 1835-54
- This work is, without comparison, the most useful of all the Fund publications. It stands in the same relation to Oriental Literature as Watt's Bibliotheca and Graesse's Tresor do to that of the Western World. The arrangement is alphabetic, according to the names of the works, (an Index of Authors being added at the end), and comprises descriptions of above 15,000 books in Arabic, Persian, and Turkish; with statements of the date when the writers flourished, and many other useful particulars.

44. Laili and Majnun, a Poem, from the Persian of Nazâmi, by Atkinson, 8vo. pp. viii and 127, cloth, 7s 6d 1836
- The story of the Frantic Lover and the Night-Black Beauty, is one of the favourite fictions of the East. Many poems have been written to celebrate it, but the best and most famous of them all is the work of Abu Muhammad Nizam ud-Din of Gandja, called Nizami, who died A. H. 599. There is hardly one greater name than his in the poetical Fasti of Persia, "and Hafiz thus speaks of him:—
'Not all the treasured store of ancient days Can boast the sweetness of Nizami's lays.'"
- The manner in which the translation is executed, in graceful English verse somewhat in the style of Lalla Rookh, bears out the high reputation of Mr. Atkinson as an elegant English writer and an accomplished Persian scholar.

nexion with Max Müller's philosophic history, as an illustrative work superior to whatever else has yet been achieved. We possess the Vaidik Hymns translated in literal fashion by Wilson, Langlois, Max Müller; the admirable fragments from the Mahābhārata and the Rāmāyana by Dean Milman; the Sacontala by Sir William Jones, and some versions from the pen of Professor Wilson. But most of those productions are rather scholarly labours than spirited poetical transcripts; and the reader who wishes to gain some knowledge of the riches of Sanscrit Poesy, in its whole extent, must peruse Mr. Griffith's work. Its selections are made with taste, and in chronological order; the translations are at once faithful and vigorous; and the poetic beauty of the originals is worthily transfused into English metre and rhyme. There are three translations from the Vedic hymns, three from the Manava-dharma-sastra, one from the Rāmāyana, five from the Mahābhārata, two from Calidasa's dramas, one from his poem on Sumraer, one from the Nalodaya, and one from the Gita Govinda; followed by an Essay on the Figures of Indian Poetical Rhetoric.

AUDUBON'S BIRDS OF AMERICA, from Drawings made in the United States and their Territories, 7 vols. impl. 8vo. 500 COLOURED plates, £30. New York, 1861

Audubon is celebrated for the truth and accuracy of his descriptions, and chiefly for the vigour and life-like character of his drawings. To those naturalists and collectors who have not room in their library for the magnificent work as it was originally issued by the author (and which is now worth £200.) this handsome edition will be found very useful. To each species there is a full description, and the illustrations are beautifully executed by Bowen from the author's own drawings. They possess all the animation which characterises the plates in the larger edition, of which they are reduced copies.

Of this extremely beautiful work only one HUNDRED COPIES were printed for the subscribers, and no more copies remain for sale. Exotic Ornithology [South American], by Sclater and SALVIN, complete in 13 parts, impl. 4to. 100 superbly coloured plates of hitherto UNDESCRIBED and UNFIGURED Birds, (Subscription price £13. 13s) £12. 12s 1866-69

—the same, LARGE PAPER, imperial folio, 13 parts, complete, 100 beautifully coloured plates, subscription price, £27. 6s 1866-69

Under this title has been completed a series of 100 COLOURED LITHOGRAPHIC ILLUSTRATIONS of NEW, or hitherto UNFIGURED BIRDS, to form a SUPPLEMENT to BUFFON'S Planches Éclaircies, Paris, 1770-86; to TEMMINCK'S Planches Coloriées, 5 vols. Paris, 1838; and to DES MURS, Iconographie Ornithologique, Paris, 1845-49.

Although it was originally intended by the Authors that the subjects for illustration in this work should be selected from the many new ornithic forms which the exertions of modern collectors have recently brought to light in nearly every part of the world's surface, particularly the tropics, it was found, as the work progressed, that it would be more convenient in this first series to restrict it to the birds of the neotropical region, i.e. AMERICA south of the United States.

FIFTEEN copies have been printed on LARGE PAPER, royal folio, to match the Large Paper issues of Temminck and Des Murs. The subscription price of these copies, is, each part, £2. 2s.

"We must still consider the 'Birds of Australia' to be, on the whole, the most remarkable of the magnificent series of works for which the name of John Gould must ever remain famous in the annals of our science. The special journey to the Antipodes, undertaken for the collection of materials, the number and importance of new forms and new facts thus brought to light, and the complete novelty of the whole subject rendered the 'Birds of Australia' one of the most extraordinary works ever produced by the unassisted efforts of a private individual."

Rowley (G. D.) Ornithological Miscellany,

Part I, No. 1, royal 4to. 6 COLOURED PLATES BY KEULEMANS, 15s 1875

— the same Part II, coloured plates, £1. 1875

— the same, Part III, 10 coloured plates, roy. 4to. sd. 15s 1876

— the same, Part V, 11 plates, (10 coloured), sd. £1. 1876

Mr. Rowley's publication has for its object to advance the science. It will become a scarce book as the author does not intend to sell all his copies. The illustrations are of the best kind.

Part I. relates to the Birds of New Zealand, containing four specimens of Apteryx, forming a valuable contribution on the subject.

Part II. contains BRITISH BIRDS, their migrations, etc. Illustrations of Whittlesea Mere, the lost Huntingdonshire Lake.

Part III. Falco Tinnunculus by Rowley; Trichoglossus Arfaki, by Rowley; Trichoglossus Pulchellus, by Dr. O. Finsch; Subfamily Nasikriniæ, by Rowley; Nasiterna Gilvinkiana and its allies, by Dr. O. Finsch; Psittacus Erithacus, by Rowley; Tanyptera Riedeli, by Rowley; Dendroica Chrysoparia, by O. Salvin; Falco Labradorus, by H. E. Dresser; A Revision of the Family Indicatoriæ, by R. Bowdler Sharpe.

Part IV. Falconry, by Rowley; Critical Notes of Procellariæ, by O. Salvin; Migration of Birds to N.E. Russia, by H. Seebohn; Notes on Procellariæ, by O. Salvin; Birds of the Fiji Islands, by Rowley; Ammomanes Deserti, by Rowley; On the distribution of Barn-Owls, by R. Bowdler Sharpe.

Part V. On the Geographical Distribution of Barn Owls, by R. B. Sharpe; Birds of the Fiji Islands, by Rowley (continued); Species of Hypsipetes inhabiting Madagascar, by Newton; Trichoglossus Arfaki, by Rowley; Machærihynchus Nigripetecus, by Rowley; Trichoglossus Musshenbroekii, by Finsch; Circus Ægrinosus, Brighton Buntings, Zonotrichia Albicollis, Hirundo Rustica (continued), Coturnix Dactylisonans, Chen Albatrus, Thalassidroma Bullockii, by Rowley.

In the Text, under the Swallow, Mr. Rowley has given a dissertation on Avine Migration, a subject much-discussed now among Scientists.

— the same, impl. 4to. hf. red morocco extra, gilt top, £17. 17s 1850

This beautiful book, containing many rare and hitherto unknown birds, recommends itself to the Scientific Ornithologist, not only by the value of its text, but by the order and accuracy of its illustrations. The plates of the order Accipitres (and some others) are drawn by Wolf, and have all the fidelity to nature, characterising the work of that celebrated ornithological draftsman. To the student of ornithology this work has hitherto been almost inaccessible, as only a few copies came to England, and they have been absorbed into a few public Libraries, and those of wealthy collectors.

This beautiful work may be fairly stated to be unpublished, as very few copies were ever distributed, and those chiefly as presents by the late Proprietor. The accurate knowledge of the late Mr. Ottley in this peculiar department of the Fine Arts is here displayed.  Now ready, a very carefully prepared issue, in every respect the same as the original edition, of

OWEN JONES'S ALHAMBRA,

PLANS, ELEVATIONS, and SECTIONS OF THE ALHAMBRA, with the elaborate details of this beautiful specimen of MOORISH ARCHITECTURE, minutely displayed in 102 beautifully engraved plates, 67 of which are highly finished in gold and colours, from Drawings taken on the spot, by JULES GOURY and OWEN JONES, with a complete translation of the Arabic Inscriptions, and an historical notice of the Kings of Granada, by P. DE GAYANGOS, 2 vols. atlas folio, (pub. at £24.) hf. red morocco, gilt edges, £16. 16s 1842-45
 — the same, LARGE PAPER, colombier folio, the chromolithographed plates in colours, the same as those on small paper, but the copper-plates printed on INDIA PAPER, (pub. at £36.) hf. bd. morocco, gilt edges, £21. 1842-45

This is without exception one of the most sumptuous works ever executed in any country, but its high price has hitherto kept it out of the hands of all but the wealthy. It is of equal interest to the Amateur, the Architect, the Sculptor and the Decorator, for nothing can exceed the number, variety, and beauty, of the Ornaments and Details. It is accompanied by a complete Translation, by Pasqual de Gayangos, of the Arabic Inscriptions, and an historical notice of the Kings of Granada from the Conquest of that City by the Arabs to the Expulsion of the Moors.

"The Alhambra still exists—one of the most recent of European ruins. It is the most perfect in repair and the richest in design, and is still one of the most wonderful productions of Eastern splendour."

"Of the eighth century charters those dated 759 and 778 will be studied in the facsimiles with peculiar interest as being in characters strongly resembling those of certain ancient and finely written biblical manuscripts of these islands, such as the Latin Gospels known as the Book of

selection of the 48 CHOICEST PLATES of this superb work, executed with the greatest care in gold and colours, the exact facsimile of the original MSS. Illuminations, red morocco, gilt edges, £80.

It is almost impossible to believe that such beautiful Works of Ornamental Art as the Frankish and Early French MSS. could have been so accurately reproduced as it has been done here under Count Bastard's direction.

The colouring of the plates has cost, in most cases, 100 francs per plate;
in fact, every plate has all the appearance of a highly finished Miniature.

As is well known, when the patronage of King Louis Philippe was withdrawn the work remained unfinished.

price of £600. is asked.

Exhibition of 1851 as the choicest portion of the book.

☞ Official Descriptive and Illustrated Catalogue of the Great Exhibition of the Industry of all Nations, 1851, page 1258:—No. 1717, De Bastard, Count Auguste, 95, Rue St. Dominique, Paris, producer, (Agent in London, C. de Bosson, 26, Percy Street, Rathbone Place). Collection of writings, paintings, and ornaments of the illuminated French manuscripts, from the time of Clovis to the accession of the Bourbons. Greek-Byzantine paintings, from the ninth to the fourteenth century. German paintings, from the tenth to the thirteenth century. Roman, Merovingian, Carolingian, Lombardic, and Saxon writings of the fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth centuries. Carolingian, Capetian, and German paintings of the eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, and sixteenth centuries. The expense of the publication of this unique work has amounted to £80,000. sterling. It was undertaken by the exhibitor to elucidate the history of art in Greece, France, and Germany, during the early period when paintings were only found in manuscripts.

Giles du Guez, or Dewes, composed his work about 1532, as "an Introductorie for to lerne to speke Frenche trewly," printed by J. Godfray. It is also of the utmost scarcity. See Introduction.

NIZAMI, Makhzanu 'l-Asrar: Treasury of Secrets, a Poem by Nizami, in Persian, edited by Bland, roy. 8vo. sd, 7s 6d 1844

Nizami, a more ancient poet than Jami, is at least equally famous and eminent. There may be less embellishment in his language, but it is probably of greater philological interest.

TUCKER (W. T.) English and Persian Pocket
Dictionary, sm. 8vo. cloth, 5s 1850

AIYIN AKBARI, the Insitutes of the Emperor Akbar, (DOMESDAY BOOK OF INDIA) compiled by his Prime Minister ABU L-FAZL, in Persian, royal folio, MAGNIFICENT MANUSCRIPT, written within borders of gold and ornamented with THREE LARGE PAINTINGS, in the original Oriental binding, £21. Sec. xviii

*. Probably the finest copy of the book ever offered for sale. The paintings, which occupy two whole pages at the beginning, represent Akbar and his court on one side, with incidents of the collection of these records on the other, and in the third which is near the end of the work, various military weapons and engines are depicted. The statistical tables throughout this enormous volume are very numerous and elaborate.

ANWAR SOHEELY, a version of Pilpay's Fables in Persian, 2 vols. in 1, 8vo. lithographed to imitate a MS. half russia, 7s Bombay, 1834

ANVARI SUHELI, the Persian Version of the Fables of Bidpai, by Huzain Vaiz Kashifi, edited by Ouseley, 4to. hf. russia, 52s; or, russia extra, 36s Hertford, 1851

BAKHITAR NAMEH, the Story of Prince Bakh-tyar and the ten Viziers, Persian and English, by Sir W. Ouseley, 8vo. hf. calf. 25s 1801

DESATIR, or sacred writings of the ancient Persian Prophets (Abad, Jemshid, Zirtusht, etc.) original text, Ancient Persian Version, (with Commentary and Glossary), and English translation by Mulla Firuz bin Kaus, 2 vols. in 1, large 8vo. hf. bd. gilt top, uncult, £2. 10s Bombay, 1818

Although the "original text" may be, as has been considered by some, a fraudulent fabrication, yet the value of the so-called old Persian translation and of the commentary cannot be denied.

FIRDUSI (Abul Kasim) SHAH NAMEH, an heroic Poem, containing the History of Persia from Kiomers to Yerdejird, in Persian, folio, beautiful illuminated Manuscript, written within borders of gold, and ORNAMENTED with 4 unwans, the first having magnificent borders, and 65 ELEGANT DRAWINGS executed in brilliant colours, heightened with gold, by a native artist, in the original elegantly enamelled and painted Persian binding, enclosed in a morocco English case, £36. Sec. xviii

The vividness of the colouring, the variety and number of the paintings, makes this a MS. exceptionally desirable, both as a copy of one of the world's great books and as a specimen of modern Oriental Art. There is but one objectionable illustration in the volume; it is that which represents the Princess Tahmina with the hero Rustum, engaged in the fabrication of Sohrab, whose future fate it was to fall by the hand of his father.

FERDUSI (Robinson's) Sketch of Ferdusi's Life and Writings (with translated extracts from the Shah Nama), 16mo. 126 pp. sd. 2s 6d 1876

The initials S. R. are attached to the prefaces of a series of little books on Persian Classics, which are not sufficiently well-known, but which offer to the English reader a better and truer picture of the poetic literature of Iran than any other translations that have appeared.

FERISHTA. History of the Mohammedan Power in India from the Ghaznevide Invasion to the year 1612, with an introduction concerning the anterior History and Chronology of the Hindus, in Persian, edited by J. BRIGGS, and Mir Khairat Ali Khan Mushtak, 2 vols. folio, lithographed, a few leaves stained, hf. bd. £2. 15s Bombay, 1832

This beautiful edition of one of the most important historical works of the East is quite equal to the finest MS. as a specimen of calligraphy: while in correctness of text, it is superior to any.

FORBES' Persian Grammar, roy. 8vo. cloth, 8s 1869

HAFIZ, select Odes, Persian in native and Roman characters, with English translation, by J. Nott, 4to. hf. calf, 5s 1787

INDO-PERSIAN CALLIGRAPHY. Forty-two specimens of beautiful writing, consisting of Persian texts, executed on 21 thick leaves of paper, large folio size, by various Masters of the Art, richly illuminated and bordered, including a few lines of Shikasta character in the autograph of the Moghal Emperor 'Alamgir; in the original native binding, rebacked, £7. 10s 1690-1705

This magnificent collection of ornamental scription, by the most perfect artists of the Moghal court, forms a truly royal book. The lavish use of gold in the borders and backgrounds, as well as in the margins which are powdered with it, makes an appropriately brilliant frame-work to the beautiful characters which occupy the middle of the pages.

542 pp. and 10 plates, sd. 7s 6d Firenze, 1868
An interesting book on the Commerce and Banking of Florence in the 14th century, by the late Commendatore Peruzzi, uncle of the present Sindaco of Florence, who was at the feast given by the Lord Mayor of London to the mayors of foreign cities. The Peruzzi and Bardi were the great bankers of Florence in the 13th and 14th centuries, till ruined by the effects of the great plague of 1348 and by the non-payment of the debts due to them by Edward III. of England—their ledgers are preserved in the Riccardiana Library at Florence, and have furnished the facts detailed by the Commendatore in this volume. But there is much matter illustrative of the arts and domestic and civic life of the time.

Ces magnifiques cartes marines ont été peintes en Italie, en or, en argent et couleurs, et richement ornementées; les blasons et les pavillons des différents pays ont été délicatement peints en miniature; les noms des villes, îles, etc. en beaux caractères gothiques, ont été écrits en rouge et noir. Ce manuscrit est resplendissant d'or. On remarque sur la Bretagne le pavillon aux hermines.

hf. bd. gilt top, uncut, new, 7s 6d 1873

This is a highly interesting volume, the matter of which is drawn chiefly from classical sources. What readers have never felt a desire to know how far the East and West were acquainted with each other during the best days of the Roman Empire, and what was the state of opinion mutually entertained by the Græco-Latins and the people of Further Asia? This curiosity finds ample gratification in the pages of Mr. Priaulx's work, bristling with notes and quotations from the obscurest as well as the best-known authors.

Prichard's Natural History of Man;

comprising Inquiries into the Modifying Influences of Physical and Moral Agencies on the different Tribes of the Human Family, fourth edition, revised and enlarged by EDWIN NORRIS, of the Royal Asiatic Society, 2 vols. royal 8vo. with 62 coloured plates, engraved on steel, and 100 engravings on wood, cloth, now getting scarce, £1. 10s 1855

This is the GREAT TEXT BOOK OF ETHNOLOGISTS. The remarkable series of coloured plates accompanying this work forms a complete Pictorial Gallery of every variety of the Human Race scattered over the Globe. Advocates of the "One Pair Theory" will find no corroboration of their doctrines in the facts set forth in Dr. Prichard's learned work. However, if we cannot call all the Races of the World "brothers," we may surely treat them as "friends," and make ourselves acquainted with their leading physical and mental characteristics.

P. de Leucho, 1511

VERY RARE. It is three years later than the Roman edition with Ruysch's map which contained the first delineation of America. The map of the world, which comes last in the above volume, represents the New World in an extremely curious way. Brazil, a large tract, is called Terra Sanctæ Crucis, the Orinoco and Amazon are both laid down with tolerable correctness, and the upper outline of the continent bears the words, "Canibula romon." The continuity is broken by the margin in consequence of the peculiar plan of the map, so that Cuba and Hispaniola appear next above near their proper places; and far beyond them, at the same degree of latitude as Ireland, an unfinished shore bearing the words "Regalis Domus," indicates the northern continent, while Labrador (Terra Laboratoris) is respected as an island off the coast. What makes this Atlas of most importance is that every map in it embodies an original design, by an accomplished geographer, who laboured to reform the science according to the newest lights. It is also remarkable for the manner in which the names are printed on the maps—this having been done by types after the woodcut had been worked off. This is the first instance in which such a method of operation was ever adopted.

The edition is rendered more complete in this copy by having the Treatise "de locis mirabilibus mundi" added to it from a copy of the Ptolemy of Rome, 1490.

Basil. Petrus, 1542

The parent edition of a new series of Ptolemies, Munster, the famous cosmographer, edited it in 1540 (two years later being issued with a new date) re-designing the maps, according to the lights of fresh discovery, and thenceforward each new edition has followed or improved upon his work. In the first Map—Typus Universalis—the continent of America is divided into three parts; Francisca (Canada); Terra Florida, Temistitan (i.e. Mexico) which is broken off from Florida by the circumference line of the circle, and consequently appears on the extreme right in the Asiatic half of the globe; and America seu insula Brasiliæ (South America). Maps 2-28 contain the series of Ptolemy's ancient maps, as designed by Münster. The vellum copy has not maps 1 and 2 in this series, or map 2 of the modern world, of which the seventeenth contains the Novus Orbis, that is, North and South America, extending from Labrador to Terra del Fuego. Naturally great portion of the outline is conjectural and there are no details.

The first edition published in France in any way worthy of the famous works it contains, and the one which the amateur still prefers, uniting it to the 4to. Rabelais and Molière. It is moreover unfrequently met with. The vigour and spirit of De Sève's designs, combined with their boldness of execution, are now perhaps more appreciated than at any former time. The above copy is one especially desirable, in fine condition with brilliant impressions, open letters, of the portrait, engravings, and numerous beautiful vignettes.

THE FRESCOES OF RAPHAEL drawn from the originals in the VATICAN by N. CONSONI under the direction of L. GRUNER, oblong royal folio, 52 beautiful large lithographic plates, printed in tints, hf. bound, cloth sides, gilt edges, £3. 3s

The complete Edition of this Work, consisting of copies of the celebrated Frescoes of Raphael, from the Originals in the Corridor of the Vatican, called "La Loggia di Rafaële," is now offered to the English public. The ENTIRE SERIES OF FIFTY-TWO FRESCOES is here represented;—a Selection only of Forty plates having been previously issued.

The Prints have been prepared under Mr. Gruner's superintendence by Sigr. N. Consoni, one of the most distinguished draughtsmen in Rome, and no pains have been spared to exhibit in them the grand simplicity of the Originals. The large size of the Plates has enabled the Artist to give the broad outlines of the Originals without omitting the finer lines which so peculiarly characterize them. The Prints have been lithographed, in such a style, however, as to resemble Engravings on wood, in order to avoid the greatly increased expense which the latter would have involved; but any disadvantages connected with this have been more than counterbalanced by the greater power which, on the plan adopted, the Artist has been enabled himself to exercise over the Plates.

Real's Story of the Stick in all Ages and

New York, 1875

A philosophical history and lively chronicle of the stick as the friend and foe of man; its uses and abuses, as sceptre and as crook; as the warrior's weapon and the wizard's wand; as stay, as stimulus, and as scourge.

It pleases M. Réal to regard the stick as the great civiliser, the emblem of dominion, the first distinguishing mark between man and the lower animals. The stick enabled Adam when ejected from Paradise to rule the beasts of the field. The rods of Moses and of Aaron were the insignia of power; the thyrsus of Bacchus and the caduceus of Mercury merely divine forms of the stick—subsequently modified into the sceptre, the episcopal staff or cozier, the bâton of a marshal or of a chef-d'orchestre, and the wand of harlequin.

Lady Charlotte Guest's Mabinogion: LARGE
PAPER, 3 vols. imperial 8vo. facsimiles and woodcuts, brown morocco extra, gilt edges by Bedford, £15. 15s 1838-49

The last Large Paper copy.

This valuable work has hitherto been extremely rare; a few copies have been discovered in Mr. Rees' stock, hence the reduction in price. Lovers of Celtic Literature should hasten to secure it, as the stock is nearly sold, and the price will soon return to the late high figure.

"I hold every literature to be valuable, which springs from the heart of a people, and is connected with their warmest feelings; and I am inclined to believe, that there must be some particular charm in that literature, which has found such grace in ladies' eyes, as to attract those of one (Lady Charlotte Guest,) who is surrounded by so many other objects to court her attention, and to spend a part of their lustre, in tracing the characters of half-faded manuscripts, in order to reproduce them for our instruction and amusement, in the most elegant form; and I may surely venture to say, that if the Elzevirs, and Bodonis, and Didots, must hide their diminished heads before our Llandovery Printer, we may challenge a comparison with all the learned ladies, who have adorned the literature of Europe, for her, whose works his labours have contributed to embellish."—Dr. Thirlwall, Bishop of St. David's.

"I cannot quote the Mabinogion, without expressing a grateful sense of the obligations Lady Charlotte Guest has conferred upon all lovers of our early literature, in her invaluable edition and translation of that interesting collection of British Romances."—Sir E. Bulwer Lytton.

"Three circumstances conspire to render Lady Charlotte Guest's publication of The Mabinogion one of the most extraordinary productions of the day. 1st. The intrinsic merit of the Tales themselves, whether considered with reference to the light thrown by them on the manners, habits, and mythologies of the ancient Welsh, or as mere literary compositions—in which latter respect they may assuredly take rank with the best of their class in any country. 2nd. From the fact of an English Lady, born to rank, and nurtured in all the refinements and accomplishments of her age, devoting herself to, and successfully achieving a task which Celtic scholars, learned in antiquities, and imbued with all the nationality and enthusiasm for which they have ever been proverbial, had, for generations, shrunk from in despair—namely, the translation and illustration of these strange and mysterious fictions; and, thirdly, the circumstance of the printing press of a hitherto obscure Welsh town, 200 miles from London, being able to produce a work, which, for typographical elegance, may challenge comparison with the very choicest specimens of metropolitan art."—The Cheltenham Looker-On.

Very few copies remain for sale.

This work is the first attempt towards collecting and preserving all that now remains of the Ancient Language of Cornwall, which is supposed to have been that Dialect of the Celto-British that was once spoken throughout the central and southern divisions of England, by the original inhabitants, who ultimately coalesced with the Anglo-Saxons, an event which has in a considerable degree influenced the formation of the English Language. This is also the first time that the six Celtic Dialects have been carefully examined and analysed, and the result is no less curious than interesting. Besides the cognate languages above mentioned, illustrations are added from the Sanskrit, Greek, Latin, and Germanic Languages.

The far greater number of these Articles have appeared in the pages of the "HAUL," of which Periodical the Author has been one

Schulz, the influence of Welsh Tradition upon the Literature of Germany, France, and Scandinavia, which obtained the Prize of Eighty Guineas at the Abergavenny Eisteddfod 1840: translated from the German of Albert Schulz, Author of the Life of Wolfram von Eschenbach, etc. By Mrs. Berrington, 8vo. (sells 6s) stiff wrapper, 3s 6d 1841

"Albert Schulz has undertaken in this Essay to explain the circumstances which rendered the cycle of the Romances of the Round Table so popular throughout Europe, that they may be said to have become naturalized in almost every part of Christendom. He has conducted the investigation with great zeal and ability. This work is highly creditable to the translator."—Athenæum.

"A Work like the present, coming as it does, from a learned foreigner, ought to remove some of the sneering doubts, which so many affect to entertain as to the real merits of the ancient literature of Wales."—Archæologia Cambrensis.

Stephens (Thomas) The Literature of the

KYMRY; being a critical Essay on the history of the LANGUAGE and LITERATURE of WALES, from the time of Gruffydd ab Kynan and Meilir, (A.D. 1030) to that of Sir Gruffydd Llwyd and Gwilym Ddu, (A.D. 1322;) containing numerous specimens of Ancient Welsh Poetry, accompanied with literal English Translations. Thick 8vo. xii. and 512 pp. cloth, 7s 6d 1849

Few copies remain for sale.

"This work is the learned and able production which obtained the Prince of Wales's Prize at the Abergavenny Eisteddfod, October 11, 1848, on the award of the Venerable Archdeacon Williams; and seldom, indeed, has a prize been more deservedly obtained. In literary and historical merit it comes into the same class with the work of Professor Rees on the 'Welsh Saints,'—with Mr. Williams's 'Ecclesiastical Antiquities of the Cymry,' and other standard books of our national collections. It contains a large fund of literary lore, and ought to be well examined by all Welsh Antiquaries. It is just the kind of book to obtain much celebrity among continental scholars, and we gladly profit by this opportunity of recommending it to the careful notice of our Brethren in Brittany."—Archæologia Cambrensis.

Williams's Enwogion Cymru. A BIOGRAPHICAL

"This work is highly useful in elucidating the History of the Principality, and will be a book of reference on the subject. The Author draws his information from sources of the best authority, many of them not lying within the reach of the ordinary reader; and, while he has condensed his information in a clear forcible manner, he preserves at the same time, great freedom and elegance of diction.

"It is a Work which ought to be on the table of every Cambrian Antiquary."—Archæologia Cambrensis.

Liber Landavensis; or Ancient Register of the Cathedral Church of Llandaff, edited with English Translations and Notes; by W. J. REES, royal 8vo. nearly 700 pp. facsimiles of ancient MSS. cloth, £2. 2s 1840

"The Liber Landavensis is the ancient Chartulary or Register Book of the Cathedral of Llandaff, in which are recorded memoirs of its most eminent prelates, grants of endowments, and other particulars respecting the Church and Diocese. It was compiled in the early part of the twelfth century from older materials, and is one of the most valuable authorities we possess for the antiquity of the British Churches; as such it well deserved the attention of the Society for the Publication of Ancient Welsh MSS., and is an auspicious commencement of their literary career."—Athenæum.

Heraldic Visitations of Wales, and the Marches, in the time of Queen Elizabeth and James I. by Lewis Dwnn, Deputy Herald at Arms for Wales: from original Manuscripts, together with an Introduction, and numerous explanatory notes; Edited by SIR SAMUEL RUSH MEYRICK, 2 vols. impl. 4to. facsimiles, pedigrees and coats of arms, NOW OUT OF PRINT AND VERY RARE, cloth, £12. 12s 1846

Heraldic Visitations of Wales and the Marches, Vol. II, impl. 4to. facsimiles and autographs, cloth, £5. 1846

These volumes are most important and interesting to the ancient Families of the Principality, and to those who claim a Welsh descent; as they embody an inexhaustible stock of genealogical History from the earliest ages to the time of James I., and in many instances the descents are, in the notes, continued to the present representatives.

"The work is one of those standard books of reference without which the Welsh antiquary can hardly prosecute his genealogical researches."—Archæologia Cambrensis.

Dosparth Edeyrn Dafod Aur: or THE ANCIENT WELSH GRAMMAR, compiled in the thirteenth century, by Edeyrn the Golden Tongued, by command, and at the desire of Llywelyn Ap Gruffudd, Prince of Wales; Rhys Vychan, Lord of Dynevo and Vstrad Towy; and Morgan Vychan, Lord Paramount of Morganwg; and which received the sanction of a National Jury. With an English translation, and copious notes. Edited by J. WILLIAMS AB ITHEL, thick 8vo. cxxvii and 350 pp. cloth, 20s 1855

The Editorial Notes, in a smaller type, are incorporated in the Text of Edeyrn, with the view of supplying deficiencies, and rendering the work complete as a practical Grammar of the Cymraeg from the 6th century to the present day. It consists of Four main parts: 1. Orthography; 2. Parts of speech; 3. Syntax; 4. Prosody. Under the last head, in addition to the rules furnished by Edeyrn, are given also the numerous and interesting regulations relative to poetic compositions which are to be found in "Y Puml Llyfr Kerddwriaeth," a MS. work of rare merit, which is printed entire in its original form. Altogether, it is expected that this will prove the standard Grammar of the Welsh language, calculated as it will be to aid in the composition of modern Cymraeg, and to unravel the peculiar structure of the ancient and mediæval literature.

Barddas; or Bardism, a COLLECTION OF ORIGINAL

DOCUMENTS, illustrative of the Theology, discipline and usages, of the Bardo-Druidic System of the Isle of Britain, with translations and notes, by J. WILLIAMS AB ITHEL, Vol. I. all published, thick 8vo. xxxv. and 425 pp.—a portion of the second volume, containing "Privilege and Usage," pp. 9-168, being all ever printed—together 2 vols. 8vo. cloth, 20s 1862-72

The curious matter brought to light for the first time in this volume, cannot fail to attract the particular attention of scholars, and to open a new and interesting era in the History of Welsh Literature. The Welsh and English Text are placed opposite each other, an arrangement more convenient for the Scholar, who may wish to test the accuracy of the translation by a reference to the original.

The portion of the unfinished second volume described above, was discovered during the

M. HENRI MARTIN writes to the Athenæum, April 24, 1875: "Il est bien regrettable que le tome 2e, qui contiendra des pièces très singulières se fasse si long-temps attendre." As will be seen by the above a good fragment of the second volume is for sale, no more will ever be published.

Meddygon Myddvai; or the PHYSICIANS OF MYDDVAI; being a compendium of the medical practice of the celebrated Rhiwallon and his sons, Cadwgan, Gruffydd, and Einion, of Myddvai, in Caermarthen-shire, physicians to Rhys Gryg, Lord of Dynevor and Ystrad Towy, son of Gruffydd Ap Rhys, the last prince of South Wales, about the year 1230; from various Ancient MSS. in the libraries of Jesus College, Oxford, Llanover, and Tonn; accompanied by an English translation. To which is prefixed the curious legend of the Lady of the Lake, called Llyn-y-van, from whom the above physicians were said to be descended. And a copious Herbal, edited by J. WILLIAMS AB ITHEL, M.A., and translated by JOHN PUGHE, thick 8vo. xxx and 470 pp. cloth, published at 21s, reduced to 10s 1862

"Rhys Gryg was the son of Rhys ab Gruffydd, prince of South Wales, and lived in the former part of the 13th century. He was a distinguished warrior, and fought with various success in the wars which were carried on in Wales almost without intermission during his life. According to old usage he had his domestic Physician, namely Rhiwallon, who was assisted by his three sons, Cadwgan, Gruffydd, and Einion, from a place called Myddvai, in the present county of Caermarthen, whose rights and privileges, as enjoined by law, were worthily maintained and upheld by him. Under his patronage these men made a collection of valuable medicinal recipes applicable to the various disorders to which the human body was then subject. But though this collection bears their name, we are not to suppose that all the prescriptions contained therein were the result of the studies and experience of the Physicians of Myddvai. Some no doubt had been in the materia medica of Wales long before; a few indeed may be traced up to the time of Howel the Good, if not to the sixth century. Such, however, do not seem to have been reduced to writing, until the Physicians of Myddvai took the matter in hand, and produced the work which is now for the first time printed. The original manuscript is supposed to be one lately transferred from the library of the Welsh Charity School in London, to the British Museum. Of this there are several copies; the one adopted as the basis of the present volume is from the Red Book, in Jesus College, Oxford, which was carefully collated by the Rev. Robert Owen, B.D., Fellow of the said College, with a transcript made by the late Mr. Saunders, from Mr. Rees of Tonn's copy; which MS. was moreover copied about 1766, by William Bona, of Llanpumsaint, from another belonging to Iago ap Dewi of Llanllawddog.

"A knowledge of medicine was preserved in the descendants of this family, and they continued to practice as Physicians at Myddvai without intermission until the middle of the last century.

"The second portion of this volume purports to have been compiled by Howel the Physician, son of Rhys, son of Llewelyn, son of Philip the Physician, a lineal descendant of Einion, the son of Rhiwallon, from the Books of the first Physicians of Myddvai. William Bona made a transcript from the Book of John Jones, Physician, of Myddvai, the last lineal descendant of the family, A.D. 1743. The late Iolo Morganwg took a copy of this MS. in 1801, and it is his copy that forms the text of our volume."

COELBREN Y BEIRDD, or Ancient Bardic Alphabet, by Taliesin Williams, (Ab Iolo) 8vo. sd. 3s 6d 1840
“The COELBREN Y BEIRDD implies a system of alphabetical writing, which is alleged to have been in use among the old bards. Its peculiarities consist of the form of the letters, and their being always cut on wooden tablets. These tablets being constructed of small square rods, placed in a frame like bars in a grating, and turning on their axles, were to present in front any square that might be required—the letters being cut in these squares, each of which contain one line of poetry.

Rodwell's Koran. The Koran, commonly called the Alcoran of Mahommed, re-arranged and translated into English, with Notes by J. M. Rodwell, M.A., 1 vol. demy 8vo. new and carefully corrected edition, cloth, 12s 1876

The Koran as arranged in the authentic Arabic MSS. is a sad jumble of the original composition of Mahommed, made some years after his death by order of Abu Bekr. Mr. Rodwell has re-arranged all the Surahs chronologically, so as to form one perfect work, showing the growth and progression of the doctrines of the Prophet.

Readers who would be unable to wade through other versions, will peruse Rodwell's, with pleasure and satisfaction.

"The arrangement of the Suras in this translation is based upon the traditions of the Muhammadans themselves, upon the ancient chronological list given by Weil in his 'Mohammed der Prophet,' as well as upon a consideration of the subject-matter of each separate Sura and its probable connection with the sequence of events in the life of Muhammad. The text, as hitherto arranged, necessarily assumes the form of a most unreadable and incongruous patchwork; 'un assemblage,' says M. Kasinirski in his Preface, 'informe et incohérent de préceptes moraux, religieux, civils et politiques, mêlés d'exhortations, de promesses, et de menaces'—and conveys no idea whatever of the development and growth of any plan in the mind of the founder of Islam, or of the circumstances by which he was surrounded and influenced."—Preface.

Sale's translation is based upon the Latin version of Maracci. But with reference to the text from Maracci translated, Flügel says, "Maraccius in lectionibus receptis fere nunquam sibi constitit, sexcenties verba perperam expressit ut versioni ejus . . . majus pretium statuendum mihi videatur, quam verbis textus arabicus." Pref. p. vi. i.e. "Maracci is inconsistent in the readings which he has adopted, and has made hundreds of mistakes in rendering even these, &c." So that Sale's version may be fairly said in the judgment of Flügel to be based upon the faulty version of a faulty text.

Dr. Rodwell's translation of the Coran has at length (after fifteen years) reached a second edition. Its merits are too well known to need commendation at our hands, and the chronological arrangement of the Suras (founded upon Nöldeke's researches), though it cannot be accepted as final, is a distinctive feature of great importance and value. As the basis of further investigations, such an arrangement had become almost necessary; and it is remarkable that Dr. Rodwell has not seen cause to make any important alterations in this respect in the second edition.

Paris pour Jan Bonfons, s. d. (cir. 1540)

This romance belongs to the Charlemagne series, although not to the "Douze Pairs de France," all but one of these original twelve having been "slain at Ronceval," while Huon's adventures relate to a later period of the Emperor's reign. It is excessively rare in whatever form; as besides the French editions, there are only an English version and a Flemish one. Of these latter, the English exists in two editions, (1530) and 1601, only one copy of the first being known to exist, and only one copy of the second having come into the public market for sale. Of the Flemish one, there is but a single edition, the existence of which has only recently become known. The book was never translated into Spanish, Italian, or German. The original poem in the langue d'oïl, and the date of the prose romance, are referred to in these words at the end: "Le quel livre et hystoire a este mis de rime en prose. . . . l'an 1454." It is from Huon, that poetical literature, especially English, and the opera, have derived the graceful character of Oberon, King of the Fairies.

LE FEVRE (Raoul) Recueil des Hystoires Troyennes (Roman de Chevalerie en Prose) small folio, numerous woodcuts, slightly wormed, otherwise a fine copy in olive morocco extra, gilt edges, by C. Levis, £55.

Lyon, Michel Topie et Jacques Herenberch, 1490
Second edition of the first book printed in the French language. It is moreover one of the rarest of the old French Romances, and very curious for its numerous engravings on wood. This is one of the few copies which bears the names of the Printers, these names not being included in the Colophon, but placed by the side of the Printer's Device. The Yemeniz copy sold for £63.

NEUF PREUX (Les) sm. folio, eleven large woodcuts of the author and the heroes, numerous woodcut initials, and woodcut on title; very fine copy in blue morocco, gilt edges, by Derome, with the arms of the Duke of Roxburghe in gold on sides, £36.

Paris, par Michel Le Noir, 1507
Extremely rare. This very copy fetched £38. in Miss Currier's sale in 1862,—a sum equivalent to £50. at the present day. Another sold for 1450 francs in Paris, in 1805.
The Nine Worthies are extended to ten, by the addition of a life of Bertrand du Guesclin at the end. The others are:—Joshua, David, Judas Macabeus, Alexander, Hector, Julius Caesar, Arthur, Charlemagne, and Godfrey of Bouillon. The Legend of Hector is not the Homeric one, but that from the popular mediæval story of Troy, in which

Achilles is represented as a base coward who slays by treachery the noble Trojan champion, the very flower of chivalry. The narrative of Bertrand du Guesclin's Adventures given in this volume, is the first work upon his life that we know of (excepting only the poem by Cuvelier). After the lapse of a century his glory had grown to such an extent that no hero of romance stood higher in the popular mind, and he ranked as the Tenth Worthly of the world. His life is not merely an amplification of Froissart's History, but an independent Chronicle of Chivalry.

Paris, N. Bonfons, 1583

Looking Glass on London Bridge, (1720)
THE MOST DELECTABLE HISTORY of REYNARD THE FOX, to which may now be added a Second Part; as also the (Third Part) Shifts of Reynardine, the son of Reynard the Fox, or a pleasant history of his life and death, 3 vols. in 1, sm. 4to. 79 rude woodcuts signed E. B. (Edward Brewster) red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £10. 10 1701-1681-84

The English text of Reynard the Fox was first published by Caxton in a translation from the Dutch. It soon became popular in England, and many editions were printed. The additional parts do not appear in any earlier English edition than the above. They are original works, but fitly supplement the genuine Reynard of the first part.

The present is a remarkably fine copy.

VALENTINE AND ORSON, the two sons of the Emperour of Greece, newly corrected and amended, with new pictures, lively expressing the history, sm. 4to. black letter, with frontispiece and other curious woodcuts, a cropped copy so short that some letters at the bottom of title and a few other pages defective, calf, RARE, £4. 4s Printed by A. Purslow for T. Passinger, (? 1675 or 1682

— Another edition, bearing exactly the same title as the preceding, sm. 4to. Roman Letter, with the same woodcuts, as in the edition by Purslow, calf extra, gilt edges by F. Bedford, scarce, £5. 5s

A. M. for E. Tracy on London Bridge, n.d.
Tracy succeeded Passinger (perhaps not immediately, about 1690) in his business and shop at the "Three Bibles" on London Bridge, where numerous Romances of Chivalry were issued in the form of chap books to the hawkers, who conveyed them throughout the three kingdoms.

The text is a modernised edition of the old translation, made by Henry Watson for Winkin de Worde.

This celebrated work of Rudbeck on Scandinavian antiquities and Early History, with special reference to Sweden, is the corner-stone in the erection of a Northern Library. Its great rarity, however, renders it a literary curiosity. The copies of the extremely scarce third volume were burnt at the great fire at Upsala, 1702, with the exception of a very few previously distributed. The above has the book-plate of E. Finch, Earl of Winchelsea and Nottingham, and does not contain the dedication and preliminary leaves, or the Index. The printing of the fourth volume was stopped by the same fire, which destroyed not only all which had been completed, except two or three copies now in public libraries, but put a stop to its further execution. It is only within the last few years that a photo-lithographic facsimile has rendered the volume accessible to collectors.

The above copy has the facsimile edition of the 4th vol., which contains Notes on Rudbeck, added by the Librarian of the Royal Library at Stockholm. This gentleman, Herr G. E. Klemming, an accomplished scholar, who has devoted himself to enriching the magnificent collection of Swedish books he has under his care, shows the utmost courtesy to Englishmen visiting him, and takes great pains to enable them to form an idea of the extent and excellence of the library.

Niort, 1875

A treasury of old words, usages and customs, proverbs, etymologies, etc. with which nothing as yet existing in French philological literature can be compared. Duange's Glossary of old French is the only other complete attempt of the kind, but cannot in any way rival the work of Ste. Palaye. Roquefort's Glossary is confined to a special period, and Lacombe's is but a trifling handbook; while the grand lexicon of Littré is an historical Dictionary of the modern language.

It is now many years since even an imperfect copy of this highly valuable work occurred for sale; and it would be difficult to point to any occasion upon which a copy so fine, large, sound, and complete as the above, has been seen in the market. This is to be said with a slight reservation, as the fourth preliminary leaf, (the third of the Indexes, containing a list of Judges' Circuits) is absent, a defect of no significance whatever,—especially as only one leaf of Index has been usually found. The importance and value of this First Atlas of England cannot be overrated; and we may expect to find the copies which may at long intervals turn up in future, selling easily for a hundred pounds and over.

Basel, 1876

This handsome quarto volume on "small-arms," with their history and progress, technical and historical, fully given, is one of the most important works ever yet produced on the various stages of the progress of "guns." Herr Schmidt, with German perseverance, has looked up every detail, and with French taste has illustrated every detail of construction in 400 coloured "drawings done to scale." Everybody who visits the splendid Small-arms Museum recently presented to our town will be greatly interested in this excellent book. All the details of the growth of the gun from the match-lock, and wheel-lock, and flint-lock, down to the endless varieties of the breech-loaders of our day, will be found in these pages. The chromo-lithographs, all of the best class, will be intelligible even where French is unknown, while the literary matter describing the plates is extremely valuable, and can be found nowhere else. Everybody in the gun trade, and everybody who cares to know how many varieties there are, and which is the best, will procure this elaborate and invaluable work. It is practical as well as historical, for it gives the latest patents, and is the most complete account of modern "portable arms"—guns, locks, bayonets, bullets, &c. &c.—ever yet given to the world.—Birmingham Daily Post, Nov. 17th, 1876.

Illumination as practised during the Middle Ages, folio, LARGE PAPER, 16 large separate plates of Miniatures, with Initial Letters and Ornaments, all executed in facsimile after the designs of illuminated MSS. in the very finest style of wood-engraving, (pub. at £5. 5s) hf. morocco, gilt top, uncut, £4. 4s 1866

The taste with which the examples that adorn this beautiful book were selected, is quite equalled by the rare knowledge displayed in the accompanying text, as well as by the execution of the illustrations, which may be looked upon as the very perfection of the Art of Wood-Engraving. Such beauty and delicacy of workmanship have never before been seen; and the result is perhaps superior to that of the best engravings upon metal, the effect even of colour being produced by it. This is an important matter in a work on the Art of Illumination.

In the Press, A

NEW ORNITHOLOGICAL WORK, BY MR. BOWDLER SHARPE,

Will be completed in 6 parts, with 12 coloured plates, three parts are now ready.

THE BIRDS OF SOUTH AFRICA,

BY

E. L. LAYARD, F.Z.S., &c., H. B. M. CONSUL AT THE

THOROUGHLY REVISED AND AUGMENTED BY

R. BOWDLER SHARPE, F.L.S., F.Z.S., &c., &c.,

ASSISTANT IN THE ZOOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT, BRITISH MUSEUM.

The first edition of Mr. Layard's work on the 'Birds of South Africa' has long been exhausted, and before leaving England for Fiji he entrusted all his MSS. to Mr. Sharpe, to bring out a second edition of the work. Notwithstanding the success of the first edition, which was written in South Africa, and which has done more to advance the Ornithology of a country than any other work ever written (Jerdon's 'Birds of India' excepted), the Editor has been compelled to alter the plan of the work, and to extend the boundaries of the country treated of. This is more in accordance with the original idea of the author, who had intended to write a regular work on the whole of the South African Birds, but limited his northern boundary to the 28th parallel of latitude in deference to his friend, Mr. Andersson, who was going to publish a large work on the Birds occurring north of that boundary. In the new edition, therefore, Mr. Sharpe proposes to include all the species found in South Africa between the Cape Colony and Benguela on the west, and the Zambesi on the east coast, this country forming his Subregio capensis and having natural boundaries. As far as is possible this work will be made a companion volume to Captain Shelley's 'Birds of Egypt,' and will be illustrated by twelve plates by Mr. Keulemans.

Subscriptions (£2. 2s) should be sent at once to the publisher, BERNARD QUARITCH, 15 Piccadilly, W.

Silvestre, Paléographie Universelle. J. B. SILVESTRE, accompagnée d'explications historiques et descriptives, par M. M. CHAMPOLLION-FIGEAC ET AIMÉ CHAMPOLLION, 4 vols. atlas folio, original edition, with 296 magnificent plates, containing specimens of every style of Calligraphy and Facsimiles of the Miniatures, many of them splendidly illuminated, Paris, Didot, 1839-41 to which is added:—

Silvestre, Alphabet Album, ou Collection de 60 feuilles d'Alphabets, historiés et fleuronnés, tirés des plus beaux MSS. de l'Europe ou composés par J. B. Silvestre, LARGE PAPER, atlas folio, 60 plates of Alphabets —together 5 vols. atlas folio, hf. purple morocco extra, gilt edges, very fine copy, £96. Paris, 1830-41

The best work on the manuscript Literature of ancient and Mediæval times. The finest possible specimens are given of MSS. in every European and Oriental Language; of such Languages as GREEK and LATIN many Specimens of every century and every style are represented. The number of reproductions of ITALIAN, FRENCH, and GERMAN MINIATURES is very considerable.

In consequence of the demand upon the Continent for copies with the FRENCH TEXT, this edition has become VERY RARE. A few plates in the second copy are inlaid, otherwise it is a fine and perfect copy of one of the grandest works ever published. The publication was carried on under the auspices of Louis Philippe, at the expense of nearly twenty thousand pounds.

Silvestre's Universal Paleography; or a Collection of Facsimiles of the Writings of every Age; taken from the most authentic Manuscripts existing in the Libraries of France, Italy, Germany and England, containing UPWARDS OF 300 LARGE AND MOST BEAUTIFULLY EXECUTED FACSIMILES, TAKEN FROM MISSALS AND OTHER MSS., RICHLY ILLUMINATED IN THE FINEST STYLE OF ART, new and improved edition, arranged under the direction of Sir FREDERICK MADDEN, Keeper of the MSS. in the British Museum, 2 vols. atlas folio, elegantly half bound morocco extra, gilt edges, £31. 10s 1850

This is, perhaps, the finest book in the world, and the most interesting to the scholar and the man of taste. Three hundred facsimiles, of the choicest Manuscripts in Europe, need no other recommendation than to state the fact. The work cost nearly twenty thousand pounds in getting up, and the expense was chiefly defrayed by His Majesty the late Louis Philippe, who subscribed at the outset for sixty copies, at about £75. each.

— THE HISTORICAL AND DESCRIPTIVE LETTERPRESS to the Preceding Work, by CHAMPOLLION FIGEAC and CHAMPOLLION, Jun. translated into English, with considerable additions and corrections, by Sir FREDERICK MADDEN, 2 vols. royal 8vo. half morocco extra, gilt edges, (uniform with the folio work), £2. 8s 1850

These Descriptive Volumes, containing a great deal of general information on the subject of ancient manuscripts, may be studied independently of the work to which they are an accessory.

The first part of this valuable work contains an important contribution by Mr. Skene to the History of the Literature, the Country and the language of Wales. Then follow the text of the poems in the precise orthography of the MSS. and very accurately printed, and a faithful and impartial translation by D. S. Evans and Robert Williams, two distinguished Welsh scholars.

This important work will almost certainly remain for a long period of time the standard authority upon the subject with which it deals. No one has studied the ethnological history of Britain to better purpose than Mr. Skene, and whether his conclusions be universally adopted (as they ought to be) or not, no one can deny the enthralling interest of his theme and the ability with which he treats it.

larity. Their attraction consists in the ludicrous treatment of a trivial subject, and the ease of the versification in which difficult rhymes are most ingeniously built up. It seems likely that Richard Smith, secondary of the Compter, renowned as one of the earliest English book-collectors, was the author of this amusing though coarse production.

— Parts XLI and XLII, wanting to many copies, sold separately, with coloured plates, each 6s

This beautiful and carefully executed work stopped short at part XLII; the intention of the authors to make an arrangement and Index was therefore never fulfilled. Upon the stock and coppers becoming my property, I had an Alphabetical Index and titles printed, and further, the plates, with their descriptive letter-press, arranged by the binder in numerical order, thereby rendering the work easy of reference. A few copies of my Index were printed in excess, and possessors of unarranged copies may purchase it for 2s 6d.

This work is indispensable to all Shell Collectors, and the Figures (drawn and engraved by Sowerby) are superior to all others. It includes DESCRIPTIONS of the Distinguishing Characters of each GENUS, Land, Fresh Water, Marine, and also the STRATA, in which the Fossil Species occur.

Sowerby's Grasses of Great Britain, roy. 8vo.

This is the most comprehensive work on British Grasses, and is the only book which gives the magnified organ to enable the reader to recognise the various grasses.

Priced, 1847, £18. 18s and £21. Mr. Quaritch having bought the remaining stock, the coppers, and the copyright of the above, has been enabled to complete a few copies; the book has hitherto been unattainable, except at a very high price.

THE SUPPLEMENT TO

Sowerby's Mineral Conchology, royal 8vo. text, including the Alphabetical Index to the whole work, by J. D. C. SOWERBY, and plates, 610 to 648, completing the work, in parts, as originally issued, (sells £4. 4s) £3. 1840-46

These valuable Supplements have hitherto been out of print and very rare. Mr. QUARITCH having become the proprietor of the Stock and Copyrights, has been enabled to make up a limited number of copies: Possessors of incomplete sets of these books, therefore, should make immediate application for the Supplements, which will soon be bought up.

GRAPHIA QUE TRATA DE TODAS LAS PARTIDAS Y PROUINCIAS DEL MUNDO : EN ESPECIAL DE DAS INDIAS, y trata largamente del arte del marear : juntamente con la espera en romance : con el regimiento del sol y del norte : nuevamente hecha, folio, FIRST EDITION, four or five lines erased with ink in a passage concerning African idolatry, short copy in the original vellum wrapper, OF EXTREME RARITY, sold

Sevilla, por Jacobo Croberger, 1519

THE FIRST BOOK PRINTED IN SPANISH RELATING TO AMERICA. The author describes himself as "Alguazil mayor de la Tierra firme de las Indias Occidentales," and gives in the first place a summary of general Geography, followed by a closely detailed account of the West Indies, the mainland of South America, and of the northern coast of Labrador so far as then known. His own experience during twenty years enabled him to satisfy the curiosity of the young King Charles I. of Spain, soon afterwards Charles V. of the Empire, completely so far as regarded the Islands and the coasts of the southern mainland. He mentions in his dedication a map of the world that he had constructed to accompany the text and elucidate it for the king. This valuable document was never published, but it perhaps exists still in the archives of Spain. The first hint which the invaders seem to have had of the civilisation existing in Mexico and Peru is to be found on the second-last page where Enciso states : "Tambien ay tierra a donde los indios dicen que ay gente que tienen libros y que escriven y leen como nosotros." Enciso is stated in the Bibl. Amer. Vetust. to have gone out with Bastidas (who left Spain in 1501), but the authority quoted is Herrera, Dec. I, lib. 7, which is not correct. Herrera at that place refers only to Enciso as assisting in Ojeda's expedition to the mainland in 1509. He commences to speak of him thus, and it is the first mention of his name in the Decades : "Hallabase entonces en Santo Domingo un letrado llamado Martin Fernandez de Enciso que havia ganado à abogar dos mil castellanos que eran mas en aquel tiempo que aora diez mil." The profitable nature of a lawyer's business amongst the early invaders may from this be readily imagined. It is not improbable that Enciso may have been the only one of them who really deserved the name of letrado. He afterwards received severe treatment from Vasco Nuñez and returned to Spain in 1512 to seek for redress which was granted him in a royal decree against Nuñez, who was then engaged in his great expedition of traversing the Isthmus. Enciso went out again in 1514 as Alguazil Mayor with Pedrarias Davila the Governor of Darien. He was again in Spain in 1529, as we find that he had Pizarro arrested in Seville in that year for debt. (Herrera, dec. IV, p. 104).

When sent by Davila on an expedition to the mouth of the river Zenu, about half-way between Cartagena and the Gulf of Darien, in the year 1515, the Bachiller Enciso had a very curious conversation with two of the Indian chiefs whom he required to make submission to the Spanish King, and he records it with such remarkable faithfulness and literality, in spite of the scandal and the Inquisition, that it must be supposed he was struck by the good sense and forcible character of the observations he heard. The remark about the Pope is omitted by Herrera, who perhaps was prudent in doing so.

En lo que dezia que no avia sino un Dios que este governava el cielo y la tierra y que era señor de todo que les parecia bien y que assi devia ser ; pero que en lo que dezia que el Papa era señor de todo el universo, en lugar de Dios, y que el avia fecho merced de aquella tierra al rey de Castilla, dixeron que el Papa deviera estar borracho quando lo hizo pues dava lo que no era suyo, y que el rey que pedia y tomava tal merced devia ser algun loco pues pedia lo que era de otros y que fuesse alla à tomarla.

When I said that there was only one God, that he governed heaven and earth, and that he was Lord of all, they thought I spoke rightly, and that it ought to be so ; but as for my statement that the Pope was lord of all the universe in lieu of God, and that he had conferred that land upon the King of Castille, they said that the Pope must have been drunk when he did so, for he gave what was not his own, and that the king who asked for and accepted such a gift must be an idiot, since he asked for the property of others and came there to take it.

[Zumarraga, Doctrina Christiana.] In colophon on reverse of f 4: A gloria y alabaca de Dios . . . fue impressa esta Doctrina Catholica en Mexico . . . Heading of l 1: Prologo. Proemio a los amados hermanos lectores Xpianos en el SUPLEMENTO o ADICIONES del CATHECISMO, que quiere dezir Enseñamiento del Christiano, sm. 4to. wanting title, £48. Mexico, about 1544

ALMOST UNIQUE; only one other copy being known, which is in the Biblioteca Provincial of Toledo. But even that copy does not contain the supplement described above, which is, moreover, not found in any copy of any other edition of the book, which was printed three or four times in Mexico by order of Fray Juan Zumarraga, the first Bishop of that city.

The above copy begins on folio a 2, the first leaf (which contained the title and the beginning of the text) being lost, and proceeds in eights to f, followed by f in four leaves, so that the colophon appears as above on the reverse of the 76th folio. The Supplement runs from l 1 to n 7, thus consisting of 23 leaves more. Towards the end it is a little wormed in the inner margin.

Harrisse, in the Supplement to his Bibl. Amer. Vetust. places this work, for want of exact knowledge, under the date of 1540; it is certainly, whether we refer it to that year or to a year or two later, one of the earliest productions of the press in America, and as such no less interesting than valuable.

Molina (Alonso de) Vocabulario de la lengua CASTELLANA Y MEXICANA, sm. 4to. First Edition, title and preliminary leaves facsimile, as well as a leaf in the body of the book and one at the end, morocco, by Bedford, £72. (Mexico, 1555)

Only four other copies are believed to be extant; all of them imperfect. It is hardly more than twenty-five years since the existence of this book became known to bibliographers, although the preface of the edition of 1571 refers to it as printed some years ago. The copies which have been seen have fetched from £50. to £60. each.

Molina (Alonso de) Confessionario mayor, en lengua Mexicana (la lengua de los Navas) y Castellana, Mexico, Antonio de Espinosa, 1565; CONFESIONARIO BREVE en lengua Mexicana y Castellana, ib. id.; 2 parts in 1 vol. sm. 4to. woodcuts, imperfect, vellum, EXCESSIVELY RARE, £25. 1565

An imperfect copy fetched £26. 10s at Puttick's in 1869. The present copy wants the following leaves: title, part of folio 2, folio 3 and half of 9, 17, 19, 22, 27, 30, 44, 45, 57, 60, 61, 65-73, 84, 85, 96, in the Conf. mayor, which consisted originally of 124 leaves. The Conf. breve runs from leaf 1 to 16, but wants leaf 5.

 — the same, 12mo. fine perfect copy, title in facsimile, morocco extra, by Bedford, £40. 1571

EXCESSIVELY RARE, perfect or imperfect. The value of this book as a monument of philology is universally recognized; its interest as the first printed Grammar of the Aztec tongue may also be pointed out. The circumstance that two copies are to be met with in one catalogue is an extraordinary one, but does not militate against the fact that very few are known to exist; and I am unable to mention any sale in which one has been seen since the time of Heber.

Molina, Vocabulario Mexicano, 2 vols. in 1, folio, the first eight leaves in MS. and portion of the last leaf wanting, vellum, £5.

Mexico, 1571

The first and most complete of any of the dictionaries of the American languages. It is cited by Thomas, in his History of Printing in America, as a great literary curiosity, being one of the earliest books printed in the New World. See also Dr. Cotton, Horne, Ternaux, and other bibliographical writers.

A copy was priced by Thorpe in 1832, £28. which had cost Lord Kingsborough £52. 10s; another priced by Stargardt, in Berlin, 1858, 150 Thalers; in 1856, at Puttick's, £16.; Mr. Heber paid £31. 10s for a copy in the original parchment cover.

Mexico, 1556

VERY RARE: the only other copy which has appeared in the London market fetched £17. 10s at the Abbé Fischer's sale in 1869. As for the book itself, it is a thick volume of nearly 700 pages, entirely treating on those sexual subjects which exercised the thoughts and pens of so many of the Spanish monks, and which they professed to study for the sake of their Indian converts. Alfonso Gutierrez, who styled himself a Vera Cruce, was one of the most distinguished of the missionaries, and remarkable for his perfect knowledge of the Nahuatl and Tarasca languages.

EXCESSIVELY RARE; PERHAPS UNIQUE. Harris, on the authority of Icazbalceta, mentions the "Catalogus" but without any description. The questions contain some curious references to the still existing cult of idols, and will be found useful to fill up lacuna in our knowledge of the Mexican mythology. They relate, however, chiefly to sexual and kindred matters, and in this respect form a strange picture of the prurient morality of Spanish priests. The penitent is instructed that he (or she) must specify how many times, etc., how often in a year, "four hundred times more or less," and as the questions are framed carefully for both men and women, with particular inquiry into the smallest and nastiest details, it is not likely that many copies were allowed to be printed, even under such an administration as that of the Spaniards in Mexico. The author was considered an accomplished master of the native tongue.

Written during an eight years' residence in Mexico, and as the result of a considerable acquaintance with the manners and customs of the Indians; ancient manuscripts and pictures preserved in the Monasteries, etc. It contains much important information not before published. The Catalogue occupies 96 pp. separately numbered, at the end of the book, and is not found in all copies. There has been no worthier workman in the field of Mexican Antiquities than Boturini; even Lord Kingsborough's name can scarcely be placed so high. Without the indefatigable and wisely-directed researches of the Hispano-Italian, a great portion of the native contributions to Mexican history would certainly have perished. Yet instead of loading him with rewards, the Spanish Government robbed him of his MSS. under pretence that his intimacy with the Indians covered disloyalty. His professed intention was to rather the preuves of the Guadalupe Virgin's miraculous history, but it is to be hoped that this was pious hypocrisy in so deserving a student.

California:

ORTEGA, Vocabulario en lengua Castellana y CORA, sm. 4to. old Mexico, 1732

EXCESSIVELY RARE, as is shown by the fact that there was no copy in the Fischer Sale, at Puttick's in 1869; and that the book is not mentioned by Rich or Ternaux, or in the "Nuggets," while it is cited by Brunet and Graesse merely on the authority of Ludewig's quotation from Adeling's Mithridates.

The Cora language is considered to be one of great interest, in consequence of its surprising affinities with the Mexican. It is spoken in the mountains of the Colorado region, a territory which is still unexplored.

APOSTOLICOS AFANES DE LA COMPAÑIA DE JESUS, escritos por un padre de la misma religion de su provincia de Mexico, sm. 4to. old Barcelona, 1754

A very valuable, but little-known work. Notwithstanding the general terms in which the title is couched, the subject of the book is wholly confined to California and the region round the rivers Colorado and Gila. The life of Eusebio Kino, the Jesuit Missionary, is given, and an account of his labours of exploration, derived from his own MSS. which were in the possession of the anonymous author. One of the learned societies of San Francisco, ought to have the book translated and printed in English.

— the same, sm. 4to. complete with the rare map of California and portrait, hf. bound, £10. ib. 1787

This is not merely a religious biography, but a most interesting account of the Travels of this zealous Missionary and his companions in Mexico and California, in which latter country he founded several Missions.

UGARTE, Vida y virtudes de Juan de Ugarte, missionero de las Islas Californias y uno de sus primeros Conquistadores, escrita por Juan Joseph de Villavicencio, sm. 4to. vellum, £5. Mexico, 1752

VERY RARE. Juan de Ugarte was a Jesuit missionary who resided in California from 1700 to 1730, and obtained the reputation of an apostle, or "the Father of the Indians." One of his great labours was the exploration of the Gulf of California to its northmost extremity, in which he seems to have entered the Colorado, and sailed for some distance up its waters.

MARTINEZ (Henrico. Cosmographo de su Magestad) Reportorio de los Tiempos y Historia natural desta Nueva Espana, sm. 4to. diagram, wormed in the inner and lower margins, vellum, £20. Mexico, 1606

EXCESSIVELY RARE, and in fact almost unknown. It is not mentioned by Brunet, Graesse, Salvá, Rich, or in the Nuggets; nor was there a copy in the great Mexican collection sold by the Abbé Fischer at Puttick's in 1859. Yet the work is one of real historical importance, as might easily be supposed from the learning and eminence of the author—whose engineering labours have made his own name celebrated in the Annals of Mexico. Although intitled Historia natural, the above work contains the treatises on the mode in which the New World was peopled, on the arrival of the Mexicans amongst the aborigines, of the country in which they established their empire; on the discovery of America, and the life of Columbus; and a political history of the Aztec monarchy down to its overthrow by Cortes; as well as valuable astronomical and geographical observations. Further on, the American annals are continued from 1520 to 1590. So far as I can find, the only other copy of this volume which has turned up in London, was sold by myself nearly twenty years ago.

s. l. e. a. (? Puebla de los Angeles, 1660)

A body of information concerning the history, conquest, administration and the Indian peoples of the territory comprised within the Bishopric of Puebla. In order to resist the encroachments of the monkish orders, los Regulares, and in defence of the established Church of the Province, and the action of Bishop Palafox y Mendoza, the present volume was compiled, in which are included Charters and Privileges, and many other historical documents, a list of the clergy acquainted with the native languages, and an account of the Artes, Bocabularios, etc. One of the charges constantly made against los Regulares is their luxurious life, which ruins the Indians amongst whom they dwell and so impoverishes their districts as to leave nothing flourishing but the magnificent convents.

Priced, 4 vols. Weigel, 36 thalers, 1829; 1832, Payne and Foss, vellum, £6. 6s; 1837, £9. 9s. In the second volume (pp. 1282-84) will be found the celebrated letter of Columbus "de Insulis nuper inventis."

The first and second volumes of this collection were edited by Father Andrew Schott, S.J.; the third by John Pistorius; and the last, which is often wanting or is imperfect, even in the greatest libraries, by Father Francis Schott, S.J., brother of the first planner and original editor of the work. In learning and judgment the several editors appear well adapted to their respective tasks, but as especially worthy of commendation are to be named Andrew Schott who commenced and his brother Francis who completed the work, which is not less honourable to the learned order of St. Ignatius Loyola, than are the critical editions of the lordly Benedictines.

Vogt, whose professed object was to notice none but very rare books, calls this "Collectio longe rarissima et preciosissima," and says also "Inter rariora historici argumenti opera hæc collectio est referenda."

This Thomas Scott was an English clergyman resident at Utrecht. In what manner he became possessed of the secret information that appears in his book, we cannot now discover, but it seems certain that the Vox Populi contains real and not fictitious matter. It is an extremely curious document upon the private relations between England and Spain.

Obra notabilísima, llena de novedad en los asuntos, originalidad en los tipos, fuego y fantasia en la composicion, valentia y seguridad en la marcha, decision y hasta finura en el dibujo: las Leyendas puestas al pié de cada una por el mismo autor, son concisas, incisivas y picantes, revelando con su misma rapidez la idea fugaz que su mente concebía en un momento, y su mano consignaba en poco más de otro.

— LOS PROVERBIOS, Coleccion de 18 grandes laminas en fól. mayor, grabadas al agua fuerte del mismo autor GOYA, 20s

Los grabados de esta curio-ísima coleccion representan asuntos completamente fantásticos y caprichosos, tan interesantes por su novedad y el ingenio que revelan, como difíciles de interpretar, careciendo de toda explicacion que descubra el pensamiento del artista.

These famous Ballads are so excessively rare in any of the old editions that one is glad to meet with a good reprint like the above, which is besides most complete. The Romancero of the Cid is a combination of the Ballads in which the hero's life used to be told or sung amongst the people of Spain; and is thus a far more national, valuable, and poetical series of pictures than the old Poema del Cid can claim to be; it contains the perfect poetic life of a hero, who, whatever he may have been in reality, is one of the most noble and attractive figures in all legendary history.

The Cid. CHRONICA del FAMOSO CAVALLERO CID RUYDIEZ CAMPEADOR, nueva edicion con una introduccion historico-literaria por Huber, royal 8vo. pp. calviii and 356, sd. (sells 12s) 7s Stuttgart, 1853
— the same, 8vo. half red morocco, 12s

Best edition of this famous chronicle. It was composed probably in the thirteenth century, and exhibits at once the character of a faithful history, of a great prose-poem, and of a romance of chivalry. "It is overflowing with the very spirit of the times when it was written, and offers us so true a picture of their generous virtues, as well as their stern violence, that it may well be regarded as one of the best books in the world, if not the very best, for studying the real character and manners of the ages of chivalry."—Ticknor.

Swedenborg. Signs of the Times: Explanations applicable and necessary for the present time, extracted from the works of the Honourable EMANUEL SWEDENBORG, 8vo. pp. x and 400, cloth, 2s 1872

What is Swedenborgianism? Ninety-nine persons out of every hundred would be unable to answer the question; yet it is one of considerable interest in these days of spreading Spiritualism. It is a fine Theosophy, derived by the great teacher from actual converse with spirits far nobler than those who play tambourines and lift stout gentlemen in chairs. Swedenborg was a philosopher as well as a Mystic, and a profound thinker whose thoughts became intensified into beatific visions. His notions are often singular, but his principles are always pure and lofty; yet even he offers a heaven of youth and beauty and ineffable delights of the senses.

Few can struggle through the voluminous Arcana Coelestia in Latin; and there is no student of the history of the human mind as displayed in various religions, who will not welcome the clear English exposition of Swedenborgianism which is now for the first time offered to the public by a temperate believer.

TRUMBULL (J. Hammond) Notes on Forty Algonking versions of the Lord's Prayer,
8vo. sd. £2. Hartford, U. S. 1873

Simple as its title is, this tract of 116 pages contains matter of more philological value with regard to American languages than any single work previously printed. The forty versions are given, with older and with new translations, and grammatical analyses.

TRUMBULL (J. Hammond) Origin and Early Progress of Indian Mission in New language printed at Cambridge and Boston,

1633-1721, roy. 8vo. uncut, 18s

Privately printed, Worcester, Massachusetts, 1874

The first bibliography of its kind, and for that reason comparatively imperfect; but nevertheless one of high value, far surpassing in extent and correctness the entire aggregate of similar notices that might be gathered from all previous printed sources of information. The author is probably the only person who knows the languages concerning which he writes.

Turner Gallery (The); a Series of Sixty Engravings from the Principal Works of JOSEPH MALLORD WILLIAM TURNER, with a Memoir and Illustrative Text by RALPH NICHOLSON WORNUM, Keeper and Secretary, National Gallery, LARGE PAPER, Artists' India Proofs, elephant folio, half morocco, (pub. at £20.) £14. 14s 1875

"To those whose memories are old enough to go back through any considerable portion of Turner's life, or who may have seen the majority of the pictures he painted during so many years of loving labour, it will be at once manifest that no better selection could have been made of paintings which could be got at by any reasonable means. Many of his grandest productions are in this series of engravings, and the ablest landscape engravers of the day have been employed on the plates, among which are some that, we feel assured, Turner himself would have been delighted to see. These proof impressions constitute a volume of exceeding beauty, which deserves to find a place in the library of every man of taste. The number of copies printed is too limited for a wide circulation, but, on that account, the rarity of the publication makes it the more valuable. It is not too much to affirm that a more beautiful and worthy tribute to the genius of the great painter does not exist, and is not likely to exist at any future time."—Art Journal.

Apud Aldi filios Venetiis, 1545

Exemplaire de M. Renouard. "On a joint à cet exemplaire les passages d'Homère, Lucrèce, Ennius, et autres poètes imités par Virgile; le tout d'une très-belle écriture du seizième siècle, sur des feuillets de papier blanc placés entre chaque page. Je serois porté à croire tout ceci écrit par Fulvius Ursinus, et l'ébauche de son important ouvrage: Virgilius collatione scriptorum græcorum illustratus; peut-être est-ce la main de Leo Allatius, dont j'ai vu en Italie de l'écriture ressemblant beaucoup à celle-ci. Au reste, qu'elle soit d'Ursinus, d'Allatius, ou de quelque autre, ce travail est évidemment le résultat des veilles de quelque savant distingué, et ne peut être l'ouvrage d'un copiste. L'exemplaire est en outre d'une beauté parfaite, et, quoique dépositaire d'un travail de si longue haleine, il est conservé presque autant que si jamais il n'avait été lu." (Note de M. A. A. Renouard.)

Bry's (De) Collection of Voyages to the East

AND WEST INDIES: AMERICA, ASIA, and AFRICA, a set of the Grands et Petits Voyages in Latin, 31 parts, folio and sm. folio, being the various editions of the several parts, as stated below, fine impressions of the plates, some unbound, the others fine copies in vellum, £150. Francofurti, De Bry et Merian, 1590-1634

Abstract of the two Series, the editions and their variations.

GRANDS VOYAGES in Latin, the COMPLETE SERIES of Parts I-XIII, mostly in two states, the genuine first editions, and second issues, offering many variations, including a set of the first nine parts, in beautiful condition, fine and large copies such as will perhaps not again be seen. A prize for an American Collector.

Contents:

Part I, in two states: first a copy of the earliest issue, 1590, very fine impressions of the plates before the title had engraved on it cum gratia et privilegio Cæs. Majest. ad quadriennium, which is printed in small italics on a narrow slip pasted on, and with Theodori and Feirabendii, also with triangular culs-de-lampe at the end of the Index and the Mendæ; secondly the same first edition, a second issue, with the cum gratia filled in, and the i taken off, and different culs-de-lampe.

Note.—The first of these two copies is in an earlier condition than Brunet has seen. He mentions the difference between the titles of the two issues as only consisting in a i more or less. Further the text in the second issue of the fourth plate of Picts is altered. The heading is in small capitals, the initial represents two men, the cul-de-lampe a small mask.

Part II, 1591, first edition, very fine impressions of the plates, with a second edition of the Parergon added, entitled Historia luctuose Expeditionis.

Part III, 2 copies, genuine first edition, 1592, with the plate of the seven escutcheons before the blanks at the sides had been filled in with figures of the virtues: second edition, 1605.

Part IV, first edition, in two states, 1594, first issue, before the title was marked Ai, and the plates numbered, and wanting pp. 1-8 of preface; second issue, title marked Ai (a variation not noticed by Brunet), and the plates numbered, beginning with the third, a perfect copy.

Part V, two editions, first edition in two states: 1595, the earliest before the word Hia was inserted on title to supply the place of Historia, which had been omitted, and before invictis. was changed to invictis.; with a small wormhole; the other copy is the second issue. The second edition, plates only.

Part VII, first edition, 1599; last edition, three plates printed in the text, 1625

Part VIII, first edition, 1599, with two small maps not always found. Second edition, Kempfer, 1625, without preliminary matter or map.

Part IX, first edition, 1603, the three parts complete, including Additamentum;—the same, second edition, Historia Antipodum pars nona, Merian, 1633.

Note on the second editions of the 8th and 9th parts. At the end of the second edition of the 8th part, is Partis Nonæ, liber III, pp. 129-160. This is printed in double columns, in the same manner as the 8th part, to which it is joined without break in the order of the signatures or pages. Brunet notices this, but says the 9th part should have pp. 1-160. Now the Liber II ends on page 102, which leaves a blank of pp. 103-128 before we arrive at liber III commencing on 129. Besides, this piece would be in duplicate if it were placed both in the 8th and 9th parts. To the 8th it falls properly without change in the arrangement. In the 9th there would be a leap from page 102 to 129, and an alteration from long lines to double columns. Part IX is therefore complete in two books, pp. 1-102, the third book having been published with the preceding part.

Part XII wants maps.

Part XIII wants 6 maps.

These last four parts were only published once, and printed in much smaller number than the others. They are very rarely found, and, even incomplete, are valuable acquisitions.

PETITS VOYAGES in Latin, Parts I-X, with variations as stated below:—

Part I is in two editions, the first, 1598, and the second, which is augmented by the Appendix, 1624. Plate 6 in Part III has been pasted over an engraving wrongly placed on the text. Part VII has the Swichard coat of arms on leaf of dedication. Part IX is quite complete, containing not only the five last plates, with title, but also the maps rarely found.

*A magnificently illustrated copy ofWALTON AND COTTON'S COMPLETE

ANGLER, with original Memoirs and Notes by Sir HARRIS NICOLAS, Pickering's exquisite edition, 2 vols. enlarged into 6 vols. impl. 8vo. India proofs of the 61 beautiful plates and vignettes, with a duplicate set of India proofs before letters, struck off separately, and upwards of six hundred additional illustrations, green MOROCCO super extra; gilt edges, £125. 1836

To expatiate sufficiently upon the merits of this superb set of books, would occupy more space than a bookseller's catalogue affords: but the following abstract of the additional plates, which have been collected with the greatest care, will give an idea of the valuable prints contained in the six volumes, and of which a detailed list is contained in the last. This set would form an ornament to the library of the collector, the views would interest the topographer, and the sporting subjects would charm the sportsman; altogether it is a most suitable book for a country house.

Waring's Arts connected with Architecture, illustrated by examples in CENTRAL ITALY of STAINED GLASS, FRESCO ORNAMENTS, MARBLE AND ENAMEL INLAY, WOOD INLAY, etc. from the Thirtieth to the Fifteenth Century, 41 beautiful plates in colours, with descriptive text, LARGE PAPER, atlas folio, (pub. at £10. 10s) half bound morocco, gilt edges, £5. 5s 1858

"So elaborate, costly, and suggestive a work as that which has been produced by Mr. J. B. Waring, with the aid of Mr. Vincent Brooks, deserves to be set prominently before those who are interested in the subject of it. To produce a work by Chromolithography, containing forty-one large folio plates, blazing with colour, on paper de luxe, solidly bound, involves no small risk financially; and the effort, when worthily made, as this is, should be supported by those who concern themselves with the arts of the country. For years our architecture has been bald and lifeless; restricted to ill-understood imitations, and permitted no aid from her children arts. The forty-one plates in the work before us are appropriated to STAINED GLASS, eight; FRESCO ORNAMENTS and FIGURES, eight; WOOD INLAY, five; and MARBLE ENAMEL INLAY, twenty."

The preface asserts that Walter Map composed the original of this famous Romance "in Norman-French." The Welsh text is unfortunately a translation executed apparently in the fourteenth century; and not a fragment of the legends embodied in the first Latin or French work on the Grail. Still, it is the oldest existing British form of the Arthur stories.

Westwood's Arcana Entomologica, or Illustrations of new, rare, and Interesting Insects, 2 vols. large 8vo. 95 plates, COLOURED in the finest manner, hf. morocco, top edges gilt, uncut, £4. 4s 1845

One of the richest works ever published, written by one of the first Entomologists of this country. It contains most elaborately coloured illustrations of rare and interesting INSECTS, many singularly formed, and all extremely beautiful, including butterflies, beetles, locusts, saw flies, walking-stick insects, praying mantides, cicada, spectre insects, soothsayers, longicorn beetles, grasshoppers, Goliath beetles, &c. from India, Asia, Australia, the Cape, Indian Archipelago, N. America, New Holland, Madagascar, Africa, Brazil, the tropical America, Assam, &c.

The copies issued by the late publisher were issued plain, and printed in a slovenly manner. The above is one of the few copies which have been coloured very carefully and in the finest manner, from the original patterns, by Mr. Hart.

The valuable collection of facsimiles of Manuscripts included in Mr. Westwood's work comprises examples of 113 MSS. in the Original Languages of Scripture, and in the Greek, Oriental, Ancient Irish, Anglo-Saxon, Welsh, Frankish, Lombardic, Slavonian, and Theotisc Styles; from MSS. in the Cottonian, Royal, Harleian and other Collections in the British Museum; the Duke of Sussex, Trinity College, Dublin, and the Libraries at Oxford, Cambridge, Munich, Paris, Vienna, Upsal, Rome, and Verona.

EXCESSIVELY RARE, only some half dozen copies being known. The intrinsic merit and value of these compositions are very great, and have won for them the honour of re-impression in modern times. Sir John Hawkins writes of them with high praise, and engraves the tenth Madrigal of the collection, speaking of it as considered to be equal to the best Italian compositions of the kind.

THE Work now announced as ready for publication may be regarded as constituting the First Chapter of a History of the Fine Arts in this Kingdom, extending from the Roman occupation of Great Britain to the Norman Conquest.

By most persons this "dark age," as it has been termed, will scarcely be supposed capable of affording materials for such a history; and indeed, with the exception of a very few examples given by Strutt, Astle, and Shaw, no opportunity had been afforded to the public of judging of the marvellous beauty and excessive intricacy of the ornamentation and designs of Anglo-Saxon and Irish Manuscripts, until the publication of my "Palæographia Sacra Pictoria," in which I devoted many plates to these marvels of Art.

The study of these Manuscripts has, indeed, brought out the singular fact, at a period when the Fine Arts may be said to have been almost extinct in Italy and other parts of the Continent—namely, from the fifth to the end of the eighth century—a style of art had been established, cultivated, and brought to a wonderful state of perfection in these islands, absolutely distinct from that of all other parts of the civilized world, and which was adopted and imitated in the schools founded on the Continent by Charlemagne, as well as in the monastic establishments founded or visited by Anglo-Saxon and Irish Missionaries, many of which became famous seats of learning.

On this subject M. Digby Wyatt, one of the most accomplished of living artists, observes, "In delicacy of handling, and minute, but faultless execution, the whole range of palæography offers nothing comparable to these early Irish Manuscripts, and those produced in the same style in England. When in Dublin some years ago, I had the opportunity of studying very carefully the most marvellous of them all—'The Book of Kells,' some of the ornaments of which I attempted to copy, but broke down in despair. Of this work Mr. Westwood examined the pages, as I did, for hours together, without ever detecting a false line or irregular interlacement."

From this fine Manuscript four pages are copied, whilst the Libraries of London, Lambeth, Oxford, Cambridge, Durham, Lichfield, Salisbury, Dublin, Paris, Rouen, Boulogne, St. Gall, Copenhagen, Stockholm, Utrecht, St. Petersburg, &c. have been laid under contribution, and have afforded materials for illustration; amongst which are numerous examples of the later Anglo-Saxon Manuscripts, in which an entirely distinct, and equally national style of ornamentation, of a very gorgeous character, was developed in the school of St. Ethelwold.

The fac-similes from the original Manuscripts have been executed by myself with the most scrupulous attention to precision of detail; the majority having, in fact, been made with the assistance of a magnifying glass. This statement will, it is hoped, be a sufficient guarantee for the truthfulness of the Plates contained in the work. The fac-similes have been re-produced under my own eye, and the utmost care has been bestowed upon the Chromo-lithographic printing: so that the Work may be regarded as a small paper rival of the grand, but enormously expensive work, of Count Bastard upon the Miniatures and Ornaments of Early French Manuscripts.

An accomplished Art Critic, in speaking of Early Keltic Art, said in "The Times" of September 3, 1867:—

"The glorious illuminations of the Irish MSS., the most exquisitely beautiful designs with which religious art, so prolific in its creations, has ever enriched the world! It is that strangely complicated, interlacing and lacertine knot-work pattern which is so frequently found upon the crosses of the Anglo-Saxon period, and especially common within the kingdom of Northumbria. Introduced into Ireland most probably with Christianity, it there received a very high development by being engrafted upon the native Keltic stock, and thence spread with Irish and Christian teaching, not only to Scotland and the North of England, but to still more distant parts of Europe."

S. n. (? Mogunt, cir. 1510)

This curious little book, full of a curious mixture of Latin and Teutonic, with many rhyming proverbs used by the German lower classes, is valuable as shewing the manners of the priesthood. The custom of concubinage seems to have been almost universal amongst them.

Spiritual Songs, and Morall Odes) Meditations, advancing the glory of God applied to easie Tunes, stout 16mo. green morocco, gilt edges, £22: 10s

Only about half a dozen, if so many, copies are known of this of the rarest of Wither's books. It is not merely a rare volume, but also intrinsically one of his best works.

Wither (G.) Hymnes and Songs of the Church, 12mo. with music, russia, gilt edges, £2. 12s 6d
n. d. (1623)

With a dedication to James I, in which the author acknowledges the King's command, that these hymnes should be annexed to all Psalme-bookes in English Meter. It appears that the celebrated Orlando Gibbons composed the tunes, and also, that "he hath chosen to make his musike agreeable to the matter, and what the common apprehension can best admit; rather than to the curious Fancies of the Time."

Withers' (G.) Abuses Stript and Whipt; or Satirical Essais; also the Scourge, Epigrams, &c. sm. 8vo. very fine copy, russia extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, from Heber's library, £4. 4s

It is in this edition that the curious woodcut of a satyr as "Vice's Executioner" occurs. It also contains "Prince Henrie's Obsequies."

Wither's Motto: Nec Habeo, nec Careo, nec Curo, sm. 8vo. engraved title by R. E. hf. bd. from the Sykes and Corser libraries, £4. 4s

A satire upon the times, in the form of a self-description, vigorously written in heroic verse. The manly spirit, the condensed strength, and the poetical merit of this piece are in striking contrast to the diluted babble of his later works. It was very popular in the seventeenth century, and is in consequence very scarce now.

Williams (John) Observations of Comets from B.C.

611 to A.D. 1640, extracted from the Chinese Annals, translated, with introductory remarks and an APPENDIX comprising the Tables necessary for reducing Chinese time to European reckoning, and a CHINESE CELESTIAL ATLAS, 21 plates by JOHN WILLIAMS, F.S.A., Assistant Secretary to the Royal Astronomical Society 4to. cloth, 15s
1871

This is a work the compilation of which has evidently been attended with very great labour and research. The number of observations amounts to 373, the whole of which have been carefully translated and are fully explained, and it perhaps forms the most complete list that has hitherto been published. The introductory remarks contain many particulars relating to the progress, &c. of Chinese Astronomy of the highest interest, together with a full explanation of the mode of using the Tables in the appendix. The Chronological Tables in particular will be found of great service to all persons who may be engaged in the study of Chinese History or in the investigation of their coinage. The celestial atlas also, which is copied from an original Chinese work on Astronomy, and which is fully explained, does not appear to have been hitherto published, and therefore forms an interesting addition to the work.

A curious and rare work. The second volume contains the portraits of Roman Consuls in a striking series, and is embellished equally with the Medals of Emperors, with numerous grotesque and decorative borders and headpieces, in the style of Holbein, but probably by Vogtherr.

IMAGES de SAINTS et Saintes de la Famille de l'Empereur Maximilien I. folio, Large Paper, 119 fine large woodcuts by various old engravers after designs by H. Burgmaier, hf. calf extra, £7. 10s Vienne, 1799

 figures sur bois dont il est orné et qui sont au nombre de soixante dix-neuf. Cette première édition datée est d'une rareté excessive; on en connaît à peine quatre ou cinq exemplaires. Le nôtre est très beau, dans toutes ses marges, avec beaucoup de témoins et très propre sans avoir été

s. n. (about 1488)

EXCESSIVELY RARE. This copy sold for £27. at Sotheby's in 1870.

Although the book itself is no less curious than rare, yet its chief interest lies in the woodcuts, which are amongst the earliest German efforts of the kind. Every one who has described the book draws attention to the curious figure of a monk on whose shoulder stands the Devil; but all the woodcuts are worth inspection.

PINDER (UDALRICI) SPECULUM DE PASSIONE DOMINI NOSTRI JHESU CHRISTI, cum textu quatuor Evangelistarum et quamplurimorum doctorum glossis, sm. folio, many beautiful woodcuts, (40 large and 37 smaller) by Hans Scheufelein, very fine copy in crimson morocco, gilt marbled edges, by Trautz-Bauzonnet, VERY RARE, £15. 15s

Venetia, Giordano Ziletti, 1570

The most charming book of Æsopian fables ever printed; the illustrations of the old familiar stories are remarkable for their spirit, force and elegance, and have never been reproduced except in the successive editions of Verdizotti.

Woodstock Festivities. The Queenes Majesties Entertainment at Woodstocke (containing the Hermit's Tale of Contarenius and Caudina, by GASCOIGNE, and a Play on the same subject in verse, probably by Gascoigne also,) sm. 4to. wanting signature A, UNIQUE, being the only copy known, £25.

Thomas Cadman, 1858

Not only unique, but of high poetical and intrinsic merit. The use of two words in the passage:

"But yonder comes the Fairie Queene,

And brings with her in trayne

My Lord the Duke with merry looke,

may have suggested the name of Spenser's poem.

"Mr. Dircks has produced a work of singular merit; the historical part is full, accurate, well arranged, bristling with facts and correspondence, the only authentic memorial in existence of one of the most remarkable men of a remarkable age.  A genuine copy wanted; not the one manufactured this century in Italy, and offered as No. 381 in the Bernardon sale at Sotheby's, August 10, 1871. This very curious copy had the two large plates printed from modern re-engraved coppers, and the printed matter on the back in facsimile by the pen. The third (smaller) plate is genuine in that copy.

OLD LIBRARIES BOUGHT FOR CASH

at the maximum market value, without any deductions or delays. The danger of selling by auction—rather than disposing of Libraries to respectable dealers—has been pointed out by a leading article in the "Times," Sept. 26, 1866, from which the following is an extract:—

"An auction is the most unfair of all sales, and is the most ruinous method "of disposing of any sort of goods. As matters are now managed, no one will "resort to an auction who can dispose of his goods by any other means."
